ADVENT LESSONS
& CAROLS

Sunday, December 10—10:30 am

O COME LET US
Adore
HIM

When asked of one of our homebound what they experience when we visit them in song, here is her response: The feeling starts as soon as the carolers step in my room. It takes me back to sitting in my favorite pew singing carols and listening to the choir sing. The beautiful caroling lets me know, during my favorite time of the year, my church family and God have not forgotten me. It lifts me out of a sadness that can sometimes creep in when you are homebound. The Holy Spirit is always singing with us which brings joy to my heart.

Food Ministry News:

The holidays are fast approaching and this is a time of year that can be such a challenge for many in the community. For our Ministry, it is a time to think about what we might do to ease the burdens our friends face in November and December.

To that end, we will again be hosting families for a Christmas party to be held on Wednesday, December 13. Last year, we had a breakfast, sang carols, and made ornaments to the delight of almost 100 people. It is our hope to be able to do that again this year.

We will be collecting small items that can be packaged into treat bags—for women and teens: items such as nail polish, costume jewelry, perfumes, and other personal care items. For men: razors, shaving cream, nail clippers, and personal care items are needed. For children: crayons and coloring books are universally appealing, as are prepackaged snack items.

If you prefer to let us do the shopping, please denote that your monetary gift is to be used for the FCP Christmas. Thank you again for your help in making this a wonderful holiday season for everyone.

Blessings—Lorraine Murphy

FCP Ministry + PB & J + You = EPHPHANY!

...and the equation also equals happy clients at Christ Presbyterian Church’s twice-monthly food and clothing distributions! On Sunday, December 31, we will be celebrating Epiphany. As we remember and celebrate the Gifts of the Magi, the Food, Clothing, and Prayer Ministry is again looking forward to your generous “gifts” of 18-ounce jars of Peanut Butter and Jelly. These donations will be collected December 31, but they can also be brought to the Church anytime. The PB & J will be distributed to our clients at our January distributions.

Thank you for your generous support of this ministry throughout the year with our donations of time, clothing items, food items, and money. We are definitely here to serve those in need in downtown Canton!

With much gratitude.
The Food, Clothing & Prayers Ministry Team

The Longest Night Service

Acknowledging the Pain Christmas Can Bring

Thursday, December 21, 2017 @ 4:30 p.m.

Christmas can be a painful time for some. It may be the first Christmas without a loved family member who has recently died; it may be a time that has always been difficult.

The constant refrain on the radio and television, in shopping malls and churches, about the happiness of the season, about getting together with family and friends, reminds many people of what they have lost or have never had. The anguish of broken relationships, the insecurity of unemployment, the weariness of ill health, the pain of isolation - all these can make us feel very alone in the midst of the celebrating and spending. We need the space and time to acknowledge our sadness and concern; we need to know that we are not alone.

Our spirits sink, as the days grow shorter. We feel the darkness growing deeper around us. We need encouragement to live the days ahead of us. We need hope.

For these reasons, CPC is offering a special “Longest Night” service on Thursday, December 21, at 4:30 p.m.

Come out, and join with us in sharing and hearing prayers, scripture, and music that acknowledge that God’s presence is for those who mourn, for those who struggle - and that God’s Word comes to bring hope and shine light into this very darkness.

Come One, Come ALL to the Banquet Hall!

The time of merriment and jolly is almost upon us, the annual Epiphany Madrigal Feast! Let us not forget the sensational fare of grapes & cheeses, roast beef, potatoes, vegetables, and bread pudding. Shalt thou belly be ready to burst?

The Firestone High School Madrigal Singers return! Adorned in festive attire and with the Boars Head to carry, they will be our entertainment for the night. Lettest us not forget Lord and Lady Wallace, who hail from across the meadow in Cantonshire, and shall join us with Prince Theophilus. Furthermore, Duke and Duchess Everett will be present for the festivities. Thou shalt not upset their nobility by not being present in their grace.

Tokens of Admission shalt thou purchased in the Grand Office of the Church of the Presbyterians of Christ, or on the World Wide Web of Great Knowledge. Thou shallst not stand idly but be of sound mind and spirit in this night of great joviality.

LONG LIVE THE NOBILITY OF WESTMINSTER!

Session Notes—November 14, 2017

Session opened with a tasty dinner provided by Bert Smith. Discussion about the alcohol policy took place and was tabled until January. Session worship was led by Byrdie Stocker.

