Epiphany Madrigal Feast and Annual Visit of the Three Kings

Friday the 6th day of January, in the Year of Our Lord, Twenty-Seventeen
In the Great Hall of Westminster at Christ Church

Last year, the profits from our madrigal feast made possible a gift of more than $2,000 to the Food, Clothing, and Prayer Ministry. Last year, the guests at the feast were amazed at the mature artistry of the entertaining singers from Akron. Last year, everyone was deeply moved by the cast performing the script written by Pastor de Vries. The Food?...so delectable!

Come gather with friends to celebrate in grand style the conclusion of Christmas Revelry, feasting, pageantry, and entertainment featuring the Firestone High School Madrigal Singers, under the direction of Chad Pittman. Fare: grapes & cheeses; roast beef, potatoes, vegetables, bread pudding, and beverages. Doors open at six o’clock; feasting begins at half past six. Tickets are $25 per person ($10 for Children & Students).

Proceeds from this event benefit the Food, Clothing, and Prayer Ministry of Christ Church.

Seating is limited to 120 guests. Tickets available online and in the church office.

Movie Night!
Sunday, January 15, 2017 at 5:00 pm

What could be better than pizza and a movie? How about a movie that one of our own young people is in? We will view the movie “Hear My Song” the filming of which David Rauch participated in while a student at the American Boychoir School. The film stars Dustin Hoffman, and tells the story of a troubled young man who is enrolled at a fictional boychoir school. While there is no rating of the movie available, it is suitable for all ages, but is long at 1 hour, 43 minutes. With that in mind, we will have an intermission. The movie showing is free.

The evening will start with a pizza & salad dinner, followed by a short talk from David about being in the movie. The movie will begin at approximately 6:00 pm. We will have popcorn too! And Monday is a school holiday, so no worries about bedtime. All activities are planned for Westminster Hall. Feel free to bring a lawn chair if you will be more comfortable. Please be sure to sign up so we have enough pizza and popcorn! This should be a great evening for all ages.

Jammin’ Jammies Sunday at Christ Church!

Hey kids!

Put on your comfiest jammies for church Sunday, January 22. We’ll have extra special fun in Kids’ Church that morning! It might be winter outside, but we’ll be comfy and cozy inside with cocoa, treats, games, and stories. Be sure to invite a friend and don’t forget your slippers!
For everything there is a season, and a time for every matter under heaven...”
So the “old preacher” of Ecclesiastes writes (3:1). A New Year dawns. What of the old?

Many of you know that Frederick Buechner is, by far, my favorite author. He is also a gifted theologian and preacher.
He will turn 91 in July. We are not hearing from him much anymore: his writing days are over now. For me, it is a loss.
It is a sad “Good-bye.”

In 1993 Buechner published Whistling in the Dark, A Doubter’s Dictionary.

“The subtitle is A Doubter’s Dictionary because it is to doubters that this ABC is primarily directed: doubters both as those who are more or less outside the Church and also as those who are more or less inside but still wonder every once in a while if the whole religious enterprise has anything to do with reality. I believe that it does.” (From Introduction, pg. xi.)

Open to page sixty to find Buechner’s definition of “Goodbye.”

A woman with a scarf over her head hoists her six year old up onto the first step of the school bus. “Good-bye,” she says. A father on the phone with his freshman son has just finished bawling him out for his poor grades.
There is mostly silence at the other end of the line. “Well, good-bye,” the father says.

When a girl at the airport hears the announcement that her plane is starting to board, she turns to the boy who is seeing her off. “I guess this is good-bye,” she says.

The noise of the traffic almost drowns out the sound of the words, but the shape of it lingers on the old man’s lips. He tries to look vigorous and resourceful as he holds out his hand to the other old man. “Good-bye.” This time they say it so nearly in unison that it makes them both smile.

It was a long while ago that the words
God be with you disappeared into the word
good-bye, but every now and again some trace of them still glimmers through.

A New Year dawns. What of the old?

We say “Good-bye” to the old. To what? To the joys and the laughter that lightened those days. To the heartaches and the tears born of realities we could not change. To the hopes and dreams that helped us sometimes hold on just a little bit longer. To the despairs and the nightmares that threatened to undo us (but couldn’t...not really!). We say “Good-bye” to friends and family who walked the journey with us, and to antagonists near and far that occasionally bullied their way onto our path. We say “Good-bye” to old ways of being and resolutions that petered out not long after last New Years’ celebration wound down. We say “God be with you” to 2016. God will take what is past and use it to mold and shape 2017. God will bless our days gone by. That is, anyway, our expectation.

To the New Year, to 2017, we say “Hello.” Long before it was a greeting, “Hello” was an interjection: an exclamation. It was used to express surprise or to grab attention. Kids today have re-appropriated the word and returned it to its original meaning. “Hello! You are amazing!” “Hello! Are you paying attention?” “Hello!
This is exciting!”

Perhaps that is how we ought to greet 2017: not with the familiar “Hello,” but expectantly! For those with eyes to see and ears to hear, God will be doing great things in 2017. We should shout it out. Surprises are in store for us. Let God grab your attention!

Happy New Year to you. May God “Good-bye” your 2016 and “Hello” your 2017.

Pastor Dave

Small Groups, Big God!

We are pleased to announce the formation of a new small group specifically for young families and their children. We have agreed to meet monthly in homes (on a rotational basis) and will share dessert together. There will also be childcare provided so that parents can fellowship and talk about topics related to raising children in a Christian home.

