A Progressive Dinner Organ Concert
With the Elegance of “Strolling” String Orchestra!
Sunday, 23 April @ 5:00
Christ Church Sanctuary (free with donations accepted)

Progressive? Yes, but the audience stays in the seats – it will be the musicians and instruments that move around from “table to table”.

Appetizers: $ Served from the balcony, played by David J. Kienzle -
- Our quaint and adaptable Grant Mason Memorial Continuo Organ
  - The scrumptious Pachelbel “Canon” in its original recipe (scoring)
  - Followed with two short canapé offerings similar to a musical caviar or small savory bites

Soup & Salad: $ Served from the front nave floor by the pulpit, played by David J. Kienzle -
- Our diverse Hazel Parkinson Organ rolled in from the chapel
  - A cool sweet & sour delectable teased by the expressive flute stops of the small chapel organ
  - And the delightfully elegant Organ Concerto in F by Franz Joseph Haydn with strings (powdered wigs and hooped skirts not required)

Main Course with a Side: $ Served from the BIG ORGAN in the chancel, played by Mario Buchanan -
- Our magnificent Gibb’s-Preyer Organ on two stories on both sides of the chancel with 72 ranks of pipes and four manuals and pedals
  - Side dish is an organ solo of colorful swirling designs on elegant gold-embroidered china
  - Protein-rich, but caloric Organ Concerto by Frances Poulenc with Lush-sounding strings and punctuating timpani (warning: vacillates among sweet, savory, pungent, biting, and warm notes)

Dessert: $ Served in Westminster Hall (management apologizes for the inconvenience of moving to other tables)
- Our incredibly talented energetic Jennie George is the chef/presenter
- Reception with flair to enable greeting each other and the performing artists

Come check out our Salad Bar!

On Sunday, April 23, celebrate spring with the Mission West Team.
Please join us at our Salad Bar lunch. Your donation will help us provide healthy breakfasts and lunches to the children that join us for VBS.

This is the third of a series of five articles designed to help us all consider and explore our individual and corporate call to spiritual transformation. The Apostle Paul writes, “Do not conform to the pattern of this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind (Romans 12:2).” This is the ongoing work of a Christian. This work never ends.

Last month we considered the issue of identity. We speak of Core Identity. As we journey through life we ask several questions; “Who am I?” “Whose am I...to whom do I belong?” “Who do I give power and authority over my life?” “From what unhealthy and unworthy identities am I freed?” Psalm 100 reminds us “that the Lord is God. It is he who made us, and we are his; we are his people, the sheep of his pasture.” As we delve deeper into this truth and reality we come to know ourselves as we truly are. We are freed from false identities and freed to identity with/in Christ.

To be free in Christ speaks directly to the possibilities of character formation. We are freed from the morality, ethic, “way,” of the world, and open to the acts of God to shape and re-form our character in ways that please God and model the Kingdom begun in Jesus. It is not an overstatement to say that, as we open ourselves to God’s transforming Spirit, our character begins to reflect the very character of Jesus. We speak of our true character or Core Character.

The Prophet Micah is most remembered for asking the question we all ask ourselves at some time or another; what does the Lord require of me? Most of us can recite Micah’s response to our question: “...to do justice, and to love kindness, and to walk humbly with your God.” The problem being that most of us have our own idea as to what is just, what is kind, and what is humble. In our hearts we know our ideas don’t often match up with God’s understanding or measure of justice, kindness, and humility.

Take time in deep reflection to consider how Jesus responded to various situations that called for a Godly understanding of fairness, integrity, righteousness, and impartiality (consider John 8:1-11). Might we pray to God the Spirit to transform our notions of justice to reflect those of Jesus? Take time to deeply reflect on how Jesus responds to those around him with kindness and compassion (consider Mark 6:30-44 or Luke 11-17). Might we pray to God the Spirit to transform our notions of kindness and compassion to reflect, not our own, but those of Jesus? Take time to reflect deeply on the world’s understanding of humility and compare them to the humility practiced by Jesus (consider Luke 14:7-14 or Matthew 26:34-39). Might we pray to God the Spirit to transform our perceptions of humility and transform us to better reflect the humility of Jesus?

God asks us to allow the life, ministry, death and resurrection of Jesus to reform our character (our personality, nature, disposition, temperament). God asks us to allow the Holy Spirit to “enter in” and rework us, reconstruct us, rebirth us. “How?” you might ask? Well, go dig out your copy of Responding to The Call of Christ. You will find the answers between the cover. If you can’t find it, grab another the next time you’re in CPC.

And remember; this business of reformation/ transformation...it’s not a one-time event! It’s the purpose of a lifetime.

Thank you for your contributions to the Socks and Skivvies drive to benefit the Food, Clothing, and Prayer Ministry. 850 total items were collected and distributed.

On my recent 85th birthday, I received a pleasant surprise. First came the lovely card from the staff of the church, next came a very special hand-made card from the youth of the church, then came the beautiful card so many of you signed. A month later I am still enjoying these cards as they stand on a table. I am so blessed to be a part of a church filled with people who care about their friends, acquaintances, and our community.

