Simple Gifts
Concert of Folk & World Music by Duo Artists:
Linda Littleton & Karen Hirshon
Sunday, April 12, 2015 — 4:00 pm
Free-will offering received.
Hear them in the 10:30 am Worship Service as well!

Two women plus twelve instruments equals one good time when Simple Gifts grace our chancel area on the second Sunday of April. This award-winning band performs on an impressive array of instruments, including two violins, mandolin, hammered dulcimer, recorders, and guitar plus some more unusual instruments like the bowed psaltery, baritone fiddle, banjolin, guijto, and dounbek.

Simple Gifts presents a wide variety of ethnic folk music, including everything from lively Irish jigs and down-home American reels to hard-driving Klezmer freilachs, haunting Gypsy melodies, and exotic Balkan dance tunes. Throughout their performances, they put their own distinctive stamp on traditional tunes, blending styles from diverse cultures with their American roots. According to the Celtic Classic Festival in Bethlehem, PA, "few musicians can match the warmly personal stage presence Simple Gifts possesses." It is obvious that these women love the music they play, and they know how to share their talents, their enthusiasm, and their sense of humor with the audience.

Linda Littleton and Karen Hirshon have performed as Simple Gifts since 1995. The group was founded by Littleton in 1989 and has performed throughout the mid-Atlantic region, including appearances at the Smithsonian, Brooklyn Museum of Art, National Governors' Convention, Longwood Gardens, National Theater, Whitaker Center, Hershey Theatre, Philadelphia Folk Festival, Philadelphia Museum of Art, Ontario Center for Performing Arts, and dozens of colleges and universities throughout the region. Simple Gifts has opened for Natalie MacMaster, Tom Paxton, John McCutcheon, Robin and Linda Williams, Jay Unger and Molly Mason, and Boys of the Lough.

Simple Gifts has recorded six albums. Their newest, "Crossing Borders: Music of Many Lands," was recognized by Indie Acoustic as including "one of the best songs of 2005." Their previous album, "Time and Again," won a bronze star (third place) in the Crossroads Music Awards. Their recordings include traditional music from Romania, Hungary, Russia, Bulgaria, Greece, Ireland, Scotland, France, Sweden, Denmark, and America, plus original compositions by each group member.

"These women share a chemistry that infuses their music with energy, integrity, and joy. Theirs is a special gift." --David W. Johnson, Boston Globe

"Listening to [Simple Gifts] is like sampling an international buffet ... The number of instruments they pick up in a typical concert makes the group anything but simple. ... [This is] acoustic music of the highest order." --Will Lebzelter, Centre Daily Times

"Simple Gifts wowed our audience with a cultural and educational program that was fun, informative, and energetic." -- Teresia Bush, Smithsonian Institution

Updates from the Personnel Ministry

We are happy to welcome David Miller to our committee. Since David owns his own business, he brings his many usable talents to our group. His expertise in accounting and finance will be very helpful.

Another facet of the Personnel Ministry is to have one-with-one meetings with the church staff twice a year. One of these two meetings is usually conducted over a shared meal. The purpose of these meetings is to develop a more “fellowship/personal centered relationship” with the staff. The meetings are informal and provide the church staff members the opportunity to get to know the Personnel Ministry through personal interaction with the Ministry members. These meetings are not considered a form of performance review, but rather, an opportunity for informal discussion.

Respectfully submitted by Marilou Berg and Millie Snyder
Sunday Morning Adult Classes—9:15-10:15 a.m.

The Library Class is studying the Apocrypha.

Contemporary Issues and Biblical Thought Adult Class meets in the Quilting Room and is studying a book by James W. Moore entitled, “The Power of a Story.”

The Parlor Class is studying from the Present Word. April 5—Resurrection Guaranteed, led by Betsy Smith; April 12—Love One Another, led by Jim Smith; April 19—Believe God’s Love, led by Ken Wulff; April 26—Watch Out for Deceivers, led by Fred Bohse

Intergenerational Bible Study Class in the Upper Room (on the second floor above the Parlor): Mike Ophardt leads the discussion.

