A free book, a shared class, and a common topic - the Discipleship Ministry invites you to learn in community with all of the adult Sunday School classes. (Don’t usually attend a SS class? No problem - everyone's invited.) During every Sunday in April and May, we'll join together in Westminster Hall at 9:15 a.m. to learn about everyday faith practices that can grow our spiritual identity. We'll use a common book, so every household gets a free copy of Discovering Our Spiritual Identity: Practices for God's Beloved.

“AN EASTER REJOICING”
by Alice Parker
Sunday, April 17 @ 6:00 p.m.
Chancel Choir, soloists, harp, percussion & organ

Alice Parker is one of America’s greatest living composers, arrangers, conductors, hymnologists, church musicians. In the preface to her delightful cantata, An Easter Rejoicing, she writes:

After the solemn mood of the Lenten season, Easter should shine forth with unbounded joy. Yet happy music is not easily found these days: the times demand more sober stuff. This piece, without apology, combines old hymns and new songs with but one aim: to provide an expression of exultant joy for those who celebrate the Easter Feast...For me the joy of the Resurrection is reflected in the rebirth of the natural world around us: in a word, spring. So the Cantata entwines these twin themes: reflections on the risen Christ, and descriptions of his earthly garden.

Indeed this concert on Sunday the 17th will be full of delight, joy, and re-birth. Adorned by harp and percussion, the music will refresh the audience as much as any spring-time tryst through our gardens.

Grace in Our Midst

Have you been enjoying the new segment in our worship service called “Grace in Our Midst”? Most of us have been utterly amazed by the stories we have heard. Stories have been told that made us laugh, and made us cry. Each story has shown how God is at work in individual lives, right here at Christ Church. We want you to tell YOUR story. If you don’t tell your God story, who will? Please speak to Pastor Dave or Nancy Irving to get scheduled for a future Grace in Our Midst segment. Thank you!

Have you remembered your church in your will?

Christ Church urges you to make a plan for yourself and when you do, to please remember your church in it. You can leave a set amount or a tithe (for example, 10% of your estate). If you already have a will, you can amend it with a call to your attorney. For questions about making a bequest to CPC, feel free to contact any member of the Endowment Ministry (Jack Burnquist, Roger Gray, Teresa Houston, Linda Norton, or Steve Stocker).

Attention Travelers!

This year’s theme for Wakonda in the City is “All Around the World.” Each day, children will be exploring cultures, traditions, and faith from countries around the globe. To enhance this experience, WE NEED YOUR HELP!

If you have traveled to another country, experienced another culture, been transformed by a journey you’ve experienced—I’d love to hear about it!

I want to hear your stories and memories; I want to see the pictures, mementos, and souvenirs you brought back. I want to incorporate your experience into our programs, crafts, music, and worship we offer at this camp. This doesn’t mean you have to lead a program (though you would be welcome to!), I just want to be able to utilize the immense travel experiences of this congregation to help make this year’s camp an authentic experience for our campers.

If you have a trip or journey you’d like to share, please contact me at jgeorge@cantoncpc.org or call/text me at 330-268-2196. I welcome the opportunity to meet with you.

Blessings,
Jennie George

TAG

Tuesday Afternoon Group

Tuesday, April 19

The TAG season continues on Tuesday, April 19, with a visit from Edith Roosevelt. Edith Kermit Carow Roosevelt was the second wife of President Theodore Roosevelt and served as First Lady of the United States during his presidency from 1901 to 1909. Edith will be portrayed by the talented local actress Janey McClelland Davis. Janey was among the first docents at the National First Ladies Library when it opened. She currently does one-woman programs bringing outstanding women of history to life. Janey portrayed Ida McKinley in a well-received TAG performance last year. Please plan to join us for this fascinating and entertaining program!

The TAG chefs will be back and will prepare one of their delicious homemade meals. Plan to gather at 11:30 for a time of fellowship and greeting friends, followed by a meditation at 11:45, and lunch at noon. The program will begin at approximately 12:45 p.m. The cost is only $7.00.

The TAG season concludes on Tuesday, May 17, with a program called, “Pluses and Minuses of Getting Older,” presented by Verna Barrett.
Hello Friends,

Even with the passing of the “mildest” of the three winters I have experienced in Ohio, I am happy to finally get some warmer weather out at camp. Living in Wisconsin for most of my life, I certainly know how quickly winter weather can return, but I am hoping the spring weather “sticks” for the year. We have a lot to do before campers start coming!

