

Rev. A. W. Reaves

1922 – 1923

Rev. A. W. Reaves was known as a dynamic preacher. He donned overalls and with the occasional help of some of the members, the interior work of the brick edifice which had been started in 1917 was completed.

The Rev. Reaves had a good voice and often sang his favorite song, “When They Ring Those Golden Bells”, pleasing the congregation.
