He will teach around the theme of Rhetoric in both the Old and New Testaments. When we think of the word rhetoric in a modern sense, we sometimes imagine politicians and the mindless drivel to which they sometimes attach themselves. But Rhetoric, in the best classical sense, is the logical and disciplined method by which arguments are made and advanced. Dr. Lloyd will take this classical definition of Rhetoric into the Bible and illustrate how some exemplary Scriptural arguments were made. To do so, he will take into account the objectives of the poets, prophets, priests, historians, and apostles who made them, as well as the cultural contexts and influences that helped shape them.

David J. Kienzle Departs for Germany & Netherlands Organ Concert Preview:

Tuesday, 12 January, 2016 @ 7:00 pm
Music of Bach, Reger, Schroeder, and Dubois

The public is invited to hear our Christ Church organist preview a concert which he will play in Wiesbaden, Germany and Alkmaar, Netherlands in mid-January. This one-hour informal event in our sanctuary is open to the public and will include a few comments and explanations about the music. Kienzle's invitation to play in Germany is for the annual "Winter Games" series which this year features the music of Max Reger; he is a beloved expressionist German composer, for whom we celebrate the centennial of his death.

Choral Evensong for the Beginning of Lent

Sunday, February 21, 2016 @ 4:00 pm

(CPC Chancel Choir)

Music of the 16th Century Tudors:
Tallis, Byrd, Morley, and Gibbons

*Anthems, canticles, hymns, prayers, chants, and psalms:
transporting us from the mundane to the spiritual.*

Tudor Church Music is sacred choral music "on a diet"; it sounds like we are trimming down for spring!

The simplicity, the trim choral lines, the lack of flamboyant expression, the austere beauty of textures, unadorned intelligibility: these are the delectable qualities of the accessible efficient nourishment the worshiper draws from the music of Thomas Tallis, William Byrd, Orlando Gibbons and Thomas Morley.

William Byrd was organist of the Chapel Royal; Orlando Gibbons was the leading English composer of his generation, as he held positions as Organist of the Royal Chapel and finally organist at Westminster Abbey. Thomas Morley wrote music for the liturgy of the Church of England, as he was employed at St. Paul's in London, becoming a Gentleman of the Chapel Royal in 1592.

Planning an Event, Class, Meeting, or Gathering at CPC?

Please let the church office know of your plans so that the church calendar can be up-dated and accurate. Bible study teachers, ministry chairs, special event leaders, please call Caryn as soon as you set up a meeting/event time and date. She will check the church calendar for you to make sure the building is open and that room is available. Also, remember that evening meetings need to be scheduled when custodial help is available. With enough advanced notice we can arrange for custodial coverage.

Grace In Our Midst

Who remembers hearing Don Hart tell a gentle story a few weeks ago, about God's work here? In case you missed it, Don has taken the time to write it out, and it's printed on this page. What a poignant account of how God's grace has changed a life here! Thank you, Don.

So what stories about God's grace in our midst do you have to tell? How has God's grace here affected you? It could be an elderly lady sharing how she was cared for after the death of her husband. It could be a Sunday-school teacher sharing a remark from a young student that showed that the student "got it." It could be a youth talking about the impact a mission trip had on his life.

Have you all seen the TV commercial with the cute kid talking about the work of the Shriners Hospitals? What about the ads for the Wounded Warrior Project? What do they have in common? They tell stories about how lives have been changed through the work of their organizations. We know that God is changing lives too, right here, through the work of our church.

The Stewardship Ministry wants to bring stories like these to you every week, to share the message about God's grace in our midst right here. About how lives are being changed. About how God's grace is here in our midst. If you have a story to tell, please talk with me.

Let me close with a particularly relevant Bible passage, Psalm 9, verse 1: I will give thanks to the Lord with my whole heart; I will tell of all your wonderful deeds.

Thank you,
Nancy Irving

GOD WAS THERE WITH US THAT DAY

As a prayer partner in our Food and Clothing Ministry, I was quite familiar with someone approaching me in the parking lot to seek money or help in some way. So it did not come as a surprise this Friday morning to be approached at the West entrance while unloading some things from the trunk of my car. He was a man of retirement age with a walker. When I asked if I could help him he wondered if I was the Pastor. After assuring him I was not, I asked if I could help him. He insisted on seeing the Pastor and asked that I take him there.

A funeral service was taking place in the Sanctuary that morning and I tried to convince this elderly man that it would not be possible to see the Pastor at that time. I again asked him if there was some way I could help him. I told him that I worked in our Food and Clothing Ministry and might be able to offer assistance in that way.