Since our Fall Picnic last October, we have worked diligently to get the word out that the traditional spring auction to benefit the camphership and programming fund is moving to fall. Just in case you missed it, the date is October 1st. Why the change? It is difficult to work on donations and other parts of the auction until after Advent and Christmas. First, those who are doing the work are busy with the regular activities of the season, second, our wonderful partner businesses and individuals who donate items are busy working on Christmas gifts and other items for the season.

This gives us about three months to put a lot of the work of the auction together. I honestly do not know how they have accomplished such a great event in so little time over the years, but we all felt it was time to make the move so we have 10 months to work on the auction instead of three months. We already have some great items coming in, and look forward to the new date!

Along with the auction date change, we decided it would be best to move the picnic to spring. On May 14th, we will host our first annual Spring Picnic out at camp. It will have many elements like the traditional Ox Roast event. There will be a great meal, activities for the kids, and wagon rides. We will also have some of the Summer Crew on hand to talk to parents and campers about the upcoming season. We will of course be able to answer any registration questions. We will end the day with a short vespers service and prayer walk for those who wish to take part. We hope to see everyone there!

Each season, we put out a list of items that we could use for the upcoming year. These are usually programming items and other small things. This year, we decided to make a more comprehensive “Wish List” of things that would benefit the ministry. Along with these small programming items, we decided to add some larger, multiple season use items. We have also added some very large items that would last us for many years. This list will be updated on our website as we receive these gifts.

Our ministry depends on the many ways our friends donate, pray, volunteer, and participate. Words cannot represent how much we appreciate all you give to Wakonda. Our new page on the website (“Give to Wakonda”) explains how each of these four ways of giving to Wakonda helps the ministry. Once again, thank you all!

Shalom my friends,

Session Notes
March 15, 2016

Session gathered for dinner provided by Elder Nancy Irving. We then entered into worship, centered on the Way of the Cross, and led by Elder Christy Paumier. After worship, the Session started their prayerful work.

The Pastor Nominating Committee (PNC) gave a progress report. The Session reaffirmed their call to pursue a full-time, ordained pastor. Prayer work continued with approval of the minutes of the February meeting and the Clerk’s report.

Session approved two minor expense increases over amounts previously approved, and named Elder Christy Paumier to serve as Session liaison to the Student Scholarship Award Governance committee.

The meeting concluded following the Prayers of The People.

Respectfully submitted,
Elder Nancy Irving

Our vocation is not simply to be, but to work together with God in the creation of our own life, our own identity, our own destiny...in God.

Thomas Merton

My church small group has been meeting together for 12 years. Twelve years! Our time together is always meaningful and faith affirming. Some of the books we have studied have been better than others and one discussion might seem deeper and more consequential than the next. Still, every gathering is eventful worth my time and energy.

Recently, my church small group has been “testing” a book entitled Discovering Our Spiritual Identity, Practices for God’s Beloved, by Trevor Hudson with a forward by Dallas Willard. In between the cover you find readings, “holy experiments,” and questions to consider. We’ve already completed the first three chapters. In all honesty, our last gathering was one of the most meaningful gatherings we have experienced in several years. As we ended our last time together we talked about that very fact; it was a wonderful experience of God’s presence and work in our gathering. We find ourselves really excited to continue on.

A man by the name of Anonymous once said, “Christians are ordinary people who are committed to the extraordinary person of Christ.” It’s a great sentiment, but commitment, we know, always implies effort and energy. We have, as a congregation, accepted the call the Apostle Paul speaks of in his letter to the Colossians: “…just as you received Christ Jesus as Lord, continue to live in him, rooted and built up in him, strengthened in the faith as you were taught, and overflowing with thankfulness (2:7-8).” We are called to “grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ” (2 Peter 3:18). So, rather than approaching our lives as a series of spiritual tasks to perform, we approach our lives as opportunities to be available to meet God and witness God’s Spirit at work in and around us. Today—right now—you are being invited to make the most of another opportunity to make yourself available to meet God and see God’s Spirit at work in and around you.

What effort and energy must you expend in order to enter into “the extraordinary person of Christ?” It starts with a free book—a gift from the Adult Discipleship Ministry. Discovering Our Spiritual Identity, Practices For God’s Beloved is yours for the taking! The book covers topics such as

- hearing and speaking with God
- growing in spiritual friendship
- practicing stewardship of our work and play
- learning discernment
- approaching our death and the world beyond
- living now in the kingdom of God

As I’ve already said, Discovering Our Spiritual Identity is both a book and a workbook, incorporating “holy experiments,” and simple practices that work to bring you into God’s presence and helping you experience life as God’s beloved.

