RECENT DEVELOPMENTS

Easter Brunch was very well attended and there was plenty of food and fellowship.

Taste and See Event was on discipleship and featured foods that Jesus and His disciples consumed. The event was also well attended. _____

FUTURE PLANS

Annual Meeting Chicken Dinner:

Information and an article have been submitted for announcements of the 64th Annual Meeting and chicken dinner.

We are planning on 225-250 which is just a tad higher than the last couple Chicken Dinners attendance.

We ordered 500 pieces of chicken from Gerbes for $500. They were the only place that would do baked chicken and they were $150 cheaper than the other lowest bid. We ordered 350 pieces fried and 150 baked. Left over chicken will be sold 4 pieces for $5.

MENU: Fried or baked chicken, Cole slaw, watermelon, green beans, baked beans, cornbread pudding, biscuits/rolls and butter and jelly. Drinks: water, coffee, ice tea, and lemonade. We are asking members for donations of desserts and time. _____

QUESTIONS FOR OR REQUESTED ATTENTION OF THE BOARD

How much money did Fellowship committee "make" at the Easter Brunch. Handling of cash money from donation basket???? _____
