In many ways, mission ministry at Christ Presbyterian Church goes on without too much thought. Our mission is passion-driven so things just happen: food and clothing, Mission West, Camp Wakonda, and various collections of school supplies, Christmas presents, and hats and mittens... The list goes on and on. Perhaps that is why, over the past few years, the Mission Ministry has ceased to exist as a functioning committee. The good news is that this ministry has been re-constituted and is beginning to plot out a way to be more intentional about our mission activity, commitment, and spending. Heather Dominik and Lori Wulff are co-chairing this new effort.

No small part of this planning will involve integrating the work of the Spirit & Space team’s recommendations that the congregation respond to the many physical, emotional, and spiritual needs of our “parish.” When we speak of “parish” we speak of a geographic area; in our case, we speak of those who live, work, play, and care about the downtown of Canton, Ohio. Boundaries may not be terribly fixed, but we all understand that the needs of our various downtown communities are important and that we are called to “grow where we are planted.” I remind us all every Sunday that “God has placed us in the city-center of Canton. God has done this for a specific reason! So we ask one question two different ways. What responsibilities do we bear to the well-being of our downtown neighbors? What is our role in making all the various downtown communities healthy and life-affirming?

I have recently been focused on one particular passage from Paul’s first letter to the Thessalonians. Paul is speaking to people he has come to know, having spent much time in their company: “So deeply do we care for you that we are determined to share with you not only the gospel of God but also our own selves, because you have become very dear to us.”

Since my arrival in Canton I have heard people speak of their love of the city center. They usually talk of the days when they would come downtown to go to school, to shop, go to the theater, or to gather with friends for “city life.” In this sense, downtown remains “very dear to us.” Memories are powerful. Remembering “the good old days” is easy and pleasant. But attitudes begin to change as we draw our attention of current-day downtown. Can it be salvaged? Can it be “born again?” Can it become what it once was?

The answer to those questions remain unknown. What we do know is that God has “planted” us here! When Paul speaks of his love for the Thessalonians, he speaks not of Eros love (not of feelings), but of Agape love (love that responds for the good of another). Paul speaks of a love born out of God’s caring. Paul cares for the Thessalonians because he knows God cares deeply for the Thessalonians. He is the one God has called to express God’s love to them and Paul is determined to succeed. He allows the Thessalonians to become very dear to him, because they are very dear to God.

Our love for the city-center of Canton is about to be tested. Do we really love the downtown? Are we committed to the city-center? Better put, can we see God’s love for those who live, work, play, and care about the downtown, and respond to their physical, emotional, and spiritual needs as Paul responded to the needs of the Thessalonians? Like I said, we’re about to be tested!

And the king will answer them, ‘Truly I tell you, just as you did it to one of the least of these who are members of my family, you did it to me.’
Matthew 25:40

Where’s my Directory?!?

They are coming—I promise! I am so sorry for the delay on our new church directory. I take full responsibility, but I am excited to say that we just reviewed the final proof and they should be going to print any day. I thank you for your patience and will keep you updated on when they have arrived.

Thank you,
Jennie George

“The LORD is gracious and righteous; our God is full of compassion.”
Psalm 116:5

The Deacons have ended another year of service and as always, we have had to say goodbye to several end of term friends. The following Deacons have finished their terms: Heather Dominik, Heather Leadbetter, Sue McCarty and Lindsay Walters. To all of you, thank-you for all you have done and it has been a joy serving with you. In turn, we will be welcoming a new class of Deacons. They are Dale Davis, Sandra Kohler, Karen Peterson, and Tracy Smith. To all of you, we look forward to serving with you and want to thank-you for becoming a part of this ministry.

OUR CHRIST CHURCH MUSIC MINISTRY IN TRANSITION
An Introduction by Britt Cooper, Incoming Interim Director of Music

Heather and I have been blessed immeasurably through our membership at Christ Presbyterian Church these past eight years. That’s right—we’ve already been members here for eight years! Eight years that have seen the baptism of our two amazing children, Megan and Mark; eight years that have led us to grow in our faith through friendships that feel like family; eight years of musical offerings and opportunities that have allowed us to celebrate our remarkable God through the sacred gift of human creativity. And now...

Now we are called to a position of leadership in transition as our friend, colleague and mentor, David Kienzle, concludes twenty-one years of irreplaceable service—at a church soon to celebrate its 200th anniversary. Sounds like a rather daunting task, wouldn’t you say? We would too!

We would, that is, if it weren’t for the devotion and commitment of this music ministry. The passion and commitment of the Chancel Choir inspires, as does the work ethic and sheer intellectual curiosity of its members. Leading this ministry forward will be a collective effort of many, and we are grateful to have so many gifted leaders upon which to rely.

A few people have asked, “What is going to change?” Well, there will be change for sure, as there is only one David Kienzle(!), but to characterize and specify that change is far less important to me than defining what will not change.