Although the book can be used by individuals alone, it is meant to be used “in community.” There is no other way of saying this, so allow me to be direct: It is in sharing with others our experiences of these readings, holy experiments and practices that you will discover a more vital and real spirituality. So you are invited to join in a church-wide Sunday school class that will meet in Westminster Hall on Sunday mornings at 9:15. These gatherings begin on the first Sunday of April and end the last Sunday of May. The gatherings will be led by me and several other wise and gifted guides. There will be a second opportunity to gather for weekly teachings and discussion each Sunday evening from 6:15-7:30. If you are unable to join in the morning gathering, consider the evening option.

I hope, and pray, that you will consider committing to this gathering opportunity. We are in the middle of that season which finds us proclaiming, “Christ is risen!” Come experience the risen Lord as the CPC community gathers to live into that truth together! “Christ has risen indeed!”

Grace and Peace to you,
Pastor Dave

THANK YOU! THANK YOU! THANK YOU!

To my loving church family,

I just received your card; I am overwhelmed. There are simply no words to explain how much this means to me—all I can do is cry. Thank you, thank you, thank you for your thoughtfulness and prayers.

Love you all, Renie Connor

Dear Family in Christ at Christ Presbyterian,

Thank you so much for your generous gifts toward my ministry at Payap University in Chiang Mai, Thailand. I treasure our long-time relationship and your support is deeply affirming.

During the past few weeks in different situations, I heard three different teachers sharing about opportunities they had to listen to, encourage, and support individual students who were struggling, but were able to persevere and exceed because their teachers cared! This is Payap University at our best. Our mission is to express God’s love and I love it when our students experience it through our teachers. Thank you for partnering with us through your gifts.

With this card I’m also wishing you a Happy Chinese New Year (February) and an early Happy Thai New Year (April).

May your year be full of joy and a deepening experience of God’s grace and love.

Esther Wakeman

March 13, 2016

Christian sympathy is extended to the Miller and O'Grady Families.
“I have a Maker. He knows my heart. Before even time began, my life was in His hands.”

Is God calling you to partner with the Mission West Team this year? As you may have heard, we will be heading to Pine Ridge, South Dakota on July 16th. The flying contingent will most likely return on the 23rd and those who are driving will return on the 26th. The primary focus of the trip for the last few years has been holding a Vacation Bible School for the children in and around Porcupine Presbyterian Church. After using packaged curriculums for several years, we sensed that while those were good and well-developed tools, they were missing the mark with the children of the reservation, so last year we decided to attempt to write our own curriculum. The theme of our VBS was Psalm 139 and the message that was driven home every day was that God made us, knows us, loves us and is always with us. We connected these messages with Lakota virtues and as many Lakota stories and cultural connections as we could find. By the grace of God it appeared to be far more relevant to the children and we also experienced a far greater level of adult participation from the Lakota men and women than ever before!

So, here’s where you come in. How is God calling you to partner with us? Do you have vacation time that would allow you to come on the trip with us? Do you have financial resources that would help us build up our fund and make the trip more affordable for everyone? Would you like to chat with someone who made the trip last year and find out what specific concerns are on our hearts? We will certainly have specific needs to bring before you in a few weeks, but for the meantime we invite you to prayerfully consider how God might use you this year as you also begin to pray for the Mission West 2016 team! If you have questions, please feel free to contact: Becky Blackford (beckyblackford1@gmail.com), JoAn Smith (ejosmith5@gmail.com), or Nancy Montgomery (nlmonty@sssnet.com). Shalom!

Your Grace Stories
Encourage Others in Faith

Most of us have been utterly amazed at the few stories we have already heard during our worship time known as “Grace in Our Midst.” Already stories have been told that have made us laugh and made us cry. Each story has allowed us to envision Christ at work in individual lives. Nobody else is going to tell these stories. We have to!

Sometime soon, someone is likely to ask you to tell the congregation a story of how God is working in your life. Soon! We’ve asked a few already. The immediate response goes something like this: “I couldn’t. I wouldn’t know what to say. I can’t talk in front of the entire congregation like that!”

To these excuses, Elder Scott McCahan has a response. Allow me to summarize his words; “It’s not that difficult at all! After my first time I wanted to do it again. You start by saying ‘Yes, I’ll do it. I’ll trust God to lead me on.’ Then you get a piece of paper and start to write. That’s when God seems to take over; words keep coming. The real difficulty is trying to “contain God’ to 90 seconds! Then you have to trust God to get you past the silly fear of standing up in front of long-time friends and people you love and who love you—who want only the best for you...who are rooting for you...excited for you...supporting you...praying for you—so you can share your brief faith story. It’s an amazing experience no one should deprive themselves of!”

Talk to Pastor Dave or Elder Nancy Irving to schedule an opportunity for you to share your “Grace in Our Midst.”
