

Rev. J. D. Fuller

1924 – 1927

Rev. J. D. Fuller was born in Alabama on October 29, 1884, and was ordained a minister in 1907. He served as pastor to several East Texas churches before going to the Houston area. He continued to live in Houston after his retirement and was a resident there at the time of his death, September 11, 1969. He was a member of the Executive Board of the Baptist General Convention, supervising missionary work and took an active part in civic affairs.