This year Broadway is Hosting its 21st Annual Women's Retreat: That's My Story!

The retreat theme will feature the mastery of Heather Harlan's biblical storytelling woven through the narratives of three women in our congregation whose life journeys have been inspired and reflective of stories from sacred text. Like these stories, their lives know and speak of the presence and power of God in the midst of challenges and celebrations.

Our shared stories will offer insight and courage to one another as we share, pray, contemplate, rest, sing, celebrate, play, and stretch. The gift of this winter weekend is one our spirits will benefit from in personal, and communal ways. Join us this year as we once again return to an off campus location in serene wonderlands. The retreat is located just 20 minutes away at Cedar Creek Resort.

The accommodations range from six person cabins to a twelve person, accessible bunkhouse. We are renting the entire resort at a great off-season rate. This means we will all equally share in the cost of the conference center and lodging. There is room for all of us in this shared space for two nights and four meals with a continental breakfast on Sunday.
