STOP RIGHT THERE!
DO YOU EVEN KNOW WHAT YOU ARE SINGING?!
from David J. Kienzle, Dir. of Music

The great Wesley brothers, John and Charles (preacher and hymn writer), were known for challenging their congregations to pay attention to the words they were singing. Do we really understand what we are singing in church? The Bible and our hymnals are full of words about what a favorite preacher of mine, John Stone Jenkins, likes to call “the scandalous love of Christ and unsolicited grace of God.” Many of the words we read and sing are outrageously provocative, and we want to be mindful of the meanings conveyed in our congregational music. To be sure: hymns shape our theology and our daily Christian lives.

But sometimes the words present challenges. Take, for instance, one of the all-time favorites in many churches: “Take my life, and let it be consecrated, Lord, to thee . . . .” In the fourth stanza, we are so accustomed to singing: “Take my silver and my gold; not a mite would I withhold . . . .” REALLY?! We sing that, but do we live that out? I don’t. Instead, those words offer me an impressive goal, a standard of living.

Perhaps you would like to take the brief quiz on page 3 of this newsletter: can you guess from what famous hymn those two inner verses are taken? Do you have a tendency to allow the rote-singing of songs to soften their meanings?

On Sunday, October 9 at 5:00 pm, our church gathers in the sanctuary for another Hymn Festival. The theme is “For the Healing of the Nations,” alluding to Revelations 22:2, and borrowed from the opening words of a hymn by a British pastor who was a refugee from his Dutch homeland during the Nazi invasions. A group of Christ Church leaders have gathered several times to plan this event, evaluating over 50 hymns in our relatively new book, Glory to God, and studying appropriate scriptural passages for the basis of each of these poems in song. We discovered how challenging our work becomes when we really ponder the sincerity of what we could be singing in community. Yes, the texts are based on sound biblical mandates, but in the context of our world tensions and national politics, can we safely sing those words without offending or upsetting our fellow Christians?

The Hymn Festival will flow much like the plan of the 9/11 candlelight prayers for peace service we held in the courtyard. We will begin with hymns about the world and all the nations, then about our own country and local communities, about the healing work of our congregations, then hymns about our individual responsibilities for peace-making (“let it begin with me”). We conclude with scripture and songs about God’s promises for a New Heaven and a New Earth, where peace shall reign throughout the world.

The planning committee hopes that all who participate will be inspired to a new love and hope for the healing of the nations. The corporate energy engendered in the musical splendor of these hymns, with the Chancel Choir sitting in the middle of the congregation, with the organ, piano, and guitar embellished by a brass quintet, percussion, flute, clarinet, oboe, and English Horn—all will help renew our trust in the God of Peace who calls us into the work of the Church. Remembering the words of Augustine, that one “who sings, prays twice,” we can rest in the assurance that we ourselves will be changed by singing our prayers for peace.

Misa Cubana by Jose Maria Vitier—Sunday, November 6—5:00 p.m.

Greetings! When I first came to Christ Presbyterian Church, I had heard that the Chancel Choir was performing a major choral work, the Misa Cubana. My first reaction was, “What is this? Is it a mass about Cuba?” While David and I were preparing the score for the singers, I realized that each movement can be broken down to one idea: dance. While the score is rather daunting with its amount of different rhythmic ideas and large orchestration, each movement is inspired by different dance rhythms that break the stereotype of a traditional Mass setting (the parts of the communion service that are sung) and transform it into a new, fresh perspective.

Why is the Misa Cubana a different experience for the listener? Personally, I have not heard of any other large liturgical choral piece that combines authentic Cuban rhythms with Latin texts. It’s a new experience that I am looking forward to being a part of. My ideas of how a mass is to be sung have been broadened because of what Jose Maria Vitier had in mind for his Misa Cubana. So, grab a friend, pick out some dancing shoes, and tap your heels to the music of Jose Maria Vitier, who will teleport us to Cuba and together we will experience a Cuban Mass.

All Saints Day 2016
Doing a New Thing

Therefore, since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us also lay aside every weight and the sin that clings so closely, and let us run with perseverance the race that is set before us, looking to Jesus the pioneer and perfector of our faith...” (Hebrews 12:1-2)

The first day of November is, for Christians, known as All Saints’ Day. It is this day that the church has set aside to remember those who have passed into eternal life. At Christ Church, we usually celebrate All Saints’ Day the following Sunday by taking time during this service to read the names of church members who have died over the past twelve months. This year the Session has elected to do something different.

This year we will celebrate All Saints’ Day on the traditional day, Tuesday, November 1, 2016 at 7:00 p.m. We will acknowledge how our “saints” have blessed our church, our community, and our individual lives. We will offer God thanks and praise for lives lived well, and we will lift up to God our grief and sadness at company lost and dreams unfulfilled. In all, we will bring to God our entire being as we remember, celebrate and mourn the saints of Christ Presbyterian Church.

