

Rev. Curtis J. Crofton

1975 – 1979

Rev. Curtis J. Crofton came from Bethel Baptist Church, Houston, TX, on August 8, 1975, with his wife, Paula, and children Andrea, Jeff & Krisha.

Rev. Crofton was a popular man with a pastor's heart. Mt. Pleasant was a growing community during his pastorate with the growth of a new industry – Texas Utilities. Many new families came and the church experienced good growth.

Rev. Crofton left in 1979 to be the assistant pastor and Green Acres Baptist Church in Tyler, TX. He was also on the Annuity Board of the Southern Baptist Convention.
