

Rev. James O Morman

1954 – 1958

Rev. James O. Morman came to be the pastor in the fall of 1954. Sunday School attendance and Wednesday night services continued to grow. Other organizations also retained their number and also grew. One Sunday School attendance record shows 1,054. Several good revivals aided church growth.

During his pastorate the church purchased the half block which known as the Caldwell and Clayton properties. This gave the church the entire block. The Clayton house was used for a youth building and the Caldwell house was move and the area was used for parking. The Mormans moved tom Port Neches, Texas, in 1958.
