The Mission Ministry of Christ Church proudly announces the visit of the

LIKAY THAI FOLK DRAMA DANCERS
Sunday, March 23
following the 10:30 a.m. worship service

They will be presenting dances and drama based upon stories from scripture. The presentation will be preceded by a covered dish luncheon where the main dish (baked chicken), table service, and drinks will be provided. Please bring a side, salad, or sweet to share.

This family friendly production is part of the outreach mission of the Christian Communications Institute of Payap University in Chiang Mai, Thailand. Its longtime director is Dr. Rob Collins who is married to our mission representative, Dr. Esther Wakeman-Collins. It was organized to tell the Gospel message to those who were unable to read or were uninterested in just the spoken word. The CCI troupe has presented the Good News Gospel on many international tours and always looks forward to their visit to Christ Church.

The drama will begin about 12:30 p.m. for those who may not be attending the late service or the luncheon. Please invite friends and neighbors who might enjoy this beautiful message.
Monday, March 24
9:00-11:00 a.m.
with Esther Wakeman as our guest speaker.
Please sign up at the kiosk or by calling the church office.

STEPHEN MINISTRY
Good News for CPC’s Continuum of Christian Care

With four newly-trained and freshly-commissioned Stephen Leaders, CPC’s Stephen Ministry is experiencing a renewed commitment to serve the congregation’s spiritual and emotional well-being, through its focused program of one-on-one lay Christian caregiving. On Sunday, April 6th, both worship services will pause to honor the dozens of men and women who are part of CPC’s rich SM legacy. Their steadfast, quiet dedication has provided more than a decade of quality, confidential SM care for congregants in need. We are blessed, as a faith community, to share in their lay ministerial gifts — peers prayerfully serving peers. We are likewise eager to welcome and equip new Stephen Ministers, to walk with compassion alongside every child of God whose burden feels too great.

The Food and Clothing Ministry could use your help. We are in need of Guideposts and Upper Room Devotionals. These are used by our Prayer Partners when they meet with clients on Distribution Day.

We are always in need of Men’s clothing—particularly larger men’s sweaters and long sleeve shirts.

Please no out of season items because our space is limited. Thank you for your support.

Blessings,
Lorraine Murphy

Thank you!

Dear Friends Helping Friends Committee, The “Memorial Service Luncheon” group, and all our Christ Presbyterian Church Angels,

Thank you for the wonderful meals, prayers and ministry of hospitality and service during the illness and death of my Dad, Bill Clarke. Your compassion and gentle spirit sustained us on this difficult journey. You all are truly God’s hands and feet on this earth. I thank God for our CPC Angels.

Blessings and Shalom,

Easter Flower Program

This year we will decorate the Chancel with a variety of spring plants for our Easter services. You may purchase a plant or plants at a cost of $12.00 per plant. You may also give a memorial or a gift of any amount. This will be divided between the fund to purchase spring plants and the Food Ministry Fund. Call the Church office by Sunday, March 23, to place your order and indicate your plant choice and quantity: tulips, Gerbera daisy, or lilies.

In his poem, To a Mouse, Robert Burns writes to a mouse family that he has disturbed by uprooting their winter home just as winter sets in. Burns sees that his unintentional action has destroyed their winter lodgings, putting the mouse family in dire straits. In panic and deep fear, one mouse runs away chattering harshly at Burns for his thoughtless act of destruction. Burns replies:

I’m truly sorry Man’s dominion
Has broken Nature’s social union,
An’ justifies that ill opinion,
Which makes thee startle,
At me, thy poor, earth-born companion,
And’ fellow-mortal!

Towards the conclusion of the poem, Burns writes some of his most famous words:

The best laid schemes of mice and men
Go often awry,
And leave us nothing but grief and pain,
For promised joy!

As Reformed folk, we understand ourselves as a fallen lot. “Man’s dominion” is often destructive. Theologically we understand that sin pervades our being. If our sinfulness is destructive of earthly relationships, so too does it challenge our relationship with God. God, in Christ, has chosen to cover our sin, though the earthly consequences of it all still does its damage. And our sinful nature still challenges our relationship with God. Our inward desire is (and always will be!) to turn away from God and toward other idols. So, the Holy Spirit intercedes on our behalf, directs our prayers and our persons back towards the way of righteousness.

Those who seek to be faithful come in many colors, from differing traditions and differing cultures. There are many different worship styles, spiritual practices and ways of being that have developed over the centuries, all in response to God’s call to holiness and faithfulness. Our tradition (Reformed, Western, Presbyterian, American) is but one of many ways to live out the orthodox faith in God in Christ. Yet in each tradition, the desire to live a life of holiness and faithfulness produces fruit of ministry and lives of hope.

