

Eliot Chapel Giving Gathering Events

MARCH

20 Minutes of St Louis Trivia and Dinner

Saturday March 4, 6 - 8 pm

Jan Erdman, Webster Groves

A quick round of St Louis trivia followed by soup, salad and sweets

Unwind with the Unitarians Happy Hour

Friday March 10, 6pm

Nancy Shepard, Kirkwood

An icebreaker, a beverage or so, snacks and good Unitarian conversation.

Coffee and Kumihimo

Saturday March 11, 10:00 - noon

Mary Quinn, Ballwin

Kumihimo is the traditional Japanese art of braiding. We'll have time to make a short braid using a kumihimo disk. The process is simple and will allow time to visit while creating.

Happy Hour

Saturday March 11, 4-6pm

Susan Bell at Eliot

This is for adults who want to have a relaxing visit with other Eliot Folks while enjoying some snacks, a drink from the bar or a soft beverage.

Coffee and Snacks after Church

Sunday March 12 after the service

Kate Magrath at Eliot

Head downstairs for a special coffee and conversation opportunity.

Dessert Happy Hour

Thursday March 16, 7:00 pm

Jim Lyon & Flo Reaves, Kirkwood

Take a mid-week break and enjoy dessert, coffee and wine while visiting with old and new Eliot friends.

Happy Hour

Saturday March 18, 4-6pm

Mary & Bob Meihaus, Maryland Heights

This is for adults who want to have a relaxing visit with other Eliot Folks while enjoying some snacks, a drink from the bar or a soft beverage.

Appetizer Pot Luck

Saturday March 18, 6-8pm

Joanne & Jordi Prats, Glendale

Bring your favorite appetizer to share. You'll no doubt go home with a new recipe and perhaps a new Eliot friend.

Family Friendly Drumming Circle

Saturday, March 18, 1-2

Lynn Murphy at Eliot

All ages are welcome to join the Circle and enjoy the shared experience of drumming. Drums provided!

Mexican Train Dominoes

Monday, March 20, 1-3pm

Sue and Clint Blandford, Sunset Hills

We will have two tables of Mexican Train dominoes, which has a bit more strategy than regular dominos. Snacks and soft drinks will be served.

Chickenfoot Dominoes

Friday, March 24, 7-10pm

Ann Marie Hutson at Eliot

Chickenfoot is a typical game of dominoes with thirteen sets from double twelve to double blank. There will be a pot of $2 for each set. It's a fun mindless game and will be a great way to get to know each other. Dessert, coffee/tea and popcorn will be served.

Happy Hour

Saturday March 25, 4-6pm

Trish Williams, Kirkwood

This is for adults who want to have a relaxing visit with other Eliot Folks while enjoying some snacks, a drink from the bar or a soft beverage.

APRIL

Morning Yoga

Saturday, April 1, 9-11am,

Sara Fleming at Eliot

Join in to start your weekend right. Yoga Fusion will relax and energize!

For Those Who Prefer a Virtual Gathering

Saturday April 1, 10:30am

Trina Priese, Zoom

Trina has planned an engaging Zoom visit to connect Eliot Friends old and new.

Happy Hour

Sunday, April 2, 4:30

Madelyn Harris and Peter Wilson, Kirkwood

This is for adults who want to have a relaxing visit with other Eliot Folks while enjoying some snacks, a drink from the bar or a soft beverage.

Sunday Brunch

Sunday April 2 after the service 11:30ish

Karen & Jim Gender, Kirkwood

Family Friendly — kids 7 to 11

After the service head over to the Genders for brunch and bring the kids. We'll celebrate our respect for the interdependent web of all existence by constructing terrariums that everyone can take home.

Chili & Conversation

Sunday, April 2, 4:00pm

Maryann and Rick Mace, Des Peres

Connect with new and old Eliot friends while enjoying chili, crackers and conversation at the Mace's home.

Family Games and Potluck Pizza

Sunday April 2, 4-7pm

Tanya Hull, Creve Coeur

Gaming with kids around will be very flexible to keep it fun for all ages. We will play multiple age range games.

For the very young and/or bored, we will have our teens help with childcare and activities. Even babies are welcome, and adults should be prepared to help out while parents play a round.

Women Talking!

Thursday, April 6, 5:30 pm,

Barbara Harris and Ann Ruger, Webster Groves

Join a group of Eliot women as we enjoy soup, bread, and spirited conversation. We'll throw out a few questions to get us started and then let the conversation take us where it will.

Hidden Treasures of Laumeier

Saturday, April 8, (rain date 4/15), 11am-1pm

Carl and Yvonne Serbell, Laumeier Sculpture Park

Carl and Yvonne plan to show you their favorite sculptures and walks at Laumeier Park. There will be a longer and shorter option for the first hour with cold drinks and conversation afterward.

Family Fun Day at Kirkwood Park

Saturday, April 8, 1:00-3:00

Claudia Jean Potts, Campbell Pavilion, Kirkwood Park

Claudia Jean has rented the Campbell Pavilion to host families and children. She is planning activities for the ten and under age group.

You can include one child over ten years old.

Hike at Camp Wyman

Saturday, April 8, 9:30-11:00

Claire Wyneken, Camp Wyman

Claire will lead a moderately paced hike at Camp Wyman in Eureka. You will be hiking and enjoying the spring wildflowers that are abundant there. If weather is poor, you'll move indoors for board games. Folks should dress for the elements and wear sturdy, closed toed shoes/boots.

Taco Salad and Silly Games

Saturday, April 8, 6:00

Pam Cornwell, Des Peres

Pam will host nine people at her home in Des Peres for taco salad and games to follow.

Family Board Games

Saturday, April 8, 3-5pm

Jennifer & Matthew Husky family at Eliot

The Husky family is hosting family board game fun at Eliot for children and their parents

An Evening with Charlie Chaplin

Thursday April 13, 7pm

Betsey Comfort & Gerry Mandel at Eliot

Gerry is a major Chaplin aficionado and author of a novel about Charlie. He looks forward to sharing background and insight into the man and his movies, with a focus on Chaplin's film "The Kid" released in 1921 and considered to be one of his best.

See an event you'd like to sign up for? Email givinggatherings@eliotchapel.org and tell us which event you'd like to sign up for and how many will attend with you!