Therefore we do not lose heart. Though outwardly we are wasting away, yet inwardly we are being renewed day by day. 2 Corinthians 4:16

When the Apostle Paul wrote these words, many in the early church in the city of Corinth were losing heart. Surrounding them in this important commercial trading city were the sights and sounds of a city lost to profiteers, over twelve pagan temples, persecution (i.e., imprisonment, torture, death) by the government and a city that was the center of immorality unmatched within its area of the known world at that time. Decadent lifestyles were so rampant that the Greek verb “to Corinthianize” came to mean “to practice sexual immorality.” Within this setting, it’s no wonder the early church in Corinth was plagued with so many problems! Within the Corinthian church had seeped the problems of what they saw within their city: immorality, litigation against each other, abuse of the Lord’s Supper, divisions and false teachings. Are you starting to see why Paul was exhorting them not to lose heart?

Apply the above paragraph to what you see today taking place in the world today, in our nation and within the Church. Paul wrote those words to the church in Corinth around the year A.D. 55. It would not be a far stretch of the imagination to state that in what we see around us today, in September of 2019, so closely mirrors the early church in Corinth. It seems to many of us that things are changing and declining so rapidly, from throughout the world to our nation. It often leaves us shaking our heads and feeling helpless, frustrated and compromised as Christians. Then, if we add to that our own personal and family needs, it’s so easy to throw our hands up in the air and cry out, “What next, Lord?” Yet, I pray that we heed the Apostle Paul’s words that tell us not to lose heart!

As Paul writes that though we are outwardly wasting away, inwardly we are being renewed day by day! What we see around us, and our fleshly bodies as well, are wasting away. Yet by the power of the indwelling in us of the Spirit of God through our baptism, each day we can confidently go forward in His Spirit, strengthened and renewed to face the day and to share the joy of the Gospel! What a wonderful time to be a Christian, and to share the joy of forgiveness and life eternal through Christ alone in such chaotic and drastic times! Brothers and sisters in Christ, do not lose heart, for as Paul writes to the church in Corinth, “So we fix our eyes not on what is seen, but on what is unseen. For what is seen it temporary, but what is unseen is eternal.” May we go forward in this month of September with hearts not lost to the trials of this world, but strong in the confidence that is found in Christ our Lord, and in Him alone.

Weekly Scripture Readings & Sermon Summaries

September, 2019

Worship for Shut-Ins

September 1, 2019 – Twelfth Sunday after Pentecost

There is a bit of the Pharisaical in each of us – diminishing God or exalting ourselves. God’s Word both condemns any attempt to place ourselves above God and reveals just how great are His ways, culminating in the life-giving cross and empty tomb of Jesus Christ. To the Pharisee within, God speaks from His Word a message of judgment and undeserved love, sternly commanding, and tenderly inviting us to Look to God.

September 8, 2019 – Thirteenth Sunday after Pentecost
Psalm 1; Deuteronomy 30:15-20; Luke 14:25-33 “The Way of Blessedness”  - Sermon Text: Psalm 1 - Rev. Dr. Walter Maier

We all want the blessed life – a life blessed by God. Psalm 1 shows us the way of blessedness. This way means blessedness for us now and hereafter.

September 15, 2019 – Fourteenth Sunday after Pentecost

Being lost seems to be part of life. Whether you’re lost when driving to some place new or lost on the internet, you’re not alone. “Being lost” spiritually, though, is a matter our Lord God is committed to – like a shepherd searching for a lost sheep.

September 22, 2019 – Fifteenth Sunday after Pentecost

In the end, when the wealth of this world fails, when the global economy collapses under the weight of its own greed, when the idol of wealth is finally exposed as the worthless fraud that it is, when you have lost everything including your own life, there at that end is only Jesus who will not fail you, welcoming you into an eternal dwelling that He won for you by trading out His life for your life.

