

BROADWAY CHRISTIAN CHURCH • COLUMBIA, MISSOURI
THE WORSHIP OF GOD • MAY 5, 2019
EASTERTIDE

Litany

Based on Psalm 30

You drew us up like people who had stumbled into a pit.

You set us free, saved and healed us.

Weeping may linger with the night, but joy comes with the morning.

You turned our mourning into dancing!

Let us pray:

As you have clothed us with joy, now we give thanks to you forever! Amen.

The Scripture

2 Corinthians 9:6-12

The point is this: the one who sows sparingly will also reap sparingly, and the one who sows bountifully will also reap bountifully. Each of you must give as you have made up your mind, not reluctantly or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver. And God is able to provide you with every blessing in abundance, so that by always having enough of everything, you may share abundantly in every good work. As it is written, "He scatters abroad, he gives to the poor; his righteousness endures forever." He who supplies seed to the sower and bread for food will supply and multiply your seed for sowing and increase the harvest of your righteousness. You will be enriched in every way for your great generosity, which will produce thanksgiving to God through us; for the rendering of this ministry not only supplies the needs of the saints but also overflows with many thanksgivings to God.

Rick McGuire

[Editor's Note: Dr. Rick McGuire, long-time head coach of Track and Field Sports at the University of Missouri – Columbia, and the director of the Missouri Institute for Positive Coaching, and a very-active member of Broadway Christian Church delivered the message, an adaptation of what he has shared with his student athletes and a condensed version of what he shares in seminars all over the world, as well as in his numerous publications. Following is the outline Rick shared with our congregation.]
