Christine Brandes, soprano
Jonathan Dimmock, organ
“A Tale of Three Cities: Music between the Wars”
(from London, Paris, Berlin)

Noted for her radiant, crystalline voice and superb musicianship, soprano Christine Brandes brings her committed artistry to repertoire ranging from the 17th century to newly composed works and enjoys an active career in North America and abroad, performing at many of the world’s most distinguished festivals and concert series in programs spanning from recitals and chamber music to oratorio and opera. She was a featured soloist with the Canton Symphony Orchestra in December 2010, and November 2012. Go to: http://imgartists.com/artist/christine_brandes

Organist, Jonathan Dimmock is well-known internationally as a recitalist, choral conductor, accompanist, continuo player, ensemble musician and church organist. A graduate of Oberlin Conservatory and Yale University, he has held musical posts at Westminster Abbey (London), and three American cathedrals: St. John the Divine (New York), St. Mark’s (Minneapolis), and Grace (San Francisco). He is currently the organist for the San Francisco Symphony, and Organist & Choir Director at St. Ignatius Church and Congregation Sherith Israel (both in San Francisco). A Grammy Award winner for his work with the San Francisco Symphony, he has recorded more than 35 CDs and toured widely on five continents. www.jonathandimmock.com

11:30 a.m. Gathering Time

What happens when eight close friends who have fun, enjoy each others company and sing join forces?

You get Ocho Sync-O

They are mothers and daughters, best friends and new friends, neighbors and phone and text and Facebook and twitter and email buddies. And when they are not working, or going to school, or shuffling kids and/or grandkids, or cleaning and cooking and hoping they can take some time to sleep - they are singing and talking and laughing! Mostly talking and laughing but they do love to sing! They sing four-part barbershop harmony with a diverse repertoire of gospel and country to musicals and patriotic.

You’re going to love this program!

STEPHEN MINISTRY

Serving the Congregation’s Spiritual and Emotional Well-Being

On Sunday, April 6th both worship services will pause to honor the dozens of men and women who are part of CPC’s rich SM legacy, which began in 2001. Their steadfast, quiet dedication has provided more than a decade of quality, confidential SM care for congregants in need, through its focused program of one-on-one Christian lay caregiving. We are blessed, as a faith community, to share in their lay ministerial gifts — peers prayerfully serving peers. We are likewise eager to welcome, train, and equip fresh Stephen Ministers, so that we may walk with compassion alongside every child of God whose burden feels too great. For more information, contact a Stephen Leader: Rosie Anderson, Andrew Hubsch, Pam Moretta, or Vashti Ramsaroop.

Volunteers Needed

at the Annual CPC Easter Egg Hunt
Saturday, April 19

Lots of volunteers are needed to help prepare the brunch, set up and run activities and hide the eggs. Helpers who DON’T have children participating in the hunt are especially needed. Please sign up at the kiosk or contact Jennie George in the office if you can help.

Donations of Candy

Donations of individually wrapped candies that can fit in an Easter egg are greatly needed. Drop off in the church office anytime or the downstairs classrooms on Sundays by Wednesday, April 16. Thank you!

Exciting News!

A new pictorial directory is being produced for Christ Church. Studio Two Photography, a locally owned business, will be helping us with the directory. A photographer will be here on Sunday, April 6, to take photos of our worship services, Sunday School classes, and other pictures from around the building.

Family pictures for the directory will be taken May 20-22 and June 10-12. Scheduling for photo sessions will begin Sunday, May 4. Every family that participates will receive a free directory, a free 10x13 family portrait, and have the option to purchase additional photos for your family and friends. Complete details on how to sign up, photo pricing and packages, and helpful tips for a great family photo will be sent out soon.

Directories become treasured keepsakes, capturing this present time in our church’s history, and in our families lives. So, please, do your small part in this project and participate!

Planning an Event, Class, Meeting, or Gathering at CPC?

Please let the church office know of your plans so that the church calendar can be up-dated and accurate. Bible study teachers, ministry chairs, special event leaders please call Caryn as soon as you set up a meeting/event time and date. She will check the church calendar for you to make sure the building is open and that room is available. Also, remember that evening meetings need to be scheduled when custodial help is available. With enough advanced notice we can arrange for custodial coverage.
The countdown has begun. I realized yesterday that I have less than five weeks to get ready for Sabbatical. There are still several sermons to write, arrangements to make, people to prepare, and prayers to pray. One other task: lead two Westminster Classes focused on this particular season of CPC sabbatical.

