A Spirit-Filled Confirmation Retreat

During the weekend of May 12, seven confirmands along with two co-teachers went to Camp Wakonda for the 2017 confirmation retreat. There are actually eight confirmands this year, but one was still recovering from a recent knee surgery and was unable to attend. The confirmands were Joey Anderson, James Campbell, Maggie DeLaP, Riley Hudson, Jordan Miller, David Rauch, Grace Snavely, and Max Ward. Pastor Michael and Jen Anderson served as the co-teachers.

Throughout the weekend, the youth finalized their statements of faith, created their own confessional banners, and they prepared for their meeting with session and for leading the liturgy on Confirmation Sunday (which was May 21). Additionally, there were vespers held each night, the youth played some board games and outside games, the group participated in the Spring Picnic, and we celebrated by going out for ice cream.

The whole weekend was a testament of the faithfulness of these teens, their families, and the Lord who oversaw and worked throughout every activity to bring them closer together and to help them grow in their faith. A huge thank you to all the parents of the confirmands for supporting them on this journey and to all those within the congregation who held these young people in their prayers.

~ Pastor Michael

Salt Shakers

Salt Shakers has at its creation a simple, SOCIAL purpose of promoting fellowship at Christ Presbyterian Church! All are invited to join in the fun. This is for members and non-members, children, and adults. Everyone who sits in the pew or walks in the door is invited to sign up. Wouldn’t it be good to feel you knew more of the people with whom you worship?

We are going to join together for a September dinner in small groups. That’s it – food! All you have to do is sign up at the Kiosk or on line by August 6th. You decide if you want a group to dine out or to eat a potluck dinner at someone’s house. You decide if you wish to be in a group that has children or not. The only agenda for these dinners is to meet new people and strengthen our communal fellowship.

Before September, Salt Shaker groups of eight will be randomly created from the information you check. Your individual Salt Shaker group will decide on the date and the details. The only agenda for these dinners is to meet new people and strengthen our communal fellowship. We will come together with open minds and hearts in Christ to share in each other’s company. We will repeat the process all over again from sign up to selection in October and November!

This is an opportunity to get to know each other. Don’t miss it.

. . . Making Connections for a Lifetime

The ministries supported by the Pentecost Offering teach young people to make faith, fellowship, and service part of their lives. Your gift to the Pentecost Offering unites young people in Christ and inspires them to share their faith, ideas, and unique gifts with the church and the world. Your generous gift supports their future. The Pentecost Offering will be received on June 4.
If you’ve been paying attention, you already know that this is the 4th installment of a 5-part Pastor’s Notes series on spiritual formation. If you’ve really been paying attention you know that I missed getting an article into the May Tydings...for which I have many, many excuses! In June we will pick up where we left off.

In his letter to the Roman’s Paul writes, “Do not conform to the pattern of this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind (Romans 12:2).” This is the work of spiritual formation; accepting as a free gift of God a new life that looks more and more like the life of Jesus. This gift is born out over time as we dedicate ourselves to the process of spiritual formation.

We have already talked about two aspects of the process. The first revolves around the sure yet growing knowledge that we best know who we are when we see ourselves through the eyes of Christ. Christ rightly defines our “Core Identity.” We belong to Christ! Christ is our beginning and our end. As we delve deeper into this truth and reality we come to know ourselves as we truly are. We are freed from false identities and the demands of false idols.

Now we are open and free to allow God to shape and reform (re-form) our character in ways that are pleasing to God, good for our health and well-being, and model the Kingdom of God begun in Jesus. We speak of our true character or Core Character. Best put, as we find ourselves assured in our identity as children of God, we are freed to open ourselves to God’s transforming Spirit and our character begins to reflect the very character of Jesus.

As we continue to discover our true identity in Christ, and as we hand ourselves over allowing God to form and shape our character, we begin to see and understand that God has put within us certain gifts and talents in order that we might come to understand our calling, our purpose, our mission, or vocation. Put in a way we Westerners might better relate, God “built us,” each as individuals and gifted us for a particular purpose. The Apostle Paul puts it this way:

Now you are the body of Christ and individually members of it. And God has appointed in the church first apostles, second prophets, third teachers; then deeds of power, then gifts of healing, forms of assistance, forms of leadership, various kinds of tongues. Are all apostles? Are all prophets? Are all teachers? Do all work miracles? Do all possess gifts of healing? Do all speak in tongues? Do all interpret?

(1 Corinthians 12:27-30)

The answer to each question is, obviously, “No.” We are each gifted in a unique way, but all for the same purpose; to serve Christ and the Kingdom of God.