Westminster Hall Class: Open class for the community titled: Shadows and Reality: The Letter to The Hebrews in a Postmodern Age. The course will be held every Sunday in April and May, 9:00 AM to 10:00 AM.

from the Deacons’ Bench

We each have an empty spot, inside, that yearns to be filled. When it is filled by the RIGHT thing, you feel joy and a completeness that nothing else can provide. Yes, we pray God will fill that spot in us; and then speak to us, through the Holy Spirit, as to what we can do to honor Him in our daily lives. Many have found the Food, Clothing, and Prayer Ministry fills that need in them. Would you consider volunteering your time, or finances to the Food, Clothing, and Prayer Ministry? There are many different volunteer opportunities—one might be perfect for you. Here are just a few of the things we do the 2nd and 4th Wednesday mornings of each month: shop, set up and hand out food bags, sort clothing and help our clients find the things they need, register clients and pray with them. We have been told, by our clients, that our Food, Clothing, and Prayer Ministry is unlike any other church or agency that helps those in need, as CPC volunteers display their joy as they interact with our clients and the clients “feel the love.” Many of them have become Food, Clothing, and Prayer volunteers themselves. We would welcome YOU in this ministry. If you would like to volunteer, please come to the church at 8:00 a.m. on a giveaway day.

Session Notes

March 17, 2015

Session gathered for dinner and fellowship welcoming Kathy Kettlewell as dinner guest. We spent time in conversation centered on the wonderful blessing we received as a congregation from the music ministry’s rendition of J. S. Bach’s Passion According to St. John. Kathy updated us on the staff benefits task force work and informed us of their plans to bring the final report to us by May 1. Our business for the evening included several items of administration. We affirmed the work of the mission ministry and the positive response of the congregation to the Hartville Migrant mission through the purchase of items to welcome the migrant farmers to the area. Our prayerful worship included a meditation offered by Alice Bailey on the life and ministry of St. Patrick. We closed in prayer and benediction to continue this Lenten journey of walking toward the cross and to the Resurrection through our service to and with Christ Presbyterian Church.

TAG — Tuesday Afternoon Group

Tuesday, April 21

TAG continues on Tuesday, April 21 with an entertaining musical program from Christopher Kenney, Director of Education at the McKinley Museum. Chris is a talented pianist and his performance of “Songs Without Words” will take us from the classical rhythms and romantic melodies of Felix Mendelssohn to the syncopated sounds of jazz and blues. Get swept into music from Phantom of the Opera, and enjoy the familiar theme from the Peanuts cartoons. Chris will also give a brief background about each piece. Making this event extra special, he will perform on the new Bösendorfer piano in the chancel.

The TAG chefs will prepare one of their delicious homemade meals. Plan to gather at 11:30 for a time of fellowship and greeting friends, followed by a meditation at 11:45, and lunch at noon. The program will begin at approximately 12:45 pm. The cost is only $7.00.

The TAG season will conclude on Tuesday, May 19 with a visit from Ida McKinley. Wondering how that’s possible? Mark your calendars now and come find out!
Theologian Shirley Guthrie tells the story of a young boy who went to a revival meeting. The preacher held up a dirty glass. “See this glass? That’s you. Filthy, stained with sin, inside and out.” The preacher then held up a hammer. “This hammer is the righteousness of God. It is the instrument of God’s wrath against sinners. God’s just can be satisfied only by punishing and destroying people whose lives are filled with vileness and corruption.” The preacher put the glass on the pulpit and slowly, deliberately drew back the hammer...But a miracle happened! At the last moment he covered the class with a pan. The hammer struck with a crash that echoed through the hushed church. He held up the untouched glass with one hand and the mangled pan with the other. “Jesus Christ died for your sins. He took the punishment that ought to have fallen on you.”