Sunday Morning Adult Classes
9:15-10:15 a.m.

The Library Class is studying “Women of the Bible,” by Jean E. Syswerda.

Contemporary Issues and Biblical Thought

Adult Class meets in the Quilting Room Sunday mornings 9:15-10:15 a.m. and is studying a book by James W. Moore entitled, “How God Takes Our Little and Makes It Much."

The Parlor Class is studying from the Present Word.

The Intergenerational Sunday School (ages 13-130): A discussion oriented class that focuses on the weekly readings in scripture (the Daily Grace, printed in each week’s bulletin). The class meets in the upper meeting room, above the Parlor class, and is facilitated by Michael Ophardt.

The Westminster Class: Our friends, John David Gelb and Zev Rosenberg are teaching through the month of October on “Peter’s Journey.” The class traces stages and events in the life of Peter the Apostle of Jesus for their meaning then and in this present time. Should you miss any classes, remember they are available by podcast at www.cpc.podbean.com.

Deacons’ Bench

Football season has arrived and that means Fall is upon us. As leaves turn beautiful colors we know that means our traditional holiday seasons are approaching quickly. Our congregation is a generous community with its finances, time and talents. We invite you to keep an eye on the Order of Worship, the Tydings and sign-up sheets at the kiosk for opportunities to share the message of Christ this season. Some seasonal opportunities that are sponsored by the Board of Deacons include Bell Ringing and Caroling as well as ongoing regular events such as Food, Clothing, and Prayer and Saturday Breakfasts. Your warm heart, outreached hand and welcoming smile are always invited to join us on the Board of Deacons.

A HYMN PUZZLE QUIZ:
These words are from what famous hymn?

It is so easy to become desensitized by the quantity of words in our worship. But if we were to stop and ponder what it is we are saying and singing, how much could we learn about our faith? Just for fun, can you figure out the opening lines and verses of this well-known hymn?

Yet with the woes of sin and strife the world has suffered long; beneath the heavenly hymn have rolled two thousand years of wrong; and we at war on earth hear not the tidings that they bring; O, hush the noise and cease the strife to hear the angels sing!

For lo, the days are hastening on, by prophets seen of old, when with the ever-circling years shall come the time foretold, when peace shall over all the earth its ancient splendors fling, and the whole world give back the song which now the angels sing.

—Edmund Hamilton Sears, 1849, alt.

HINT: consider the words, “tidings” and “angels”... and this is about a glorious song of old!
Session Notes

August 23, 2016

We met at 6:00 p.m. with dinner provided by Edith Ophardt. We moved into the Chapel where Chris Burt led us in worship for the evening. We welcomed the new Session members: Carol Orin, Jerry Norton, and Shawn Campbell. A service of installation was conducted with an ordination service to be during a Sunday Worship in the near future.

The Clerk’s Report was approved. Motions from two task forces were approved and passed including the Benefits Task Force recommendations and the Camp Wakonda Director’s Home Task Force recommendations. Wanda Young requested to use the church on November 19 for an Aktion Club Pancake Breakfast. This was approved and passed. Don Montgomery joined us and explained the Hearing Loop system for the Sanctuary. He presented a motion from the Worship Ministry. This was accepted and passed. There will be informational meetings on how to use this in the near future. Installation of the Hearing Loop system will be October 24-25. A motion from the Mission West Ministry to provide funds for long term planning necessary for the continuing activity of the ministry was presented by Pastor Dave. This was discussed, accepted and approved.

We reviewed the names to be removed from the roles of the church. The list was accepted and a motion was made and passed. The members being removed will receive a letter from Pastor Dave. This letter was reviewed and approved by those present.

Pastor Dave’s report included a community candle light evening service on 9/11 at 7:00 p.m. in the Courtyard. He reported that the Chapel will be open all day for prayer on 11/8 (Election Day) and a worship service will be held at 7:00 p.m. He discussed the new model for the Youth Group to begin in September with Pastors Dave and Michael leading the Confirmation Classes and Chris Harmesen, Kevin Anderson, and Bonnie Wiggins leading the Youth Group. We will host a Missionary visitation from the Presbytery in October. The planned Leadership Retreat for October 7 and 8 was discussed. To be invited to this retreat will be Session members, Deacons, Stephen Leaders, Ministry Chairs or anyone involved in a ministry who would want to attend. The book, “Becoming a Blessed Church; Forming a Church of Spiritual Purpose, Presence and Power” by N. Graham Standish will be the topic of the retreat. A cost of $30 will include the book, meals, and lodging.

Chris Burt and Kevin Anderson agreed to the appointment from Session to be the 2017 Nominating Ministry co-chairs.

A list of people for prayer was developed by those present. Pastor Dave offered the prayers for the people. The meeting adjourned at 9:25 p.m.