Many companies will put a potential new employee through a battery of “tests” before hiring. These tests are designed to evaluate the natural gifts and talents of the particular person. Schooling is one thing, gifting is another. The Myers-Briggs Type Indicator, the Gallup Strengthsfinder, and the Change Style Indicator are just a few of such tools. Each helps the employer better understand what the Christian would understand to be the God-given gifts and talents a new employee might bring to the company.

Once we come to understand and trust that we are children of the God revealed by Christ, once we allow God to shape and form us in the likeness of Christ, then we begin to rejoice in the idea that God wants to use us, and in fact has gifted us, for specific ministry in the name of Christ. “Living for Christ” is no longer risky, but fulfilling. Living out of our God-given strengths is pleasing and satisfying. It feels “right.” It feels faithful!

Next up: leaving a legacy. We allow God to use our talents to make the Kingdom of God real!

Peace,

Pastor Dana

2nd Mile Presents “More Than A Book Club”

“Doctors took her cells without asking. Those cells never died. They launched a medical revolution and a multi-million dollar industry. More than twenty years later, her children found out. Their lives would never be the same.”

Over the summer, the 2nd Mile Social Justice Ministry invites you to participate in “More Than A Book Club.” This new group will read through the gripping true story “The Immortal Life of Henrietta Lacks.” For our first meeting, you should have already read this biography and then you can join us for a potluck and discussion. Then, two weeks later at the same time we will have another potluck, watch the recent film based on the book, and have a discussion. These conversations are sure to make you consider modern medical ethics, as well as issues of social justice and race relations.

Even if you’re not a reader, but are still interested, we invite you to come to the movie night. The book and movie are most appropriate for adults. Childcare provided upon request. Please call the office by the Friday beforehand, and we will gladly have sitters available.

Sunday, June 25 5:00 PM-8:00 PM  Potluck dinner and book discussion
Sunday, July 09 5:00 PM-8:00 PM  Potluck dinner, movie, and discussion

WAKONDA IN THE CITY is going to be OUT OF THIS WORLD!

I am thrilled that we are once again offering this wonderful day camp right here at Christ Church! This year’s space-themed camp will be Wednesday, July 5th through Friday, July 7th and we are expecting a big group. Our Tiqyah friends will also be joining us for one of our camp days this summer as part of their summer programming!

Do you or someone you know have knowledge or skills that could contribute to our space theme? We’d love your input! Contact Jennie George to chat about it.

WANT TO HELP?

Support from our congregation in the following areas is greatly appreciated and needed to make this week a success:

• Help make lunch in the kitchen
• Group helpers to assist the counselors and help the kids with activities
• Donate a snack (prepackaged snacks and juice boxes. We need about 80 per day)
• Provide a homemade dessert for lunch (peanut-free cookies, brownies, or other handheld item)
• DONATE! It costs us about $100 a day for each day’s lunch. The more we are able to offset that cost, the more we are able to put into programming.

Contact Jennie George for more information or sign up at the kiosk. Thank you for your support of WitC.

It’ll be out of this world!
Inscribed under portrait of Rev. Orville Briner:
It was through his inspiration that Camp Wakonda was born as an outreaching arm of this congregation (Christ Presbyterian Church), spreading the Kingdom of God into lives that might otherwise have been untouched.

Inscribed under portrait of Mr. Dick Barnard:
In his 41 plus years of Ministry with Christ Church and Camp Wakonda, Dick embodied the verse, "...and what does the Lord require of you but to do justice, and to love kindness, and to walk humbly with your God? Micah 6:8

Over its 58 years, many people have given their time, energy, and heart to Camp Wakonda. The names that most often come to mind are Orville Briner and Dick Barnard. The legacy of these two great men is woven into every acre of camp and countless lives have been changed from their vision and deep, abiding faith.
To honor and remember these men, two new portraits have been created to hang in the Lodge at camp so that all who enter can learn of, remember, and be inspired by Rev. Briner and Mr. Barnard.
These beautiful portraits were created by Christ Church's very own Carolyn Kortkamp. When asked about her incredible artistry, she says that the Lord has graced her with this ability and that all of her work is for His glory. In every piece she creates she includes somewhere in it the verse James 1:17, which reminds us that every gift comes from the Father.
Thank you, Carolyn, for sharing this gift God has given you so that we can beautifully honor these two men who have changed countless lives through the mission of Camp Wakonda.

About our hearing loop and new headsets!

Learn about our new hearing loop system to better your worship experience or to assist another person in how to use our hearing loop. Did you know you can have the sound from the worship service fed directly into your hearing aid? Our hearing loop system was installed to minimize the need for headsets, and maximize the worship experience for those using hearing aids.

Did you know that your hearing aids have an antenna?
Sort of. The telecoil, a small wire coiled around a rod located inside your hearing aids, works as an antenna to pick up magnetic signals and streams them as sound into your hearing aids. With this “T-setting,” your hearing aids can stream the sound of a speaker’s voice or the music of the worship service directly into your ears – without any pesky background noises. What’s also beneficial is that because the signal travels through your hearing aid, it is already adjusted and compensated for the range in which your hearing is deficient, and what your hearing aid is adjusted for.