I have known all along that there would be need to explain this Sabbatical—purpose and place—multiple times, so I asked the Adult Discipleship Ministry if I could, even at this late date, lead the Westminster Class the first two weeks of April. You are welcome, and encouraged, to attend! (Bring your questions and your insights.) You will even find that there is a role you can play to make this season yet more meaningful to the CPC community.

The first class is on Sunday, April 6th and is meant to help you understand the purpose of this particular sabbatical. The above quote from Psalm 105 is integral to both the purpose and the hoped for outcome. Critical are the questions I will be asking of myself and of many others. How does the design of the sabbatical address the purpose of the sabbatical? Come and find out.

The second class is on Sunday, April 13th; I will speak to “Where and Prayer.” Where am I going? Why have these particular places been selected? How does place help determine outcome? What role does prayer play here? What is your role in all of this? What’s “in it” for Christ Presbyterian Church? What’s “in it” for you? And, of course, how will CPC be managed in my absence? I suspect other questions will be added to the list.

I hope you can find time to join in these discussions. The truth of the matter is that you have a vested interest in the process and outcome of this sabbatical. Even as I give thanks and praise for the sabbatical work before me, I find myself dreaming about the future of Christ Presbyterian Church.

May the peace of Christ be with you.

    Genesis 18, Being a Friend of God
Hello friends. As the signs of spring keep trying to peak through I find myself getting more and more anxious to get this camp season started. As the season gets closer, I want to let everybody know what we are working on to assure the safety of all who come visit the place that is so dear to our hearts.

This camp is built on the efforts to keep everybody safe from all dangers. We must all work to ensure the safety of the youth who come for summer programming. Of course, we try to make the facilities and grounds out at camp safe from hazards that could physically hurt our participants. However, that is just one aspect of safety we need to be aware of.

The Outdoor Ministry, Pastor Dave, and I are working on a Safe Conduct Policy that will set standards in place to help prevent issues of all aspects of safety. This policy will lay the groundwork to put procedures in place to ensure the physical, mental, emotional, and spiritual safety of all the participants who come to Wakonda throughout the year. I hope to have this policy set and approved by Session sometime in April. If you have any questions about this policy, please send me an email.

Our 2014 Ministry team is almost complete! As I write this we are still in need of a kitchen assistant, male counselor, and female counselor. If you know anybody who is interested, send them my way.

We are going to have a family camp weekend on Labor Day weekend. All family make-ups and ages are welcome! This will be a fairly laid back weekend with great food and fellowship. We are still putting details together, so there will be a more formal announcement as it gets closer.

As always, please feel free to contact me by email with any questions or concerns (charmsen@cantoncpc.org).

Peace,

Chris
One Great Hour of Sharing will be received Palm Sunday, April 13. Since 1949 Presbyterians have joined with millions of other Christians through OGHS to share God’s love with those in need. Your generous gifts assist those affected by natural disasters, provide food to the hungry, and assist in helping to empower the poor and oppressed. Please consider giving generously to this offering.

Refuge of Hope is commemorating its third anniversary of being in its new building with a celebratory dinner at Hartville Kitchen on Tuesday, April 22nd, 6:00pm. The Board of Directors invites you to be the guest of ROF. Reservations for this very special evening must be made by April 15th with Susan Sleighter, 330-453-1785. Tables max out at 10. Please check your calendar and plan to attend.

Compassion Sunday will be Sunday, April 27th. Please give thought to adopting one or more of these children and be ready to sign up with Vashti Ramsaroop in Cloister Hall.

Martha Morgan has volunteered to give knitting lessons to anyone who wishes to learn. Please contact her at 330-452-5235 for more information and to make arrangements.