Pastor Michael was unable to attend. The meeting was chaired by Pastor Dave who asked for prayers of discernment for Wakonda search committee. The Clerk’s report and Session minutes were approved. Pam Moretta, clerk, provided a calendar of required actions for the year for session. Prayers for the needs of the people of our congregation were lead by Pastor Dave.

Kathy Kettlewell presented the treasurer’s report and motions were approved regarding health care, Christmas bonuses, appointing Pam Moretta as secretary of the corporation. T.J. Hon’s audit and financial report were received with thanks to T.J. for a job well done.

Motions to purchase a new projector and 16 long tables and 18 table clothes for Westminster Hall were approved. Safety of the church during services was discussed. The meeting closed with a prayer circle.

Respectfully submitted by Carol Orin

Mission Moment

We continue our collection of Box Tops for Education. Last school year our congregation helped Allen School take its only field trip. Thank you! This year, let’s help them take two field trips. Please examine your purchases, especially from the grocery store, for the little coupons and cut them out and turn them into the collection plate. You are welcome to put them into a pew envelope marked Box Tops. It doesn’t take much of your time to bring joy to an Allen School student.

The Mitten and Hat tree will be up through Sunday, December 10. Hats and mittens of all sizes are needed. The recipients are the Native American children out west as well as the Food, Clothing and Prayer Ministry. Monetary donations are gratefully accepted. Place it in a pew envelope with your name and mark it TREE and put it into the collection plate or send it to the office marked TREE with your name. Thank you for helping keep little fingers and ears warm.

Pastor’s Notes

When did hateful and divisive word and action become part of the Christian paradigm? Some would say, “It’s been that way from the beginning. It’s in our DNA.”

Remembering the words of the Dalai Lama, “It is better to keep one’s own religious tradition,” our friend Debbie Rundlett has recently written:

“In a time when Christianity is being used to justify hate and violence, I find the Dalai Lama’s words oddly comforting. It is important not to confuse political positions and actions on highly charged issues with following a man named Jesus. The Jesus made known in scripture would never condone the violence we experience on a daily basis. Instead, he asks:

What do you benefit if you gain the whole world, but lose your own soul? (Matthew 16:26)”

We rightly rejoice because “Jesus came to save our souls.” But what does that mean?

As people of faith, what is it of which we speak when we speak of “the soul”? The soul is the spiritual entity, the underlying essence, of the physical body. It is not the mind or brain, nor can it be located like you might locate the arm, leg, or shoulder. Some call it your “spirit.” The spirit is the storehouse of the non-empirically verifiable portions of human existence; love, hate, guilt, compassion, trust, faith, hope, longing. Such things drive human existence, but cannot be empirically examined or physically located.

Somewhere, it seems, our souls find themselves in jeopardy. Our love grows perverse. Hate or guilt finds a dominating place in our being. Our trust is misplaced, along with our hope. Faith no longer centers itself on Jesus but something “other.” On and on it goes. The things of this world, the violence of day to day existence, the hatred evident all around us, the polarization that divide one from another (even dividing Christian from Christian), these are the things that twist, maim, and disfigure the soul.

We have witnessed the “twisted, maimed, and disfigured soul on the nightly news, in daily newspaper articles, and in regular radio reporting with increased frequency as of late. People identifying as Christians lead hate groups using Christian symbols and language to propagate their anger and animosity. Christian leaders (political, cultural, and church-based) hiding behind pious religiosity are routinely outed as self-serving hypocrites caught in their own web of deceit, sexual dysfunction, elitism, sexism and/or racism. Christians with tortured souls have mutilated the biblical call to justice to serve depraved and malicious purposes.

In a time when the Christian faith is being abused to incite, rationalize, and justify hate and violence, twisting, maiming and disfiguring our souls, the church and the faithful pause to celebrate the profound love of God, and God’s deepest desire to “save our souls.” If the twisted, maimed and disfigured soul is to be healed, it must start in the church, among the people of God. We must remember, reclaim, and proclaim the good news of Jesus Christ. Jesus came to save the “sin-sick soul.” In Jesus is healing for the hate-filled, violence-addicted, self-serving soul.

In this season, we acknowledge that our spiritual health is dependent upon Jesus…and our relationship with him. It is in our relationship with Jesus that our deepest needs find satisfaction, our souls find healing, and our lives find freedom to serve in the way of God.

Have a “soul happy” Christmas!

Christmas Gift Ideas

If you are looking for that last minute Christmas to encourage and delight someone in their Christian walk, please allow me to offer a few suggestions. Below is a listing of some books that I have read and some music that I have listened to in the last year. These materials have fed my soul in different ways and I recommend them to you and yours.

