

Joseph (Joe) J. Lancaster, Jr.

Joe, a wonderful husband, father, grandfather and friend died on August 7, 2008.

He will be missed by all who knew him for his gregarious and wonderful personality. Joe was born in Dallas on January 26, 1946. He was a graduate of Woodrow Wilson High School, then attended North Texas University; he interrupted his education to join the Marines. Joe proudly served as an officer in the Marines and then returned to Dallas and graduated from Southern Methodist University.

Joe was an outstanding member of the Commercial Real Estate Community having built numerous shopping centers in the Dallas area. He began his career with Henry S. Miller, worked with Weitzman Group and then owned his own company, Arcus Realty.

Joe was the kindest, most generous person you would ever want to meet and will be missed by all who survive him. He leaves the love of his life, his wife Christy Lancaster; his son Blake Penn and friend Ashley Cox; his daughters Tricia Lancaster, Ashley Cunniff and husband Tony Cunniff; and his precious grandchildren Alden, Jackson and Lilly. He will be missed by his in-laws Carol and Phil Laquay, and Bob and Barbara Williams; sisters and brothers-in-law Cindy and Barry Zale, Kelly and David Halpert, Bart and Mimi Williams, Carol and Glenn Lickstein, Brooks and Jan Laquay, and Linda Zawadzki. Joe also leaves numerous nieces and nephews and an abundance of friends.

Joe,
What joy that two hearts
 have met with such love
What peace that two souls
 have joined with such grace
What beauty that two minds have shared with such hope
A treasure that two lives
 will cherish forever
 I honestly love you
 Christy

A Service of Celebration

*Remembering the life of Joseph J. Lancaster, Jr.
January 26, 1946 — August 7, 2008*

August 11, 2008

11:00 a.m.
Sanctuary
Wilshire Baptist Church
Dallas, Texas 75214