My sabbatical begins officially on Monday, April 28, 2014. I have designed a season of inquiry with certain specific questions to investigate. How do people outside my own tradition seek the promised joy of Christ throughout the days given them? How do their worship traditions, spiritual practices, and ways of living bring them closer to Jesus? How do such things point them toward greater holiness and faithfulness? A small sampling of the questions include:

- How do you experience Jesus in your daily life?
- When do you experience awe and wonder?
- Do you ascend to a specific creed or statement of faith?
- What roles have difficult and challenging time played in forming your faith?
- Can you recall the most significant turning points in your spiritual journey?
- How do you pray? Why do you pray?

As I ask others these questions I will be asking them of myself. Soon the full list will appear so that you have a clear idea of what I am doing and where I am heading. Perhaps…just maybe…you might want to explore these questions for yourself. How do you move beyond your “best laid plans,” and move toward the promised joy of God in Christ?

May God bless you and keep you.
Many thanks...

Hello everybody. As I am sitting down to write this the signs of spring are finally starting to peek through. Many of you have said that I must be used to this winter weather, yes, I am, but that fact does not make it any more fun to go through. I am really looking forward to get to spring so I can see this ministry in action.

Before I go any further, I need to thank a lot of people. First, to all of you who sent the cards and letters to welcome us, thank you very much. As excited as we are to be here, this was a difficult move to make away from our families, and those letters show us we do have a family in Ohio as well. Next, Don and Nancy Montgomery. I do not think this move would have gone as smoothly without all they have done, and they have done more than I can fit in this article. Also, Pastor Dave has been an amazing colleague and friend in the short time I have been here, and I look forward to the conversations we have. The outdoor ministry committee has been wonderful as well. I look forward to working with Bonnie Wiggins as we move forward, and Kevin Anderson has become a good resource and friend in the short time I have been here. Scott Sproul and Rick Angeli have also been a huge help with both information and work on the facilities at Wakonda. Finally, Jim Camp was generous enough to put my parents and our friends who came out for Nolan’s baptism up in a motel for the weekend. It was important for my parents to be here in a relatively short time from the time we moved, and I greatly appreciate Jim’s generosity, as well as all of you at Christ Church for welcoming my parents and friends for the weekend. I also want to quickly thank all of you for welcoming my family and me so graciously. If I have forgotten anybody, I truly apologize.

I will admit, my mind is racing right now. On February 12, the outdoor ministries committee started brainstorming to develop a plan for this ministry to move forward. We had a very good session, with a lot of different ideas discussed. We are trying to develop a long-term plan, which will give us goals to achieve in five to 10 to even 25 years from now. Additionally, we are developing a plan that we want to see happen in the next one to three years. This is an exciting time for this ministry, and we want to be sure we are moving forward with a plan and goals in place. One of these goals is to try to diversify the members of the outdoor ministries committee. I want to start this by welcoming anything you all would like to see accomplished at Wakonda. Please feel free to email me your thoughts.

I want to finish by thanking everybody who showed up at Max and Erma’s on February 10th. We were able to raise over $600 in a very short time. It was a lot of fun for me to meet and greet everybody. I am really looking forward to seeing you all at the Camp Wakonda Auction on April 4th. If you wish to donate any items, please let me know. I will get you in contact with the right people. It is truly an exciting time for this ministry.

As always, my door is always open when I am at church. I am there on Tuesdays, and I hope to start coming in on Wednesdays as well in the near future. Otherwise feel free to email me (charmsen@cantoncpc.org), or leave a message for me on the camp phone (330-735-2740).

Peace my friends,

Chris
Christine Brandes, Soprano & Jonathan Dimmock, Organist

HOW BIG AN EVENT IS THIS . . . ? TO HAVE THESE TWO ARTISTS ON OUR CPC CONCERT SERIES?!! If you do not want to explore all of the online information about these two musicians, then just read on for a sampling of their amazing careers; then you may be inspired to go to the websites below and delve into the bigger story of these two major celebrities:

http://imgartists.com/artist/christine_brandes
www.jonathandimmock.com

Noted for her radiant, crystalline voice and superb musicianship, soprano Christine Brandes brings her committed artistry to repertoire ranging from the 17th century to newly composed works and enjoys an active career in North America and abroad, performing at many of the world’s most distinguished festivals and concert series in programs spanning from recitals and chamber music to oratorio and opera. She was a featured soloist with the Canton Symphony Orchestra in December 2010, and November 2012.

