This summer, we have been following the semi-continuous lectionary, which focuses mainly on the stories of the patriarchs and the beginning of the Exodus narratives. Last month, we included the texts for all of the Sundays. Here we include just those remaining in the series. We pray that this will help you to focus your preparations for worship so that you can get the most out of our Sunday worship times together.

Salt Shakers
A simple, SOCIAL purpose promoting fellowship at Christ Church!

We are joining together for a September dinner in small groups. That’s it – food! Simply sign up at the Kiosk or on line by August 6th. You decide dine out/potluck dinner and children/no children. The only agenda for these dinners is to meet new people and strengthen our communal fellowship.

Groups of eight will be randomly created from the information you check. Your group will decide on the date and the details. We will come together with open minds and hearts in Christ to share in each other’s company. We will repeat the process again from sign up to selection in October and November!

This is an opportunity to get to know each other.

Don’t miss it!

FYI – Try an Offline Sabbath Rest?
 Disconnect from the Media – Reconnect with Interior

FYI: For Your Interior strength, what is it like to rest in the presence of God at Christ Church, in the sanctuary, on a Sabbath evening, without the harassment of media and digital devices? One Wednesday and nine Sunday evenings in our sanctuary, plus a Friday in Westminster Hall will provide several moments for re-creation.

Have you experienced one of those “cleansing” moments as the colors of the stained glass, the candles, the quiet anticipation of the next musical expression—all wash over the gathered community of concert audiences and evening worshipers? That is how many people describe their love for our annual Music Series at Christ Church. Yes, often our listeners speak of the joyous energy, the heart-pounding rhythm, the ethereal ambiance of the organ, the brass, the singers, the orchestra. Others give witness to the calming and soothing presence of holiness and Spirit.

The key to these experiences of the “holy veil” may be in shunning the pressures of our complicated secular lives. Again, this coming season, we offer a mixture of styles of music, a variety of modes of worship, and often the highest level of artistry available to anyone in this nation. Take a quick glance at what is planned for regional Stark County, in the sanctuary of Christ Church in downtown Canton:

Sunday, October 8 – Music for Organ and Brass; Mario Buchanan, organist
Wednesday, October 25 – Chanticleer (An Orchestra of Voices)
Sunday, November 19 – Amanda Powell & Friends: Beyond Boundaries
Friday, January 5 – Epiphany Madrigal Feast (A Benefit for Food, Clothing, Prayer Ministry)
Sunday Evenings in Lent: February & March – Vesper Services in Five Different Styles
Sunday, April 15 – Hector Olivera, International Concert Organist
Sunday, May 20 – Tom Trenney, Organist; Hymn Festival in Memory of James F. Kettlewell

As Pastor Dave says so often during our announcements: these events are perfect opportunities for the congregation of CPC to bring others from the community into our sacred space, and to offer them spiritual growth, or grounding, in a non-threatening way. Spread the word, share the publicity fliers that will become available in late August, and invite your friends.
If you’ve been keeping up with CPC news, you’re aware that August will offer something new. We are thrilled to host Craig Joseph’s Seat of the Pants Production of “The Christians” by Lucas Hnath. As was noted in the July Tydings, “The play chronicles the debates and discussions that ensue in one church when the pastor shares some new thoughts from the pulpit that run counter to his flock’s current theology. It is a thoughtful and probing look at faith and why we believe what we believe.” The play unfolds as a worship service! There’s singing, preaching and many of the things you and I associate with a typical Sunday morning at CPC.

Many of us know Craig Joseph. A child of this church, Craig has gone on to work in churches throughout the Midwest, is a successful artist and curator, and a gifted director and actor. Currently he works as Creative Director at Cassel Bear, a branding and marketing firm in Canton. He also keeps an active acting and directing career with theaters around Northeast Ohio. Craig’s production company, Seat of the Pants Production, is known to produce three or four plays each summer, all usually hosted in different venues. They are “bare-budget” productions of the highest quality but Craig’s desire is to keep tickets affordable. We are delighted he asked us to host “The Christians” and look forward to a successful shared adventure.

Behind the scenes, two things have become important to me. First, as I mentioned earlier, the play unfolds as a worship service. We talked to Craig to suggest that maybe CPC folks could serve as “ushers.” So...there is a sign-up sheet in Cloister Hall. You get to see the play for free AND greet guests into our community space! This is an act of hospitality, and hospitality is vital to our future success as a congregation. Remember what Paul wrote: “Do not neglect to show hospitality to strangers, for by doing that some have entertained angels without knowing it (Hebrews 13:2).”

The second matter I have recently been giving much thought to revolves around how we steward the building that has been entrusted to our care. In years past, a person or organization would call the church office and ask if they could use (rent!) the building. We would get out our list of charges and give them a rental rate ($$$). Our building was not so much an asset to the community as it was an income stream that contributed to the operations budget.

Someone asked, “Are we charging them to use the building?” As a pastor, I have come to a different understanding of “building stewardship.” Our space is an asset to the city-center community, but it no-longer has much potential as an income stream. Rental space abounds. Theologically, this is probably a good thing for us; it forces us to think about stewarding the purpose and possibilities of our ministry space.