Love and Thanks,
Corine Cornish

Tuesday Afternoon Group

Tuesday, April 18

An afternoon of musical entertainment awaits us on Tuesday, April 18. Following a delicious lunch prepared by the TAG chefs, we will hear musician and Canton native John Whitacre perform traditional music of the British Isles. John will present a program of Celtic music from the 18th century. He will play tunes that were popular in England, Scotland, Ireland, and the British colonies in the 1700s, explaining people and events associated with those tunes, the different types of tunes and their uses, and instruments played at the time. April 18 is Canton’s Scottish Day, so you will want to plan to wear your tartans!

As always, you are sure to enjoy the wonderful meal and the entertaining program. You will want to plan to gather in Westminster Hall at 11:30 for a time of fellowship and greeting friends, followed by a meditation at 11:45, and lunch at noon. The program will begin at approximately 12:45 pm. The cost is only $7.00. Sign up no later than Sunday, April 16.

Maundy Means Commandment

Maundy Thursday is the Thursday before Easter. Christians remember it as the day of the Last Supper, when Jesus washed the feet of his disciples and then gave them a new commandment to follow. “…love one another. Just as I have loved you, you also should love one another.” (John 13:34)

The program staff and church leaders invite you to

Celebration of Life
Konrad Kingshill (1923-2017)
Retired Missionary of the PCUSA

Dr. Kingshill and his wife, Carolyn, were supported by Christ Presbyterian Church for years in the 50’s, 60’s, and 70’s. Dr. Kingshill challenged Christ Church to set up a special program to bring mission directly to the congregation. The result was “Christ Church in Thailand” in 1962. Bill Yoder was the first representative. Joe Orin was on the committee along with a lot of other important Christ Church people. Dr. Kingshill was probably the most influential Presbyterian missionary of the post World War II era. His accomplishments have changed the entire fabric of the Church of Christ in Thailand, particularly in education. He was the founding father of Payap University, the Department of Education of the church and the Board of Welfare of the church. He was a very close colleague and friend of Bill Yoder’s. Memorial donations may be made directly to Payap University online at unitedboard.org, and select Payap University in the list of institutions.

Social Justice Ministry Team at CPC
Christ Presbyterian Church is creating a new group focusing on social justice. The group finds their name within the Sermon on the Mount where Jesus explains a different approach to life when things are unfair and unjust.

“You have heard that it was said, ‘An eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth.’ But I tell you not to resist an evil person. But whoever slaps you on your right cheek, turn the other to him also. If anyone wants to sue you and take away your tunic, let him have your cloak also. And whoever compels you to go one mile, go with him two. Give to him who asks you, and from him who wants to borrow from you do not turn away.”

The group has taken the name: The Second Mile. In response to the divisive time we find ourselves in, we seek to bring together our church as a family of Christ to educate, challenge, contextualize, advocate, and serve. We hope to walk with people on their journey. We are working to foster a safe space so that differing opinions can be shared respectfully and with love, and to take action to serve beyond the walls of our church. The Second Mile is a new group and we are still working to discern, shape, and build. More information will follow in the coming weeks and months and we look forward to walking this journey with you!

If you have any questions about this group or its mission, please contact Pastor Michael or Moriah (Ophardt) Roberts.

Confirmation Sunday is May 21st – only a few short weeks from now.
As our confirmands are preparing and learning what it means to confirm their baptism, let us keep them in our prayers on this part of their journey. There are also a few of our youth who may be baptized the same day. Let us pray for each of them by name, as Jesus has called them (and us) by name:

Joey Anderson
James Campbell (to be baptized)
Maggie Delap
Riley Hudson
Jordan Miller
Cole Parker (to be baptized)
David Rauch
Grace Snively (to be baptized)

Session Notes
March 21, 2017

Session members and Deacons met together for dinner, worship, and discussion. Pastor Michael opened our meeting with prayer. Dinner was provided by Pastor Dave. Carol Orin shared some of her faith journey with us during worship. Jerry Norton introduced the Spirit and Space Task Force. The Task Force is charged with exploring ways of improving the worship environment to better meet our current needs. Topics discussed were access and movement in the building, areas for greeting and visiting, acoustics and sound board. There are plans to invite downtown leaders to discuss how our church can better connect with and support the surrounding city community. The expectation is to translate the needs of our congregation and our community into ideas for our physical facility. The long range calendar includes: 2017 Project study; 2018 Floating ideas; 2019 Capital campaign and commitments; 2020 Holy Chaos (construction); 2021 Holy Celebration (250th anniversary of our congregation).

The challenge of coordinating ministry meeting schedules was discussed. Two models were explored: Model A involves meetings on a single night stacked back to back; Model B involves limiting meetings to certain nights of the week. It was agreed that reducing the number of nights for meetings would be helpful. Further discussion will occur before final changes are made. Chris Harmsen’s resignation as Camp Director at Camp Wakonda was reported. He will be taking a position in Wisconsin beginning in May. The Camp Ministry is actively seeking ways to address the immediate needs of this spring and summer camping season at Wakonda.

Deacons adjourned and session continued with their meeting. The Minutes and Clerk’s Report were approved. Session approved the following motions: 1. Westminster Hall to be used by the Kiwanis Club for a pancake breakfast fund raiser, Sat. Oct. 7th. 2. Worship ministry will accept a proposal from Clear Gold to reconfigure the sound system including updating the sound board for $2,829 funded from the Yoder Fund. The meeting closed with prayers for the people and the Lord’s prayer.