We will continue to lead artful, intentional, thoughtful worship through art and music because we believe that creativity is a sacred enterprise. As likenesses of God, we celebrate and illuminate the Creativity of God through our own. We will continue to sing the best of music in worship to the best of our abilities because that is what true worship requires. Simply put, only the best is good enough for God, and paradoxically, when we give our best, it always is good enough. Thanks be to God for that!

And finally, we believe the gift of music through worship to be so spiritually fulfilling that we must share it with as many people as possible. We will seek to engage the voices, ears, and hearts within and beyond the walls of our sacred space—because the gift of musical worship is one far too precious to hoard for ourselves. It is meant to be given freely to all who are prepared to accept it.

We are grateful to all who celebrate and support this ministry. Please pray for Heather and me as we begin this journey with all of you. We will be happy to return that most gracious favor.

Peace in Christ,
Britt

Session Notes
July 16, 2019

Session convened at 6:00 pm in the Parlor. We welcomed our newest member Lori Sproul to Session. We enjoyed a delicious meal provided by Kevin Anderson. During the meal, TJ Hon, Treasurer, delivered the financial report. He reported that we ended the 2018-2019 fiscal year in good shape. Session accepted the 2019-2020 budget for presentation to the congregation at the annual meeting on August 11. Session approved the overall financial report and thanked TJ for his year of service as Treasurer.

Session received a recommendation from Spirit & Space to select Regency Construction as our construction manager for the upcoming construction work. Session approved the signing of any and all contracts with Regency Construction for provision of design-build construction, and also approved a motion from the Property Ministry to hire Quality Masonry for the exterior masonry repairs.

Session received the pastors’ reports from Pastor Michael and Pastor Dave. Highlights included Pastor Michael’s planning work for the Mission Sundays in August and his series of sermons on Revelation. He reported that work on the bicentennial will kick into high gear in September, and that the team has many creative ideas for the celebration. Pastor Dave highlighted Dr. Hany Rizkalla’s visit in August. The congregation will have 3 opportunities to interact with and learn from this talented Egyptian Christian leader and church builder.

New Board of Trustees officers were appointed to a one-year term: Nancy Irving, President; Byrdie Stocker, Vice President; TJ Hon, Treasurer; Pam Moretta, Secretary. Session also re-appointed Terry Moore as our statutory agent.

Members of Session identified individuals and families needing our prayers, and Pastor Dave led us in prayer to lift up these individuals and families for God’s healing hand and gifts of grace. In lieu of a worship service, each elder prayed for various people and entities that compose our church family and work: Camp Wakonda, Spirit & Space: Vision, Gather Us In Fundraising, Mission West, Children’s and Youth Ministry, Session and our new member Lori Sproul, our upcoming bicentennial celebration, David Kienzle’s retirement, Brit and Heather Cooper in their new interim roles, the Mission Ministry, and Dr. Hany.

Respectfully submitted by Elder Nancy Irving
Greetings to all of you from the Spirit & Space Team! As of the Tydings’ July 17th publication deadline, the Gather Us In Campaign had received pledges totaling $2,089,711. Congratulations and thank you for your support!

Since last reported to you in July’s Tydings, here is a brief summary of the Team’s continued accomplishments:

- Adopted the Design Build (DB) Project Delivery Method in which our architects, a Design Build Contractor, and CPC work as partners through the design, bid and build phases of the project.
- Decided upon a tentative timeline for construction/re-construction, stipulating that any work in the Sanctuary to be a priority. Work is to commence around Easter season in April 2020 and conclude no-later-than Advent season in November 2020.
- Formed a core Design/Build Oversight Team (DBOT) comprised of Lorraine Murphy, as the Lead, Andy Roth and Jennie George, a sub-committee of the Spirit & Space Team, to oversee design review and construction. This Team will participate in pre-construction/construction meetings, provide progress reports, and raise any important issues to be addressed by the Spirit & Space Team. It will be backed up by a second tier of “experts” in such areas as church building mechanics, construction design and bids, construction change orders, project cost and disbursement tracking, and communications.
- Reviewed qualifications (RFQ’s) from five reputable Design Build Contracting firms suggested by our architects, CMB; narrowed our search to three firms and interviewed those; then recommended to Session the engagement of Regency Construction Services (Regency). On July 16th, Session approved our recommendation and soon we will begin negotiations with that firm.

Regency has offices in Columbus and Cleveland, was founded in 1994, and is a Female Business Enterprise. It has worked with CMB on a number of projects, and has experience in 20+ Design/Build projects ranging in cost from $800,000 to $8.25 million.

All pledges and gifts to the Gather Us In Campaign were requested to be made by the end of June; however, any pledges or one-time tax-deductible gifts received after that date will be gladly accepted. Again, please be assured that any amounts so pledged or gifted will be put to use in the overall Spirit & Space project plan. Pledge/gift cards are available in the church office.

“Lord, take us as we are.
Summon out what we shall be.
Set Your seal upon our hearts,
and live in us.”

