

Dr. George H. Harris

1966 – 1970

Dr. George H. Harris was a forceful preacher and a great influence among the young people. During his pastorate many young men surrendered for the ministry and other areas of special service.

While serving as pastor, he was honored by his college, Ouachita Baptist University, with a Doctor of Divinity degree.

He assisted in having a church directory issued in 1968 and helped establish a day nursery for the care of children of working mothers.

Dr. Harris and his wife, Lynda, have 4 children: Suzanne, Lynne, Don & Jeff.

The Harris' left in 1970 to pastor at the Royal Palms Baptist Church in Phoenix, AZ, and later moved to Castle Hills, in San Antonio, TX, where he served as senior pastor.