We invite you to our first session at Denise and Lucy O’Wesney’s home on January 28, 2017 at 5:00 pm. Their home is located at 9401 Paulding
St. NW Massillon, OH 44646. Please RSVP to Courtney Wallace or Pastor Michael. Also, please join our brand new Facebook group called, "CPC Young Families" to find out about future events.
Many in the congregation are already using the online membership program, Access ACS. If you have never used it, give it a try!

This allows members to view online Membership Information/Directory; Give online; sign up for events; email ministry/groups you are involved in, etc. If you have never logged in, check it out! Planning an Event, Class, Meeting, or Gathering at CPC?

Please let the church office know of your plans so that the church calendar can be up-dated and accurate. Bible study teachers, ministry chairs, special event leaders, please call Caryn as soon as you set up a meeting/event time and date. She will check the church calendar for you to make sure the building is open and that room is available. Also, remember that evening meetings need to be scheduled when custodial help is available. With enough advanced notice we can arrange for custodial coverage.
For January and February, TAG is trying something new! We will meet at restaurants while the TAG chefs take a well-deserved vacation. January’s TAG will be held at Mulligan’s Restaurant & Pub, our top vote getter from the recent poll. Mulligan’s is located at 4118 Belden Village Street NW, across from Sears. We will be seated in the Library Room. Mulligan’s has quite a diverse menu, and you will be able to order anything you’d like, and get an individual check. We will gather at 11:30 a.m. for a time of fellowship and greeting friends with lunch at noon. In the event of bad weather, TAG will be cancelled if the Canton City Schools are closed for the day.

Because we will need to give the restaurant a headcount, please sign up for January TAG no later than Sunday, January 15. You can sign up in the kiosk area or call the church office. You can also sign up online. Thank you!

Epiphany to Transfiguration: the Weeks “In Between”

Musical Preparations for Late February

Even as the Magi arrive to worship the Newborn King, the music ministry of Christ Church turns its attention to the Sunday before Lent begins. Indeed, many people who worship God here at CPC express their gratitude for the gifts of music offered this past December by so many dedicated and talented singers. Like the Holy Family, our musicians do not stay long at the manger; we immediately turn our gaze (and vocal energy) towards the amazing story of Christ’s Transfiguration on that Holy Mountain. Alas, not even that mountaintop experience can be the place of rest and contentment, because then Jesus turns towards Jerusalem: and so, the liturgical year continues to cycle on, ever deepening our spiritual lives.

The Chancel Choir now begins training for the service of Evensong celebrating the Transfiguration of the Lord on Sunday, February 26, at 5:00. Whether we have more wintry snow or find harbingers of spring-like weather, your presence in worship that evening will bring the Body of Christ together to ponder such a mystery as that blazing glorious dazzling light, brighter than our imaginations can paint or compose.

MISSION MOMENT

Thank you for your donations of Hats and Mittens. All the donations went to Pine Ridge and our own Food, Clothing, and Prayer Ministry.

Please remember to watch for and cut out Box Tops for Education. Please put your unexpired box tops in a marked envelope in the collection plate.

Upcoming Communion Class
Communion is a holy time of worship when we come together as one body to remember and celebrate Jesus’ great love for us. It is a sign of Christ’s sacrifice for us. Help a child in your life learn about the sacraments and the importance of communion in worship through Communion Classes this winter at Christ Church.

Led by Jennifer George, classes are for children in grades 1st through 5th and will begin Sunday, February 12th and end on Sunday, March 5th. Classes will be held during the 9:15 hour in the Pine Room and children are welcome to attend even if they have attended communion classes before. A parent or designated adult must attend with your child and it is very important that the child be able to attend all classes. Children who have attended the classes will participate in the Communion Liturgy during the 10:30 Worship Service on Sunday, March 5th.
Engaging Teens in Faith

Beginning January 15, we will be offering a Sunday school class that will discuss ways that we can engage teens in faith. The class will be held in a discussion format and will be based on the book “It’s Not Too Late: The Essential Part You Play In Shaping Your Teen’s Faith” by Dan Dupee. Each week will start with a particular discussion subject from the book and we’ll see where the conversation takes us. To the extent possible, each week’s topic will stand on its own so that each topic is valuable and understandable even if you missed the previous week. Books for this class will be available at the first meeting.

The initial offering of this class will run through the beginning of Lent and will be held concurrently with the confirmation/youth Sunday school class at 9:15 a.m. on Sunday mornings. If you have a son or daughter in the confirmation/youth class, there will be opportunities for you to work with your teen on activities and reflection each week. If your kids are too young for the confirmation/youth class, you are welcome to attend to get a head start on “what’s coming.” If your kids have graduated from high school and are in college or beyond, we invite you to attend so that you can share your experience with the group.

If you have questions about the class, please contact either Pastor Dave or Eric Ward (330.495.4527).

Thank you,

The Adult Discipleship Ministry

Have you remembered your church in your will?

We are an active and giving congregation. Besides giving to CPC each year, many of us also give to other charities in Stark County and beyond. When we pass on, however, many of us do not think to include the church in our wills. God has indeed been generous to us. Let us plan to return some of our wealth back to God to continue the work of this church. Please consider making a bequest to Christ Church in your will. You can amend your will with a call to your attorney. For questions about making a bequest to CPC, feel free to contact any member of CPC’s Endowment Ministry (Jack Burnquist, Roger Gray, Teresa Houston, Linda Norton, or Steve Stocker).