He finally seemed to feel it okay to talk with me about his inquiry. "Are you having a Thanksgiving Dinner for the needy this year?" he asked. I told him we were not but that the day before Thanksgiving was one of the bi-weekly times when our Food and Clothing Ministry would be open this year and that some of the things I was unloading were for that very purpose. That seemed important to him.

Without hesitation, he reached into his pocket and brought out a billfold. It opened so that I could observe six bills—five twenty dollar bills and one five. He very purposefully folded all five of the twenty's in one hand and left the five in the wallet. What he did next was something very special. He offered the one hundred dollars to me for the church. I immediately asked that he please keep it for his own needs and that we were getting along pretty well with the finances in our Ministry.

This kind soul insisted that we take the money for the Food Ministry and then he chose to share his reason. He told me that if it were not for Christ Church, 30 years ago, he would not be alive today. He said that this Church kept him alive for more than a year when he was facing very hard times and this he has never forgotten. By offering the money he was hoping to repay in some small way that caring he received. Of course, I accepted his kind donation on behalf of our Church.

This was so overwhelming to me that I asked him if we could pray together and to give thanks to God. He agreed and so I placed my hands over his on the walker and we prayed. You see, this was very natural because we always hold the hands of the person with whom we pray, one-on-one, on Wednesday mornings. At this very moment, God seemed closer than at any time in my life. It was as if this on chance meeting was all a special plan of God.

I wish I had spent more time talking with this giving person, had asked him his name or learned where he lived. Almost without a word, however, he turned and with his walker made it on down the sidewalk. In a very few moments he was gone.

God is with each of us every moment of our lives, but sometimes God seems so close you want to reach out and touch him. This was one of those times.

PNC UPDATES

Dear Friends in Christ,

In our last letter to you we indicated that we had narrowed our search to two fine candidates, and that we were preparing to have conversations with these candidates over the Internet using SKYPE. Those conversations, involving Pastor David de Vries, took place on November 19th and November 23rd. Much to our dismay, neither of the interviews and a subsequent review of a taped sermon delivery from one of the candidates confirmed that either candidate would be the right fit for our church and our congregation. Consequently, as an Associate Pastor PNC we are moving on to consider other equally qualified candidates from among the Personnel Information Forms (PIF's) already submitted to us. In the event we do not find from among this group a candidate that will well serve our congregation, we shall work with our Presbytery liaison to consider other options. It may be that we will need to wait for some time and then examine a fresh set of PIF's to be created by those seminarians graduating this coming spring.

God moves in mysterious ways! As a PNC we constantly pray for Him to guide us as we go about our work. This, of course, requires discernment and much patience on our part. For the very last thing we want to do is to hurry the process merely to say that we accomplished our goal and filled the Associate Pastor position in relatively short order, and in so doing present to you a candidate that does not fulfill our ministry requirements. We shall allow ourselves to live in God's time as we seek to call a new Associate Pastor!

Again, we will try to keep you up-to-date on our progress, and continue to ask for your blessing and prayers.

Yours in Christ,

Members of CPC's PNC for Associate Pastor

Pastor's NOTES

Tiqvah (pronounced tik-vaw')! It's Hebrew, and it means "cord of hope," or "cord of life." In Canton, Ohio Tiqvah—Hands of Hope—is an afterschool ministry with a mission: "We walk hand in hand with our kids from the time they enroll in our program until they're walking independently with the Lord. We want to create a new future for our community in order to break the cycle of poverty and violence." Not a bad mission statement, eh!

The Session of CPC is overjoyed to share the news that Tiqvah—Hands of Hope, a ministry to the city-center children in Canton since 2009, will soon call Christ Presbyterian Church their home. Soon they will occupy the second and third floors of the church that now stand empty. Currently approximately 55 children participate in the program, most of them elementary age. During their time together the children engage in physical education activities, character building lessons, worship, personal development, homework assistance and a hot nutritious meal.

Tiqvah is a 501c3 organization led by an elected Board and staffed by trained teachers and a host of volunteers. The ministry operates on Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Thursdays from 2:30 – 6:30 p.m. In a snapshot, the 2014/2015 school year found the participating students growing and transforming:

52% of the students improved school grades over the spring semester.

100% were offered a hot, nutritious meal each day.

100% brushed their teeth daily.

100% got physical exercise three times a week.

60% now attend church regularly.

The Session understands that Tiqvah offers CPC membership an opportunity to use their own gifts and talents in ministry to these students. Go to their website to get an immediate glimpse of how we (you!) might get involved (www.tiqvah.org).