“The Christians” gives us the perfect instance in which to think through the rent/no rent question. Craig invites us into partnership. Really, he offers us a gift. Possibly up to six hundred people will come to see this production. This means we have the opportunity to welcome 600 new people into our space and give them a brief sample of our hospitality...our way of living in Christ.

What will occupy our emotional time and energy? Will we obsess about the lost opportunity to squeeze a non-profit production for a few extra bucks, or will we grab the opportunity to receive “strangers” into our spiritual space, witness the welcome of our Christian community, and express the love we have experienced in Christ? I know there are other issues to consider here, but what is the single most important of them all? In our hearts (in our very souls!) we know the answer. If you can’t usher, then buy a ticket. Then look for an opportunity to welcome someone to CPC!

Grace, peace, and mercy to us all!

Pastor Dave

“More Than A Book Club”

In June and July, the 2nd Mile Social Justice Ministry held its first “More Than A Book Club” event, focusing on the book and movie “The Immortal Life of Henrietta Lacks.” In October, we will hold more events to dialogue around social justice issues. We will be reading and discussing Isabel Wilkerson’s book, “The Warmth of Other Suns.” While it is a lengthier book, it is certainly worth the investment and will certainly challenge and make you think. We are still determining the final dates of the event(s), but wanted to give you advanced notice so that you could pick up your own copy of the book and start reading now! Once again, we are planning on a potluck meal model and childcare may be available upon request.
Sunday Morning Adult Classes—9:15-10:15 a.m.

The Parlor Class is studying from the Present Word. 8/6—Called to Witness, led by Jim Smith; 8/13—Called to Break Down Barriers, led by Steve Patterson; 8/20—Called to Preach, led by Fred Bohse; 8/27—Called to be Inclusive, led by Jack Ketterer.

The Intergenerational Sunday School (ages 13-130): A discussion oriented class that focuses on the weekly readings in scripture (the Daily Grace, printed in each week’s bulletin). Facilitated by Michael Ophardt, this class meets in the Upper Room, above the Parlor class.

The Confessions and the Reformation

2017 marks the 500 year anniversary of the Protestant Reformation. To commemorate that pivotal event, during the months of September and October, the Westminster Hall Sunday School class will study both the Presbyterian Book of Confessions, as well as the Reformation. We will consider how both this collection of confessions and the break away from the Roman Catholic Church have present-day impact on our faith and theology. Classes will begin on September 10 and continue through October 29. We invite all to attend and participate in this foundational class.

Food, Clothing and Prayer Ministry:

In the summer season, we see several families struggle to provide lunch for kids on their tight budgets. We would love to offer items at our Food distributions. Peanut butter, jelly, crackers, pudding cups, and granola bars are some of the suggestions you might consider.

As always, your support of our Ministry is heart-warming.

Thank you so much for your support of this year’s Wakonda in the City! We had a BLAST as we explored God’s amazing universe aboard the Wakonda Space Station! We built a planetarium, launched Alka-Seltzer rockets, and even enjoyed "anti-gravity training" at the Canton YMCA pool! We had over 30 campers plus we were thrilled to be able to welcome over 20 kids from the Tiqah program for a day of fun with us! I feel incredibly blessed and am humbled by the amount of support given to this program every year. From financial support, to prayers, to hands on help with our kids and in the kitchen your support is what makes it possible to share the love and grace of Jesus Christ with so many children in such a fun way.

Thank you! Thank you!

Sunday, August 6—We Welcome Craig Joseph to the Pulpit

Craig grew up at Christ Presbyterian and has been very involved at Camp Wakonda through the years. Later in August, he will be directing “The Christians” play at CPC so, in anticipation of that, we invited him to the pulpit to bring the Word and to share about the production. A native of Canton, Craig was bitten by the theater bug at an early age, and could be found producing short plays and puppet shows in the backyard with the neighborhood kids. After receiving a fantastic arts education in Plain Local Schools, Craig pursued his Bachelors in English and Theology at Wake Forest University (all the while acting and directing), and then went on to receive a Masters in Directing from Northwestern University. A ten-year sojourn in Chicago garnered him professional directing credits with Writers Theatre, White Horse Theatre, and TimeLine Theatre, among others. Contemporaneously, he acted occasionally and wrote several plays, short fiction pieces and a screenplay. Never content to just do one thing, the Chicago decade also found Craig working in a variety of church and nonprofit contexts as a youth pastor, associate pastor, arts educator, college professor and church planter. Through these experiences, Craig developed a passion for merging the arts world with social justice concerns. His next career move, which took him to Minneapolis, found him serving as the Creative Director for a progressive congregation which utilized the arts to foster racial reconciliation, poverty awareness and neighborhood revitalization; all the while, Craig continued directing professionally. A surprise move back home to Ohio eight years ago propelled Craig in a new direction. He was the owner and curator of Translations Art Gallery (84 exhibits in 6 years) and now serves as the Creative Director for a branding and identity agency called Cassel Bear, where he gets to play with the interaction between words and images all day. He continues telling stories on the stage, with many recent acting and directing credits around Northeast Ohio, plus the work he’s done in his own theatre company, Seat of the Pants Productions.

