Salvation Army Night Shelter Meals will be provided by St. James from January 27 thru February 2. We are needing volunteers to provide and serve the meals. Please see the sign-up sheet on the Social Ministry bulletin board in the portico area or contact Marcia Klauss or church office. We will also need to provide breakfast items for guests of the shelter.

Children's Church is in need of lead teachers and assistants for the months of April and May. You would need to be available to lead between 10:15 a.m.—10:45 a.m. during worship—only 2-3 times a year. Children's Church is located in the preschool hallway—rooms 109 and 111. Please contact Renee Hughes at 980-613-3297 or church office for details and let us know if you are willing to help with this amazing ministry to our children and families.