September 29, 2019 – Sixteenth Sunday after Pentecost - St. Michael and All Angels Observed

A great battle has taken place in heaven. Michael and his angels fought against Satan and his evil angels. They were conquered by the blood of Jesus shed on Calvary’s cross for us. The same sacrifice that defeated Satan has won for us an eternal victory.
Blessings to all Guild Members,
The Fall season is closely approaching. Our September meeting will be held on Sunday, September 22nd immediately following Worship Service in the ladies parlor. Agenda items will include projects for the 2019-2020 year. Please plan to attend as we need input from everyone. God Bless and enjoy the rest of our fast and fleeing Summer.

God Bless,

Pastor Croon (708) 960-0395
www.splch.org
Chairman Pam Meyer called the meeting to order at 11:15 AM.

Pastor Croon opened with reading LSB 941 – We Praise You and Acknowledge You, O God. (Words written by Stephen Starkey.)

Motion to approve May Voter’s minutes as printed, seconded and passed unanimously.

Four letters of correspondence were received. They are from: Jean Jacobs (resigning from her duties at St. Paul’s) with family health problems, Diane Goers and Kristi Kalus resigning from the Youth Board, Gloria Graham-Smith – resigning as Sunday school superintendent – also from the Youth Board. Pam Meyer thanked Gloria Graham-Smith for her 40 years in Sunday school.

Pam Meyer told the Voter’s that we need volunteers in all phases – not necessary as a Board member.

PASTOR’S REPORT

Pastor Croon

Security/Active Shooter Information: Information is available in printed form in the Narthex. It regards our meeting several weeks back with a law enforcement representative situational awareness, security and active shooter response.

Circuit/District/Synod

Sunday, July 7 was Pastor Joel Dietrich’s last service at St. Paul’s, Beecher, as he has accepted a call to a congregation near Lincoln, Nebraska. Pastor Cory Estby, Zion, Grant Park, will be the vacancy Pastor. Pastor Croon will be working with Gary Hunte, Chairman of St. Paul’s Beecher, in forming a call committee and moving forward in the calling of a pastor at St. Paul’s, Beecher.

The 67th Convention of the LCMS will take place July 20-25 in Tampa, Florida under the theme, “Joy: Fully Lutheran.” Pastor Rock, Zion, Beecher will be our Circuit’s pastoral delegate. With Gary Hunte, St. Paul’s, Beecher, will be our Circuit’s lay delegate. The new electronic on-line voting procedure for Synodical President was in place prior to the convention. Rev. Dr. Matthew Harrison was elected to his fourth term as President after receiving the majority vote on the first ballot during the June 22-24 voting period. May God guide him and bless him as he leads our Synod forward!

Rev. Dr. Daniel Gard (USN - Admiral, ret) after faithfully serving Concordia University Chicago (CUC) as it’s president for the past four years, retired following this past academic year. Along with his wife, he’ll be returning to Ft. Wayne, IN. He’ll be guest lecturer at Concordia Theological Seminary, where he taught for over 30 years before accepting the call to CUC. May God bless this faithful servant of the Lord in his retirement years!

Pastor Estby will be filling in as the vacancy pastor at St. Paul’s (Beecher) for 6 months, plus fulfilling his position at Zion (Grant Park).

Pastor Croon strongly urged us to keep the Concordia University systems along with our Seminaries in Fort Wayne and St. Louis in our prayers.

A motion to approve Pastor’s report was made, seconded and passed unanimously.

Ray Post is our representative for the Helping Hand Committee.

A motion to approve Evangelism’s report was made, seconded and passed unanimously.

ADMINISTRATION / STEWARDSHIP

Re-Allocation of the $7000+ that was donated to St Paul’s School with very specific directives has been made. After several discussions with the donor (who originally and still wants to be anonymous) and family members the money will be allocated in the following manner;

- Evangelism: $1000
- Youth Ministry: $2000 (with a portion of that geared for high school youth participation in NID or other LCMS activities - to help them see there are other believers their age and with whom they can interact.)
- Stewardship: $500.00 (to be used for a specific program - so we can teach people about giving back to God.)

Given the financial situation the remaining balance will be directed to Current Expenses.

Glenn Stewart made a motion to accept the dollar amounts and distribute the balance of the funds to current expenses.

Judith Cohrs will represent the Stewardship Board on the Helping Hand Committee

A motion to approve the Administration/Stewardship reports was made, seconded and passed unanimously.
