TAG
Tuesday Afternoon Group
Tuesday, May 15

The TAG season wraps up on Tuesday, May 15 with an entertaining musical performance featuring Gibbs Music Intern Mario Buchanan on the recently repaired and restored Steinway piano in Westminster Hall. He will be accompanied by two very accomplished vocalists, Jean Burnquist and Joe Orin in a show of “Old Favorites”. Their program will range from Broadway numbers to popular songs that people can join in. There also might be some appearances by other members of the staff in singing!

The TAG chefs will again prepare one of their delicious homemade meals. Plan to gather at 11:30 am for a time of fellowship and greeting friends, followed by a meditation at 11:45 am, and lunch at noon. The program will begin at approximately 12:45 pm. The cost is only $7.00.

TAG will start up again with a new season of programs beginning Tuesday, October 16, 2018.

WILL YOU COME AND FOLLOW ME?
Sunday, May 20 @ 6:00 pm
Tom Trenney with the Chancel Choir and YOU Singing Great Hymns of Our Faith

In the last year of his life, our fellow sojourners, Jim Kettlewell, was researching and writing particularly about Methodist hymnody. He had a life-long love for the hymns of our faith and always sang with enthusiasm and sincerity. He took seriously every word of every poem-hymn sung in worship, and he would often discuss some of the theological details with his worshiping friends.

This Hymn Festival, presented in his memory, will have a theme inviting us to answer God’s call to “do justice, to love kindness, and to walk humbly with our God.” The bulk of the selections will be old favorites such as:

“Joyful, Joyful, We Adore Thee”
“Great Is Thy Faithfulness”
“Leaning on the Everlasting Arms”
“Love Divine, All Loves Excelling”
“How Firm a Foundation”

Also included will be some of the new favorites of Christ Church worshipers:

“Canticle of the Turning” (“My Soul Cries Out”)
“For Everyone Born”
“Will You Come and Follow Me?” (“The Summons”)

You will be drawn into these hymns by the manner in which Tom Trenney shares his passion as a pastoral musician, composer, conductor, organist, pianist, and teacher. This will be an evening of great music and profound spiritual renewal.

Serving Our Young People
... Making Connections for a Lifetime

The ministries supported by the Pentecost Offering teach young people to make faith, fellowship, and service part of their lives.

Your gift to the Pentecost Offering unites young people in Christ and inspires them to share their faith, ideas, and unique gifts with the church and the world. Your generous gift supports their future. The Pentecost Offering will be received on May 20.
I was out visiting the other day when the conversation turned toward politics. Something “Joe” said to me struck me hard. He said, “I’m as conservative as a thinking person can be.” That simple phrase has been on my mind ever since. What, exactly, does it mean? It seems to me it could mean many things. I could flip sides and come out with just as many questions; “I’m as liberal as a thinking person can be.”

I suspect most social scientists would conclude that the statement, however phrased, lacks real relevance today. Why? Because people no longer think deeply as to what they believe and why. Even the folks at MSNBC and Fox function on the plane of opinion, not fact. Most of the cable news personalities readily admit as much, even if we choose not to accept it. They are opinion pushers not news reporters. They know themselves to be challenging the boundary that has existed between news and entertainment. Both Sean Hannity (Fox) and Rachel Maddow (MSNBC) have publically acknowledged this fact. They are advocates and promoters, not journalists. They admit it. They are out to change our minds. Their job is to shape and form us along the lines of their thinking and acting.

The real question on my mind as I write this note might best be put this way: “Who forms me?” Put another way, “Whose opinion matters to me to the point that I will choose to follow him/her?” More specifically who forms, and informs, my political thinking?

So I’ll ask you to consider the question for yourself: Who forms your political thought and belief? And don’t even try that “I form my own opinion!” thing. At this point, we all know better than that. We are each formed, most significantly, by the people who surround us and teach us.

Does Jesus have a seat at your table? For many years people found comfort in the idea that “we shouldn’t involve Jesus in politics. It’s unseemly!” Well, we’ve moved well past that thinking. We acknowledge that we must never allow political rhetoric to wound and/or fragment the body of Christ. Christ would never condone a “bully pulpit,” or a politics that belittles others. Yet to suggest that Jesus has nothing to say about the issues of our day is just silly. So the honest, intentional disciple of Jesus invites Jesus to “their table” to talk politics. The faithful disciple asks Jesus to form their life and living, including their politics. The faithful disciple willingly engages the entirety of Holy Scripture, prays and meditates on Scripture, and joins other Christians in meaningful discussion and reflection. The faithful disciple doesn’t separate faith from politics; a faithful disciple allows Jesus to form their politics.

