Number of years as a Spiritual Director: I have been providing direction since 2015

Availability: I can schedule times for direction at St. Thomas in Chesapeake during my regular office days, Monday through Thursday most weeks and on Fridays or Saturdays in Hampton with advanced planning.

Education, Training, Certifications and Experience: I did my training through the Still Harbor practicum and training cohort at Still Harbor in Boston, MA. I received my certificate from them in May of 2015. Still Harbor specializes in the confluence of traditional spiritual direction, social justice awareness and offering direction to folks regardless of spiritual background and experience. I also studied with the late Dr. Corinne Ware at the Episcopal Seminary of the Southwest. Part of the emphasis in that segment of my formation and training particularly embraced the Soul Friend and Spiritual Companionship approach to Spiritual Direction.

Specialties/Focus Areas: I have expertise and experience in spiritual direction for discernment, 12 Step Spirituality (for all) and recovery.

Style of Spiritual Direction: “As a spiritual director I take the approach that the Holy Spirit is ultimately everyone’s director. Creating safe and intentional space for the movement of the Spirit is the primary work of both director and directee in seeking Holy Wisdom to express itself in the space between all the participants in the time and space of direction as well as the spaces between appointments through the work of intentional contemplation, reflection and personal expression.”

Personal Information/Interests: I am a passionate novice guitarist, lover of music (especially Americana), friend of dogs, Bill W., Jesus, beauty, truth and goodness. I am married to the Rev. Lisa Green. I am a parent and step-parent, brother, son.

Favorite quotation, “The days I keep my gratitude higher than my expectations, well, I have really good days.”—Ray Wylie Hubbard from “Mother Blues” from the record The Grifter’s Hymnal