Highlights of Christine Brandes’ 2013-14 season include major performances with the Indianapolis Symphony Orchestra, the Santa Rosa Symphony, and performances at the 92nd Street Y in New York City with the Brentano String Quartet. During recent seasons, Ms. Brandes appeared with opera companies in Washington D.C., Portland, Seattle, Arizona, and Kansas City. Recent symphonic appearances have included concerts with the Chicago Symphony Orchestra, the Tokyo Symphony Orchestra, Phoenix Symphony, Atlanta Symphony Orchestra, Los Angeles Philharmonic, Cleveland Orchestra, the Hollywood Bowl, the Philadelphia Orchestra, National Symphony Orchestra, Toronto Symphony, the New York Philharmonic, Tafelmusik, the Minnesota Orchestra, Houston Symphony, San Francisco Symphony Orchestra, Detroit Symphony, and Milwaukee Symphony. She also has bowed at Lincoln Center’s Mostly Mozart Festival and at the Ravinia Festival. Christine Brandes has recorded for EMI, BMG/Conifer Classics, Dorian, Harmonia Mundi USA, Virgin Classics, and Koch International.

Organist, Jonathan Dimmock (www.jonathandimmock.com) is well-known internationally as a recitalist, choral conductor, accompanist, continuo player, ensemble musician and church organist. A graduate of Oberlin Conservatory and Yale University, he has held musical posts at Westminster Abbey (London), and three American cathedrals: St. John the Divine (New York), St. Mark’s (Minneapolis), and Grace (San Francisco). He is currently the organist for the San Francisco Symphony, and Organist & Choir Director at St. Ignatius Church and Congregation Sherith Israel (both in San Francisco). A Grammy Award winner for his work with the San Francisco Symphony, he has recorded more than 35 CDs and toured widely on five continents. He has been interviewed and featured on NPR and numerous radio and television stations in France, Australia, Budapest, Barbados, and South Africa. He is co-founder of the highly acclaimed American Bach Soloists, founding director of Artists’ Vocal Ensemble (AVE), and founding President of Resonance, using music in international conflict resolution. He is deeply committed to healing our broken world through the beauty of music, and talks eagerly on the subjects of spirituality, psychology, aesthetics, and the arts.
Session Meeting Notes
January 21, 2014

The meeting opened with prayer and dinner. Kathy Kettlewell presented our current financial status. Motions were approved to accept bequests from the Rahal Family Trust and the Roland Family Trust. Christy Paumier led a time of worship. The clerk’s report and past Session meeting minutes were approved. Dave de Vries gave his report including the arrival of Chris Harmsen, Director of Outdoor Ministries, and family to Camp Wakonda. Personnel Ministry finalized a job description for Eldon Trubee and additional information on Dave’s Sabbatical was discussed. “Stewardship Kaleidoscope” a workshop in St. Louis on March 17-19 for a Presbyterian conference on stewardship was presented. It was moved that Dave de Vries would attend the conference along with 3 others from the congregation. Ministry minutes were received and approved. The 2013 Annual Report to Presbytery was received and approved. February 16th was chosen for commissioning the 4 new Stephen Leaders. There will be a congregational meeting to approve the terms of call for Dave de Vries. A request was made to invite Esther Wakeman to preach on March 23. Current staffing model and various options were discussed. A task force has been formed to discuss. Meeting was adjourned with the Lord’s Prayer at 9:20pm

Respectfully submitted,
Pam Moretta

Session Meeting Notes—February 18, 2014

The meeting opened with prayer and meal. Kathy Kettlewell discussed the current status of stewardship. A motion was brought to Session from the Endowment Ministry addressing funds that needed to be properly deposited into one of CPC’s bank accounts. The motion was discussed and approved. Kathy explained the current oil and gas lease on the Camp Property. The lease expires the end of 2015. Pastor Dave thanked Kathy for her diligent work. Alice Bailey shared her faith journey. Pastor Dave noted that Sunday worship attendance was down in January, assuming it was due to the cold winter weather. A marriage is scheduled for August and two baptisms were approved. The clerk’s report was read, Session and ministry minutes accepted. Pastor Dave spoke of the most recent Personnel Ministry meeting. Personnel will form a task force, led by Tom Okonak to look at CPC job descriptions and staffing needs. The regularly scheduled meetings for March and April were changed due to a workshop and Holy Week. Pastor Dave shared an update on his Sabbatical planning. The criteria to who should hold keys to the building was discussed and referred to the Property Ministry to create a policy and submit to Session for approval. Pastor Dave will follow up with ministry heads to ensure that all minutes are submitted in a timely manner, to be included in the monthly Session packet. Pastor Dave shared the strengths and weaknesses of each CPC ministry. A motion from Timothy Pansino was discussed and approved for an Eagle Scout project at Camp Wakonda. Session members raised names of those needing to be held in prayer. Meeting adjourned with the Lord’s Prayer.