As a culture, we seem stuck defining ourselves through the liberal/conservative dichotomy. As Christians, perhaps the best we can do is say “I’m as conservative and liberal as a thinking, praying, disciple of Jesus can be.”

Who’s got my ear? Jesus, first, foremost, and forever!

Peace and grace to you,

Pastor Dana

2nd Mile Presented: Father John Dear on They Will Inherit the Earth

On Monday, April 9, Christ Church welcomed activist, pacifist, author, and Nobel Prize nominee Father John Dear to speak about his newest book They Will Inherit the Earth. We were thrilled that over 100 people from various faith communities came together to learn and to be challenged by Father John.

At the beginning of the lecture, he shared his story of receiving the call to nonviolence. In 1982, while on a spiritual pilgrimage in Israel, he went to the Chapel of the Beatitudes and then continued to the Sea of Galilee where he contemplated Jesus’ profound words in the Sermon on the Mount. While there along the seashore, he saw several black Israeli jets fly overhead on their way to war in Lebanon. In one book he writes of this experience saying, “There and then, I decided to spend my life trying to live according to the Beatitudes and the Sermon on the Mount, and teach them” (Dear, The Beatitudes of Peace, 2-3). Throughout the remainder of the lecture, Father John spoke to how climate change affects the whole of creation and he urged Christians everywhere to follow the nonviolent Jesus by advocating for policy reform through creative nonviolence. In his book, he puts it this way: “Catastrophic climate change is the natural consequence of global systemic violence. That means, it is intimately connected with racism, sexism, classism, militarism, war, nuclear weapons, and every form of violence. If we want to deepen our nonviolence and our conscious oneness with the earth, we have to connect the various facets of systemic violence with environmental destruction so we know what we are up against, what we are resisting, and how broad our creative nonviolence needs to go” (Dear, They Will Inherit the Earth, 81). Following in Father John’s reading of Jesus’ Sermon on the Mount, how do we see our own politics and ideologies challenged and how will we respond?

If you want to learn more about the subject of peace and nonviolence, below is an introductory reading list:

- The Sermon on the Mount, Matthew 5—7
- The Nonviolent Life, John Dear (2013) CPC has copies of this book available for purchase while supplies last!!
- Gandhi and Beyond: Nonviolence for a New Political Age, David Cortright (2009)
- Creating True Peace: Ending Violence in Yourself, Your Family, Your Community and the World, Thich Nhat Hahn (2001)
- The Power of Nonviolence: Writings by Advocates of Peace, edited by Howard Zinn (1963)

We would also recommend your prayerful contemplation on Rev. Martin Luther King, Jr.’s Six Principles of Nonviolence, which appear below and are adapted from his book Stride Toward Freedom.

PRINCIPLE ONE: Nonviolence is a way of life for courageous people. It is active nonviolent resistance to evil. It is aggressive spiritually, mentally and emotionally.

PRINCIPLE TWO: Nonviolence seeks to win friendship and understanding. The end result of nonviolence is redemption and reconciliation. The purpose of nonviolence is the creation of the Beloved Community.

PRINCIPLE THREE: Nonviolence seeks to defeat injustice, not people. Nonviolence recognizes that evildoers are also victims and are not evil people. The nonviolent resister seeks to defeat evil, not people.

PRINCIPLE FOUR: Nonviolence holds that suffering can educate and transform. Nonviolence accepts suffering without retaliation. Unearned suffering is redemptive and has tremendous educational and transforming possibilities.

PRINCIPLE FIVE: Nonviolence chooses love instead of hate. Nonviolence resists violence of the spirit as well as the body. Nonviolent love is spontaneous, unmotivated, unselfish and creative.

PRINCIPLE SIX: Nonviolence believes that the universe is on the side of justice. The nonviolent resister has deep faith that justice will eventually win. Nonviolence believes that God is a God of justice.

Our last meeting was held on April 4th in the Pine Room. Heather Dominik gave a report on how many parishioners we have been able to help with meals and transportation through our Friends Helping Friends program. Pastor Michael urged us to attend the upcoming event on April 9th with Father John Dear sharing his latest book, "They Will Inherit the Earth" with us. Alice Rauch inquired about the church possibly looking in to acquiring a new church van that would be able to transport our handicapped parishioners to and from church for worship on Sunday morning and was told about all the ramifications that would incur. Keep those large coffee cans a’comin! We need them to take the chancel flowers to our shut-ins! Thank you.