When the boy went to bed that night, he could not sleep. He felt afraid of God. He could love Jesus, who sacrificed himself for him, but how could he love a God who wanted to “get” everyone and was only kept from doing it because Jesus got in the way? The boy decided that he could only hate such a hammer-swinging God who had to be bought off at such a terrible price. The preacher must have been wrong. He would forget the whole thing!

Relieved, the little boy finally fell asleep.

As we approach the Day of Resurrection, we take time to consider the meaning behind the cross of Christ. What was it all about? Why such a thing? Could there have been another way? In fact, the Holy Scriptures use many different images in an attempt to describe just what happened that day on Golgotha: slaves being freed (redeemed!), debt being paid off, moral example of the power of love (for God so loved the world...), cosmic powers of evil being defeated, sacrificial offerings of an unblemished lamb, and yes, images of Jesus serving as reparation for our criminal attitude toward God. All the images help fill out a mystery too deep for us to completely understand.

God’s way is holy (Psalm 77:13); it is “…so high I cannot attain it (Psalm 139:6).” Now, it seems, “we see dimly (I Corinthians 13: 12).”

The one thing that appears incontrovertible to me is this: “God proves his love for us that while we still were sinners Christ died for us.” In Christ, the grounding of Holy Scripture is one of love. God works to reconcile us to himself... through Christ! As Paul puts it, “…in Christ God was reconciling the world to himself...” All this means that Christ came to express God’s love for us. Jesus’ life, death and resurrection is, first and foremost, an expression of God’s unshakable love. Jesus came, not to change God’s heart and mind toward us, but to express God’s heart and mind toward us. Jesus died not so that the God who did not love us could begin to love us, but because God already loved us! That is what we try to express throughout our Holy Week and Easter worship and celebration. Worship always expresses truth!

All this, so that we might sleep well at night…and live well in the day.

Praise be to God, who give us the victory!

Pastor Dave

Journey Through the Scriptures:
mediating on our identity in Christ in silence and solitude

During Holy Week, the Sanctuary will be open for silence, solitude, and guided reflection. We invite you to enter the Sanctuary expecting to meet God as you reflect and experience the scripture stations scattered around the room. The stations are open from 9:00 a.m.—4:00 p.m. Monday (3/30) and Tuesday (3/31), and 9:00 a.m.—6:30 p.m. Wednesday (4/1). Holy Week is a perfect time to meditate on what Jesus has done to demonstrate the depth of God’s love for us. Come meditate on how God’s love shapes our identity. Each station will have a scripture verse and a prompt to help engage the scripture. If you have questions, talk with Edith Ophardt or someone who attended the February All Church Retreat.
Hello friends,

As I write this, we already have 75 registrations for camp, we have gained at least one guest group, and our crew is nearly hired for the summer. Things are coming along nicely. Of those 75 registrants, 8 are adults! I know what you are thinking, “Adults can’t come to camp!”

Back in the September Tydings, I introduced a new camping program. On June 11-13 & 28-30, we will have our Parent/Grandparent & ME camps. These camps give parents and/or grandparents a chance to come experience the ministry of Wakonda with their young child or grandchild ages 4-7. We already have enough people signed up to run both of these camps! We will give each family group their own cabin, so there are limited spots. We also will run our Labor Day Family Camp, which will be September 4-7. There will be counselors at all of these offerings, so there will be time for the kids to go play games and do other activities while the adults have a chance to have some conversation or find their own adventure. The best part is, we will do the cooking and cleaning!

My point here is, outdoor ministries is not just for kids. We all need a chance to get away from the busy times of our life. These offerings allow everyone to spend some time away from life with their family, reconnecting and strengthening that relationship while strengthening their relationship with God. We also have our Adult Wakonda Experience for those who need to get away from it all, and spend some time with those who enjoy outdoor ministries.

You all have a place around the campfire. Please join us this year; your soul will be fed.

As always, Shalom my friends,

Chris

On behalf of Wakonda, we would like to thank you for your continued generous support of our mission!

The summer season will be here sooner than you know it. Please consider donating the following items to Wakonda this summer. Donated items may be dropped off in the church office. Monetary donations are also greatly appreciated.