The Session also understands that opening our building to new ministry is both exciting and sacrificial. Everyone knows the new life and energy children bring to any environment. We will be privileged to watch and walk beside these children as they grow, heart, mind, body and spirit. We will be privileged to welcome them, encourage them and share with them knowing that Christ is in the midst of it all.

The sacrifice necessary to have them here seems almost trite. Church activities tend to be in the morning and the evening. Most of our evening meetings and ministry begin after Tiqvah dismissal (at 6:30). Their need for office assistance and custodial help is minimal but church staff will need to calendar building use with intentionality. We will want to welcome Tiqvah openly and prayerfully.

The plan is to have Tiqvah move into their new home over the New Year's holiday with students starting up on Tuesday, January 12th. Be looking for an invitation to join in a welcoming celebration that first day. Imagine the impression we might make, welcoming the kids with a mass of people celebrating their arrival! More information comes your way soon!

It's a new year! What a way to start.

Pastor Dave

Hours will be as follows:

Friday, January 1—Office and Building Closed All Day

Hello friends,

Two years ago, my family and I made the move out to Ohio. As I look back on those two years, I see that we have accomplished much in this ministry. We have a more focused leadership model that is moving the ministry to a place where we will have a focused plan for the future. We have had two very good seasons of camp and retreat ministry. We have also developed relationships that will allow us to reach and impact more lives. All in all, I am very proud of the last two years of ministry, and believe the next two years will be even better.

The schedule for 2016 has been on our website for almost two months. We are excited about the offerings we have in store for next season, and we look forward to seeing you as a part of our 2016 season. Registration is set to open on January 15. The brochures should show up in your mailboxes shortly before or on that day as well. Our early bird discount will return this year with a $25 discount for all of our weeklong events and a $10 discount for our half-week events and Wakonda in the City. We will also offer a $25 discount for families that will send more than one child to camp. That discount will be given to the 2nd and subsequent children on the same account. We will also offer a multiple week discount of $25 for weeklong events.

We are also excited to offer a bring-a-friend discount of $125. There are some criteria for this discount, so please check registrations on how to receive it.

Finally, we are excited to partner with a new company, UltraCamp, for our online registrations. Although things will look different, and we may have some kinks to work out, we are hopeful that this partnership will both help us do things better and will be a better experience for our families. We look forward to your feedback as we start this relationship with UltraCamp.

We are very excited to enter into another year of ministry. As always, I welcome you to ask questions and send comments with any thoughts you may have. We are always looking to be better!

I hope you all had a wonderful holiday season and blessings for the New Year to you all.

Shalom my friends,
Chris

Session Notes—December 15, 2015

We met at 6pm in Westminster Hall with dinner provided by Scott McCahan. A list of people for prayer was developed by those present. Pastor Dave offered the opening prayer and prayers for the people. Kathy Kettlewell joined our discussion of Tiqvah and Encompass. She provided a list of questions/concerns to Session after receiving legal advice. She provided contracts for Session members to review. Discussion was tabled until later in the meeting. Session received a motion from the Finance Ministry to purchase Short Term Disability insurance for 10 employees. This motion passed. Kathy Kettlewell was thanked for all of her work on the Tiqvah and Encompass contracts. We then moved to the Parlor and met with Jerry Norton, Chair of the Music Ministry and Tracy Jeffries, Chair of Personnel. Jerry presented a recommendation from the Music Ministry to hire a Music Intern for 9-12 months to support David Kienzle. This would be funded through the Gibbs Music Fund. After discussion and all questions answered, a motion from the Music Ministry to hire a Music Intern was amended by Session and was passed. Jerry and Tracy were thanked and they departed.

We returned to the discussion of Tiqvah and Encompass and worked through the list of questions/concerns that Kathy Kettlewell had provided to Session.

The minutes of the November 17th meeting were approved as was the Clerk's Report. Pastor Dave reported that he has been working with Edith Ophardt on a retreat for church leaders (Elders, Deacons and Ministry Heads) for February 5-6, 2016. The Session workshop for December 20th was cancelled.

Nancy Irving asked Session members to begin the "Grace in our Midst" for the first 9 Sundays beginning January 3rd. It was decided that the worship assistant for that Sunday would also provide the "Grace in our Midst."

Christy Paumier led us in worship and we were closed with prayer by Pastor Dave at 9:45pm.

Respectfully submitted by Pam Moretta

2016 Camp Wakonda Brochure.
Registration opens on January 15.