Respectfully submitted,
Christy Paumier

Purple IS the New Blue: A Friend in the Pew!

A Report from the Director of Music

In only four short months—from Reformation Sunday, through Advent, Christmas, Epiphany, and many extremely snowy wintery Sunday mornings—Christ Church community has made friends with the new blue: the purple hymnal in the pew. The old PCUSA blue book was 24 years old—ask our youth and children if that seems “old.” Thanks be to God for the positive energy and enthusiasm from worshipers who have embraced so warmly our new hymnal, Glory to God. Perhaps we will be referring to this hymnal as our NEW hymnal for several years to come (as has been the custom for generations upon generations).

But this one observation is certain: our church has been patient and open-minded about inaugurating this challenge; stepping out in faith has become the norm for Christ Church people, and already we have received many of God’s blessings from this collection of congregational song. We have been inspired in worship by the singing Breath of Holy Spirit. The new purple is becoming our friend and worship aid.

Many people report that they hear more people engaging in the act of singing; this is always “great music to the ears” of an organist and a pastor. Our congregation is singing with more confidence even when not accompanied by the organ; we have ventured stoically into call-and-response, harmonizing, and even canons (rounds) with success. This “FYI” list is a summary of our progress and observations:

– We have been singing several old favorites that were not in the blue hymnal.
– We have been singing several “somewhat new” songs which we had learned over the past few years before Glory to God was printed or even planned; while some songs may have seemed a little unfamiliar, there has been only one that was totally new.
– Many of us experience some degree of difficulty in reading the print because the pages are almost as thin as the standard paper quality of most Bibles.
– Church Librarian, Nancy Okonak, assembles the pages of the large-print hymnal into light-weight 3-ring booklets available each week in the narthex or by request from an usher. A different large-print version of the hymnal with only texts and no music will be available by next October.
– For the high-tech worshipers, there is an E-version available from Kindle.
– There are several copies of the hymnal in Westminster Hall: under the coffee counter with the Bibles (for use in devotions with small groups and meetings).
– We have shared nearly 400 of our old hymnals with six other churches, and many Christ Church people have taken 200 single copies home; thus, while most of the blue hymnals have found new homes, there are still some available to give away.
– We are starting to become accustomed to the worship aids in the front section of the book, including the traditional creeds and “A Brief Statement of Faith” (which may require your attention as it is divided into four sections with small red numbers in the margin).
– Printed below each hymn or song is a short explanation about something significant regarding the melody, or the text, or the special circumstances of that item.
New Opportunities to Grow in Faith

“We have gifts that differ according to the grace given to us: Prophecy, in proportion to faith; ministry in ministering; the teacher in teaching....”

Wednesday Evenings ~ March 26 & April 2
6:00-9:00 p.m.

Do you know what spiritual gifts you have been given? Each of us has been given specific gifts for a purpose; they are intended to be used. But first we have to listen carefully and intentionally to discover those gifts and what the Lord looks for us to do to use them.

All YOU have to do is commit to two Wednesday nights
March 26 & April 2
From 6:00 p.m.—9:00 p.m. both nights.

Together through study, discovery and prayer we will work together to learn more about these grace gifts. Nancy Montgomery will be the facilitator and she is hoping you will join her on this open-ended adventure.

Two nights...you don’t have to commit to any more than that!

Please sign up at the kiosk or call the church office.

Knit Wits

The CPC knitters now known as the Knit Wits, are back to our regular meeting day, the third Monday of the month, 10:00 a.m. in the Parlor.

This past year we have donated afghans, prayer shawls, hats and scarves locally and sweaters for the Pine Ridge Reservation.

It is a fun group and all the world problems are solved while the knitting needles keep clicking.

We could use some help. Martha Morgan who is a knitting teacher at local shops has agreed to give knitting lessons to anyone who is interested in learning. They will be on the same day as we meet, the third Monday of each month. If you would like to learn to knit, here is your chance.

If you crochet, we would be glad to have you join us too.

It is only 2 hours a month and you can put a smile on someone’s face and also on yours.

Think about joining us. Any questions, call Carol Carr 330-477-8354.