September 20, 2016

The Session met at 6:00 p.m. in the Parlor for a soup and salad supper prepared by Elder Pam Moretta. At 6:30 p.m. we moved into the Chapel for worship with the theme of forgiveness led by Elder Edith Ophardt. At 7:00 p.m. our prayerful work commenced back in the Parlor.

We identified individuals and families in need of our prayers. We approved the Property Ministry’s request for $26,000 to make emergency repairs to the handicap ramp in the courtyard. Ordination of new Elders and Deacons has been scheduled for Sunday, October 23. We received pastor’s reports from Pastor Michael and Pastor Dave. The feedback from the Candlelight Prayers for Peace service on Sunday, 9/11 has been universally positive, and we will consider ways to do this again. We prayerfully considered how to fill vacant leadership posts in the Mission, Youth, and Worship Ministries. We scheduled an evening of fellowship and entertainment for Sunday, January 15, 2017, when we will view the movie (now called “Hear My Song”) that David Rauch was in while he was a student at the American Boychoir School.

The Session meeting concluded at 9:10 p.m. with Elders and Pastors joining hands for the Lord’s Prayer.

Grace in Our Midst

The year is 1863, and my mother’s grandpa, James Madison Fife, is preparing to marry Elizabeth McCully on the 16th of March in Allegheny, Pennsylvania. He also has accepted a new job in Canton, Ohio, with the Cornelius Aultman Farm Implement Co., on South Market Avenue. After their marriage, they decide that it would be better for Grandma Fife to reside with her parents in Allegheny until Grandpa Fife got established.

Upon arriving in Canton, Mr. Fife finds a comfortable little house on what is today Sixth Street SW, here in town, and begins his new job! He asks around to find a new church, and since he is of Scottish decent, it is recommended that he try the First Presbyterian Church on the corner of Plum Street and West Tuscarawas. In the meantime, Mrs. Fife finds that she is pregnant, and it is decided that she will remain in Allegheny with her parents until the baby is born in January of 1864. After the birth of her first child to Grandpa Fife, she arrives in Canton with her new son, Harry Ellsworth Fife, to begin their new life. During the first sixteen years of marriage, the Fifes have seven children, and all are brought up in the First Presbyterian Church, as are the grandchildren of their children and so on...

Fast forward to 1951, and the last of the seven Fife children has just passed away, Uncle Harry to his nieces and nephews, and “Papa” to his two granddaughters. Our family went to church regularly, however upon Papa’s death, we did not go to church for a year or so. One autumn day in 1952, Miss Florence Lind, who was the head of the Sunday School Department here at the church, called my mother to inquire if her second daughter who was now eight years old was going to be beginning Sunday School soon. My mother’s reply was that she would talk to me, and find out if I would like to come to Sunday School. A week or so later, my mother walked me up to church from our home at Sixth and McKinley Avenue SW, and stayed with me during the morning Sunday School lesson. Upon arriving home, she told me that if I was interested in Sunday School, I knew how to get there and how to get home, and I was on my own.

Thus, for the next ten years, I was present in Sunday School, unless the family was out of town, or I was sick. I matriculated from Grades 3-12 in Sunday School; took catechism classes with Dr. George Parkinson and became a member of our church on Palm Sunday, the 25th of March 1956; attended the Junior and Senior High Fellowship Groups on Sunday evenings with Mrs. Hazel Parkinson’s choirs, and Dick Barnard’s directives in fellowship after our Sunday evening dinner. In addition, I took four trips with Dick Barnard, and parents from our church who chaperoned us; in addition, to making friends whom I have kept for life! Upon graduating from college, I returned to our church, and I am still doing what I can today in the life of the church.

My moment of Grace is in appreciation for all the adults, as well as the wonderful church staff, all of whom helped me in the growing up years, along with my own family, to make me who I am today!!!

Dear Christ Presbyterian Church,

Please forgive the late nature of this thank you. This past month has been very hectic as I have been making the move to Pittsburgh and beginning my master’s program. I just want to express my deepest gratitude for awarding me with a scholarship. It was extremely generous and is something that will surely prove invaluable. School, and the costs associated with it, is simply impossible to pay for on my own. This scholarship means less debt for me in the future. More importantly, it means a gift from the best church in the whole world, as far as I’m concerned.

Sincerely, Ian Murphy

Dear Christ Church Scholarship Committee,

Thank you so much for the check you gave me to support my college education. I will use it to purchase books for my classes this fall. I am excited to attend Grove City College and develop my faith and as a person. Thank you so much!

What an amazing faith community Christ Church is! Faith in action says it all. The Kettlewells are so very grateful to all of you for the cards and expression of sorrow over the death of Jim. Many of you also worked hard to allow our family to receive family and friends and share Jim stories after a wonderful service. Many guests praised the food and the overall feeling of love and support that you made possible. I know that this love and support will continue as we figure out what the next phase of our family life will be like.

Sincerely, Kathy Kettlewell, Hilary, Emily and Natalie