Half Truths by Adam Hamilton. In this book, Pastor Hamilton explores several cliches that are often touted as being biblical wisdom, but are not. These phrases include, “Everything happens for a reason,” “God helps those who help themselves,” “God won’t give you more than you can handle,” “God said it, I believe it, that settles it,” and “Love the sinner, hate the sin.” This book will be sure to challenge and encourage you and help you to avoid those half truths.

Misreading Scripture with Western Eyes by E. Randolph Richards & Brandon J. O’Brien. We cannot help that we approach the scriptures with our cultural biases and our “western eyes,” yet by understanding middle eastern culture we can remove those our cultural blinders in order to understand the message of scripture better. Topics include language, honor/shame, the concept of time, and perceived privacy. This book is easy to read and very applicable.

Reading the Bible with the Dead by John Lee Thompson. In his analysis of nine case studies, Dr. Thompson tackles some of the most difficult scriptural passages and gathers together wisdom from pastors and theologians from the centuries. Passages include the sacrifice of Jephthah’s daughter, divorce, women in ministry, and ubiquitous violence. Through his book, you will gain valuable insight into these passages and the whole of the scriptures by building on the cumulative witness of the Church.

Exclusion & Embrace by Miroslav Volf. This book completely reframed the narrative of the gospel for me. Dr. Volf theologically explores identity, otherness, and reconciliation as they intersect with other topics such as truth, justice, and peace. This book from 1996 anticipates and elucidates some of the very timely political conversations that we’re having around the country now. This book should be read slowly and savored for all the wisdom that it exudes.

The Year of Living Biblically by A.J. Jacobs. For a comical, but thought provoking book, pick this one up! It follows journalist A.J. Jacobs as he tries to follow all of the rules of the Bible for a whole year. Jacobs grew up Jewish, but jokes that he is about as Jewish as Olive Garden is Italian. As the book jacket says, “The resulting spiritual journey is at once funny and profound, reverent and irreverent, personal and universal...Thou shalt not be able to put it down.”

“One Wild Life” CD Trilogy (Soul, Spirit, and Body) by Gungor. This trilogy of CDs serves as a “remembrance of how holy and sacred this life we’ve been given is. It’s the effort to open the human heart wider.” Following a period of loss of faith, Michael Gungor has vulnerably and brilliantly put his struggles into song. Such songs include “Us For Them,” which seeks to uphold unity a worthy goal and “Let Bad Religion Die,” which addresses both modern-day and historical terrorism in the name of religion.

“Saints and Sinners” by Matt Maher. From 2015, this album found its inspiration from the writings of saints including Mother Theresa, Woody Guthrie, St. Therese of Lisieux, Martin Luther King Jr., and St Francis. The beautiful songs cover many genres and are quite moving. One favorite song of mine is Firelight, inspired by Mother Theresa, with the profound lyric, “If anyone remembers my name, if I’m ever known for anything, let it be I ran into the night, running with a firelight, firelight.”

Small Group – Big God

The A.G.A.P.E. Group started meeting around 14 years ago when our church first ventured into the small group plan. They have operated on the premise that “God is present in all we do!” That is evident as they share what they have been doing all these years that has twined them into such an example of Christian study and fellowship.

They say that A.G.A.P.E. stands for
study and prayer,
service to others,
and sensational fun!

They have been active in endless service projects such as making lunch for Habitat builds, camp clean up days, and volunteering to help at countless church events. They have studied different books of the Bible and various series. One could find this group on a boat on the Portage Lakes or at a theater production. Prayer and fellowship is woven into all their time together and God is always present!

Their latest service project was to create the Advent devotional for our church! What a gift it is to each of us as we spend our time in Advent with our Lord.

Thank you, A.G.A.P.E. members, for the example you are and for the gift you have given the family of CPC!

Have you remembered your church in your will?

Christ Church urges you to make a plan for yourself and when you do, to please remember your church in it. You can leave a set amount or a tithe (for example, 10% of your estate). If you already have a will, you can amend it with a call to your attorney. For questions about making a bequest to CPC, feel free to contact any member of the Endowment Ministry (Jack Burnquist, Roger Gray, Teresa Houston, Linda Norton, or Steve Stocker).

Thank you so much to all who came out to celebrate and support Camp Wakonda at the Benefit Auction on Saturday, November 4! We are thrilled to announce that this year’s Benefit Auction raised over $20,000 for our campership fund and programming! We are Filled with Joy! Thank you!!!!