What is a telecoil?
A telecoil is a small coil inside your hearing aids. The coil works as a small receiver which picks up signals from a loop system that acts as an electromagnetic field. Our hearing loop is installed inside the wooded sections of our sanctuary floor. Hearing aids with an activated telecoil can convert this electromagnetic field into a sound signal. Only the signal from the loop system’s microphone is amplified, and background noise is shut out.

If your hearing aid has a telecoil, you can activate it via a “t-switch” on your hearing aids.

How do I turn on the telecoil in my hearing aid?
Most hearing aid models have a switch that gives you access to receive signals either from the hearing aid microphone or a loop system. It is called a “T switch.” Activating the T-setting switches off the microphone - so only signals transmitted from the loop system are audible. If you are not sure if your hearing aid is capable of using the telecoil, please visit your audiologist to have the telecoil enabled.

I don’t have a hearing aid. Can I use a headset?
Yes. Please. We have many headsets available for those who do not have their hearing aid’s telecoil activated yet. Or for those that do not use a hearing aid.

Here are a few important things you should know:

1. The headset receiver is on a lanyard to hang around your neck. This is important because the telecoil inside the receiver is designed to work when it is oriented vertically. It may not function as well if laying it on its back beside you on the pew. If you do not want to wear it, please hold it vertically.

2. Our headset receivers have two modes. You MUST use the Tcoil mode. This means that the amber-lit letter “T” must be ON. If the “T” is not lit that means the receiver is in microphone mode. In microphone mode the receiver is not using the telecoil and picks up all the ambient noise in the sanctuary. While you may still hear sound in the earpiece, this creates the distracting high-pitched feedback we hear sometimes during the worship service.

3. If you do not use the headsets, remember the above two items so you may be equipped to assist another member of our congregation or guest with their headset or hearing aid.

Session Notes—May 16, 2017

The Session had the delight at its May meeting to meet, learn about the Faith Statements of, and welcome the eight members of the Confirmation Class as members of Christ Church: Joey Anderson, James Campbell, Maggie DeLap, Riley Hudson, Jordan Miller, David Rauch, Grace Snavely, and Max Ward.

Treasurer Kathy Kettlewell joined the meeting to prepare Session for the 2017-18 budget, which she has drafted and will be refining over the coming two months prior to Session’s approval. Motions related to instructions to CPC’s endowment fund managers and staff credit card use were approved. A motion for a trial during August of the “horseshoe configuration” of pews, as used on Maundy Thursday and Good Friday in the Sanctuary, was discussed and approved. The schedule for communion for the 2017-18 year was reviewed and approved. Session has agreed that “pew” style communion will be offered once per quarter in the 2017-18 year.

Michael Wallace and Dave de Vries reported on their activities for the month. Michael reported on the depth and breadth of the Confirmation class, and on activities of the Second Mile ministry. The Spirit and Space journey is underway with three meetings last month, including an opportunity to learn from members of our Canton community how our church can help foster a sense of community. Despite the absence of a permanent Camp Director, the Camp Council has stepped up and is well on its way to creating a fine program for this year. The Nominating Ministry has begun its efforts to recruit church officers for the coming year. It was agreed to encourage members to bring their pledges current. Session also discussed problems with the new hearing loop system and ways to assist members in the successful use of that system.

After Prayers of the People, for the needs and joys of our congregation, the meeting was adjourned with thanksgiving.

Respectfully submitted by Jerry Norton, Elder

Congratulations to Brian & Angie (Gonzalez) Leggett on the birth of their son, Manny James Leggett, born May 4, 2017.

“He Who Sings, Prays Twice”

These words attributed to St. Augustine have been spoken throughout the centuries and have been used by many church musicians. However, what do prayer and music have in common?

I am reminded of a phrase I heard years ago about playing hymns, “Play text, not notes.” An amazing idea, to use the music as a vehicle for the text! Our hymns have a rich and diverse history that stands the test of time and their meanings explain many different facets of the human soul. My time here at CPC has opened my eyes even more to that reality.

I find my job as an organist is to enliven singing and engage the congregation in song (and in doing so, enliven prayer). I find this a sacred duty, one that requires much reflection and consideration. However, it is easily forgettable why we sing hymns. Do you really digest the text of a hymn while you sing? I ask you to ponder this question this month. To find what your hymn singing experience is like, and whether it needs a spiritual renewal.

I know, personally, I always have to keep rethinking my approach to hymns, finding if my feeling of a hymn has changed or remains the same.

With grace and love,
Mario Buchanan