The new YMCA is fantastic. Please find time to visit and welcome them back to the neighborhood. They are happy to give you a tour.

re/entry Symposium—Welcoming Home Returning Citizens, Post-Incarceration
On Thursday, May 1st, CPC’s Mission Ministry will welcome over 300 guests from across Ohio and beyond for “re/entry — a Policy Coordination and Training Symposium for Professionals.” This day-long program of panels and presenters will focus on the complex realities facing those exiting prison and attempting to rejoin society. With 2.8 million Americans currently incarcerated — nearly 1% of our nation’s entire population — “returning citizens” represent a significant, if still-marginalized, constituency. The rich 5/1 roster of speakers — from key federal and Ohio governmental agencies, plus faith-based social service providers — will include judges and justices; prison administrators; national Presbyterian leaders; re/entry coordinators; H.R. directors; and returned citizens. Professional CEUs and CLEs will be available for counselors, social workers, and lawyers. Attendees will also be provided a continental breakfast and lunch. For CPC members interested in volunteering — whether for all or part of the event — please contact Andrew Hubsch: 330.956.4627 or andrew.c.hubsch@gmail.com.

FRIENDS HELPING FRIENDS
Friends Helping Friends is a ministry administered by the Board of Deacons. Our purpose is to assist members of Christ Presbyterian Church with short term health needs. These requests may include trips to medical appointments or preparing and delivering meals on a temporary basis. We also have medical equipment such as canes, crutches and walkers, etc., stored at the church for loan. In order to coordinate assistance, we need two to three days notice.

Since July 2013 Friends Helping Friends has prepared and delivered 36 meals and provided transportation to 16 doctor’s appointments for non-emergency medical procedures. We also assisted four members who requested medical equipment. We believe that God has a hand in this ministry and graces us to provide for those members. Our 10 volunteers have been wonderful about happily assisting our church family.

Session Meeting Notes—March 11, 2014
The meeting opened with dinner and dialogue among Session and the ministry chairs. Each person then told of our most positive experience at church the past couple of months. After dinner, each ministry chair gave a 5 minute presentation on their ministry. At the conclusion of all the presentations, questions and comments were discussed. A big thank you was given to all the chairs for the work the committees they lead do. The clerk’s report was read and accepted. A letter from the Muskingum Valley Presbytery inquiring about continued contributions was discussed. It was decided more review of this letter will occur at the April meeting. The Nominating Ministry brought forth a motion to nominate Wanda Young to be a commissioner to Presbytery representing the church at Presbytery meetings. The motion was discussed and approved. Session next discussed the Austin grave flowers. A motion was discussed and approved to change the legal arrangements for this. A motion was discussed and approved for Jon Mathewson to organize a youth mission trip to Kermit, WV, this summer. A motion was discussed and approved on a request from Nancy Montgomery and the Mission West Team to raise money for the 2014 Mission Trip. The Session then moved into worship with Elder Scott McCahan sharing his faith journey. Session members also raised names of those needing to be held in prayer. Meeting adjourned with the Lord’s Prayer.

Respectfully Submitted,
Scott McCahan

PRAYER AT THE CLOSE OF DAY: Compline

Sunday, May 18

7:30pm – organ music for meditation
8:00pm – sung prayers offered by the Chancel Choir

The final event for the 2013-2014 Music Series at Christ Church will be Sunday evening, May 18. It will be the brief liturgy of “Night Prayer” or known in our Presbyterian Book of Common Worship as “Prayer at the Close of Day.” When the service is sung by a choir, it is known traditionally as Compline. Members of our Chancel Choir will offer the service as they sing their prayers and pray their songs in the presence of God and all who wish to participate aurally.

Since the choral service lasts approximately 35 minutes, there will be an opportunity for people to come early for a half hour of organ music, played by David J. Kienzle.
Thank You!

I thank God for all my remembrances of you. I would like to thank you friends and church family for all the prayers and support over this past year. For all your cards, visits, phone calls, and books. Special thanks to the prayer chain, Judy Sweeney, Carolyn Kortkamp, Kristen McKimm, Joyce and Earl McKimm, Wendy and Amanda, Martha Morgan, and the wonderful Library Class, Pastor Dave, and Pastor Trubee. One more special shout out to a little four legged friend, Jacob Marley, who helped her mommy Andrea bring a poinsettia to my home and put a smile on my face one cold snowy day in December. You have no idea what this has meant to my heart to feel the love of God through all of you.

May God’s Peace and Love be with all of you,
Karen Speelman

Spread the word about our wheelchair floor space in the Sanctuary. We hope that no one with limited mobility would avoid coming to worship.