Redeeming Revelation: Summer Sermon Series
(July 7-August 11)

By the time you read this, we will have just a few weeks left in our summer sermon series on the book of Revelation. I know from talking to some of you that you have never heard any sermons on this book and I even heard that some were counseled as youth at CPC to stay away from the book. I hope that this series has redeemed the book for you and that you have found the time to read portions of the book. As I have said in the sermons, some of the allusions are difficult for us to understand, so I wanted to share some helpful resources from Michael Gorman on the some of the symbolism of Revelation. Throughout Revelation we encounter different colors and numbers, which have special meaning behind them. The left chart explains some of the meaning of certain repeated colors, while the right chart explains the numbers. I hope that these charts can help to elucidate the text as you read through the book.

While the sermon series will end in the middle of August, look for more information soon regarding an “Epic Tell of Revelation.” That evening program will feature a meal and a complete recitation of the book with music and more! Remember what John wrote in the first chapter of his book, “Blessed is the one who reads aloud the words of the prophecy, and blessed are those who hear and who keep what is written in it; for the time is near.” So then, when more details are known, be sure to come to the Epic Tell to receive a special blessing.

Westminster, Intergenerational, and Coffee & Conversations Classes have taken the summer off. Please look for information soon about the start of theses classes in the fall.

Westminster Sunday School 2019-2020—Beginning September 2019
Following a year of studying the Bible, this next year in Westminster Hall Class will be devoted to asking the big question of, “now what?” After we have read through the Bible and understand the big picture, how do we put it all together? This is the work of theology, or the systematic study of the nature of God and religious beliefs. Throughout this program year, we will study all the major points of theology and will ask questions like:

How can a good God allow bad things to happen?
Why is the doctrine of the Trinity important?
What happened on the cross?
What does the Holy Spirit do?
Can non-Christians find salvation?

We will welcome back some old teachers and hopefully have some new ones, too! If you weren’t able to attend last year’s class, you will not be behind. Bring an open mind and all your questions!
Our primary guide throughout our class will be Faith Seeking Understanding: An Introduction to Christian Theology, by Dr. Daniel L. Migliore. We will not be providing any books to the class, and while reading it is not required, it could prove helpful on this year-long journey as we plumb the depths of God together. See you in September!

Family Movie Night in the Courtyard
Due to some scheduling conflicts, the movie night that was scheduled for August 2nd is being moved to Friday, September 6th. But we still need to pick a movie! Kids, here’s where you come in: I need YOU to pick the movie! Cast your vote for what movie you’d like on the ballots on the Kiosk in Cloister Hall and put in the voting box next to them. The winning movie will be announced August 25th. Your choices are:

Making Contributions: When making your Gather Us In contributions, PLEASE make sure that you indicate on the memo line of your check that the contribution is for Gather Us In. If you do not indicate this, then your contribution will be applied to your General Fund Pledge. It is VERY important that you indicate your intent in the memo line of your check or attach a note along with your check as to how you wish it applied. This will help to resolve conflicts when you receive your contribution statements and find that your gifts were not applied as you had intended. The financial office does their best, however, we are not mind readers, and will appreciate letting us know so we can apply your contributions properly.

Thank You for helping us help you,

Thank you so much for your generosity in giving me the scholarship. I am so grateful for all you are allowing me to do with it. It will help me greatly as I continue my education at Hope College, where I can grow academically and spiritually.

Abby Wilson

Thank you so much for the academic scholarship. It will greatly help me in furthering my academic career at Malone University. I am so blessed to continue to receive support from the congregation.

Sincerely, Abbi Leon

Many thanks to all who helped make this year’s season at Camp Wakonda a success! It is powerful ministry when we can work together to connect kids (and their families) to Christ. So if you volunteered at camp, helped with the auction, gave toward our fundraisers, spread word about our camp ministry, or prayed for the staff, THANK YOU!

In Christ,
Ben

Dear precious servants of God,

Once again another Vacation Bible School event has come and gone for another year at our church—the Porcupine Presbyterian Church! It was a wonderful time even though we (Simon and I) weren’t able to be there every day to be with you. Rest assured, we were certainly there in spirit. The children, young people and parents look forward to this time to spend with you every year. Thank you for sharing the love of Jesus with the children especially. We felt the disappointment as many of you did that the original plan of 30 people planning to come did not work out. However, there just seems to be more challenges these days, but the Lord’s plan always prevails. We are grateful for all the efforts you put forth – the planning for the VBS, the meals, and so much more. We give God all the praise and glory for who He is in your lives...and in ours!

It was our prayer that the group enjoyed their visit to our church, Pine Ridge reservation, the Black Hills and Rapid City! The Lord willing, we will see you again next year.

God’s blessings upon each of you,
Simon and LaVonne Looking Elk

Celebrate the 60 year history of Wakonda! We’ll share stories, sing camp favorites, and catch up with other alumni around the campfire. The event will culminate in our annual Ox Roast! This overnight is for adults and families (children must be accompanied by a parent or guardian). Event officially begins Saturday at 10:00 am, but guests are welcome to come Friday night (dinner and breakfast on your own).