SUPER Salt Shakers Event
Sunday, June 3—5:30-7:00 pm
in Westminster Hall

Please bring a side dish or dessert of your choice!

Let’s all gather together at the church for a pot-luck dinner in a giant, once a year Salt Shakers night! If you have never been to a Salt Shakers dinner, this is a great opportunity to jump in. There are people we see every Sunday that we do not even know their name. This is a chance for some conversation and to get to know someone else. Come be a part of the evening! Sign up at the Kiosk or online. Sign up by June 1st.

We will have chicken for all. Please bring a side dish or dessert of your choice!

See you there!

Small Group BIG God

If you have been searching for a small group, now is the time to jump in and be a part of a new group. The church is gathering people who are interested to join together with others in fellowship, study, prayer and growth. A day-time group has just recently started. We are now looking for people who would be interested in a Sunday evening group.

There are now over nine small groups in existence. The people who are part of them talk about the support and guidance they get from the relationships they have established in the groups.

A new group will begin with the study of The Good and Beautiful God by James Bryan Smith. If you are interested in joining, please sign the list at the Kiosk or sign up online.

Now is the time to give this a try!

Session Notes - April 17, 2018

Session began the evening with a dinner of Old Carolina barbecue provided by Jerry Norton. Elder Norton thoughtfully accomplished two important goals with this meal; fed the elders and supported Mission West. (Jerry reported that the Mission West Fundraiser was being very well attended!)

Pastor Ben George focused on our work with his message during worship; promising us that God will surprise us and “show us some stuff” just as Ben has been surprised in his ministry.

The prayerful business of session began with approval of minutes and the clerk’s report. In our time of prayer God was petitioned to support many people in our congregation and thanked for his mercies.

Staff reports began with Pastor George providing a very optimistic report about Camp Wakonda. Camper enrollment is far ahead of last year. But hiring of staff is behind schedule. More counselors are needed and a search is being conducted for a head cook.

Pastor Wallace discussed the exciting activities of “indoor ministry.” Events such as the young family Seder meal, 2 mile walk and Father John Dear presentation were well received. He is looking forward to the Common Table event, the confirmation classes, and the just begun new member classes.

Pastor de Vries reported positive feedback from Holy Week and Easter worship services. He shared with us the exciting news that a young person of our congregation, Kathryn Ophardt, is beginning the inquiry process into becoming a Presbyterian pastor. Pastor de Vries is looking forward to the Earth Day worship and activities after services. Actions taken during this report included approving funds for a new dishwasher at Camp Wakonda, approving the process for awarding college scholarships and determining the source for funds previously allocated to Mission West.

Other business conducted included discussing the possible future employment of a Commissioned Ruling Elder, and participating in and providing mental health first aid training. Jerry Norton updated us on Spirit and Space. Encouraging the rotation of ministry leaders was discussed. Action was taken to allow our staff to have the same rights that the rest of the congregation has to responsibly consume alcohol and to give the director of Camp Wakonda the discretion to allow, on a limited basis, responsible use of alcohol at events held at Camp Wakonda.

The meeting was closed with praying together the Lord’s Prayer.

Spirit & Space is hard at work in developing our goals to accomplish the mission statement which was presented to Session. We strive to see what the Holy “Spirit” is leading Christ Church to “be” and how our “space” can help us get there. This is our spiritual journey.

Thanks to the generous donation of marketing skills, Glen and Vicki Becker have designed our Spirit & Space logo which will be included in all of our correspondence. Glen and Vicki were long-time members of our church before relocating to Beaufort, South Carolina, a few years ago but they still have a deep connection to this church. We are very appreciative of their contribution to this design.

Peace be with you,
Jeannine Moss

Have you remembered your church in your will?

We are an active and giving congregation. Besides giving to CPC each year, many of us also give to other charities in Stark County and beyond. When we pass on, however, many of us do not think to include the church in our wills. God has indeed been generous to us. Let us plan to return some of our wealth back to God to continue the work of this church. Please consider making a bequest to Christ Church in your will. You can amend your will with a call to your attorney. For questions about making a bequest to CPC, feel free to contact any member of the Endowment Ministry (Jack Burnquist, Roger Gray, Teresa Houston, Linda Norton, or Steve Stocker).