This month we are thrilled to welcome Craig Joseph’s Seat of the Pants Production of “The Christians” by Lucas Hnath. The play chronicles the debates and discussions that ensue in one church when the pastor shares some new thoughts from the pulpit that run counter to his flock’s current theology. It is a thoughtful and probing look at faith and why we believe what we believe. The play will take place in Westminster Hall over two weekends and tickets cost $20 per person. Tickets can be purchased in advance by going to www.christianscanton.eventbrite.com.

While this play is not necessarily a direct ministry of the church, we will welcome several hundred new folks into our building over these two weekends. In line with our vision and call to our community, we want to roll out the red carpet of hospitality for our guests. Several people have already signed up, but we are still in need of a few volunteers to help out with greeting, selling admission at the door, and assisting at concessions. Those who volunteer will receive free admission to that night’s performance. If interested, please sign up in Cloister Hall.

Music Ministry Musings from the New Chairperson

What is the role of the choir in our worship services? It is not to entertain or perform but rather our role is to be spiritual leaders. As we “pray our songs and sing our prayers,” we want to encourage the same attitude in you, the congregation, the body of Christ. Each week the music, hymns, the psalter, the anthems have been carefully and prayerfully chosen to reinforce the lectionary and/or sermon topic of the day. As we rehearse and as we offer our songs, we are acutely aware of both music and message and the importance of sharing that message faithfully to our fellow worshippers.

As a member of the congregation, do you have a role to play other than listening? Of course! You are the choir in the pews. You should feel that you are perhaps the most important part of what we do. Even if you think you cannot sing (although you might surprise yourself), you can meditate, breathe in the beauty of words and music inspired by scripture and the deep experiences of those gifted and inspired to write what we read, hear, and sing.

One of the difficult things, I think, is how to respond to the musical offering of the chancel, youth or children’s choirs when you feel the presence of God, or quite honestly, you just liked it. Introspective prayer is a good option, but what if you feel like doing something more? Often worshippers applaud (though not as often here as in some other churches). While this expresses appreciation, it seems to say “Good job!”, which is not what we are going for. May I suggest what I learned in my experiences at the Music and Worship conferences at the Presbyterian Retreat Center in Montreat? There we were asked to refrain from applause and instead offer up “Amen!” It didn’t have to be loud, but now we really were saying “I have been blessed.” This solution may be a little out of your comfort zone as well, but what could be more appropriate? Your “amen” could be a blessing to someone else.

Sing joyfully, Christ Church Choir (Yes, you!)
Blessings and Amen,
Kathy Schlabach, Music Ministry Chair

Have You Ever Thought about Becoming a Stephen Minister? Don’t Miss the Boat...

Act Now If You Would Like to Be Part of the Next Stephen Minister Training Class

We will be training another class of Stephen Ministers beginning in September, 2017. Stephen Ministers work alongside our pastors to care, encourage, and provide emotional and spiritual support to people who are going through a difficult time, such as divorce, grief, hospitalization, unemployment, terminal illness, relocation, chronic illness or loneliness. If you have gifts for caring, encouragement, and listening; please prayerfully consider whether you might want to be part of this exciting ministry. If you don’t feel qualified, don’t worry, we will provide you with the training and God will provide the results. If you think you might be interested, talk with one of our Stephen Ministry Leaders: Rosie Anderson 330-477-7481, Barb Bartchy 330-494-4003 or Pam Moretta 330-832-6167.

Christ Caring for People through People: That’s the motto of Stephen Ministry. The Stephen Minister’s role is to bring God’s love into the lives of people who are going through a difficult time or experiencing a crisis. What do Stephen Ministers do? They listen, care, support, encourage, and pray with and for a person who is hurting. And in the midst of this confidential, one-to-one, caring relationship, God’s healing love comes pouring through.

What do all those GIZMOS do?!?

Have you ever wondered what makes the pipe organ sound so different ALL THE TIME? If you close your eyes, you might think an orchestra is playing. You can hear flutes, strings, trumpets, clarinets, oboes, and even notes that shake the room like an earthquake!

Why does the organ have so many different colors and sounds, anyway? Maybe because organists and listeners like hearing variety. We are going to explore these different sounds in August after the 10:30 services. You will learn about the fiery power of the reeds, the sweet innocence of the flutes, the strong forceful principals, the unearthly mutations, and the warm leather-couch strings. David and Mario will explain a different color of the organ each week.

COME ONE AND ALL after the 10:30 service on August 6, 13, 20th, and September 3 (no presentation on August 27 due to the Congregational Meeting).

Listeners are encouraged to sit in the choir pews to enjoy this show for all ages allowing each person to hear what the organ has to offer! (sorry, popcorn will not be provided)

Pipe: A tube with holes in it. Small pipes are called flutes. Large pipes are called down-spouts.
