In the event of illness or injury, I do hereby, consent to the Sts. Mark, Michael, Paul or Pius staff and/or volunteers to administer any necessary medical treatment. I fully understand that students are to abide by all rules and regulations governing conduct and safety while attending Totus Tuus. Any violation of these rules and regulations may result in that individual being sent home.

I/We the parent(s) of the above named child, hereby give my/our approval for his/her participation in Totus Tuus between June 9-14. I/We assume all risks and hazards incidental to the conduct of the activities and transportation to and from any parish in the Tell City Deanery. We absolve the Tell City Deanery and its pastors and any volunteer involved in the activities and transportation associated with the event from all claims of personal injury to my/our child under any theory of law resulting from transportation. I understand that my child may be photographed, unidentified in group situations; and I hereby grant permission for my child to be photographed & identified for releases to local papers and/or parish websites/social medias and/or other promotions.

YOUTH CODE OF CONDUCT & EXPECTATIONS

Participants are expected to partake in assigned activities and wear their name tags during all program activities.

Participants are expected to be courteous and kind to all teachers, adults, and other students. Fighting will not be tolerated, and will result in immediate dismissal from the program (parents will be called).

Dress during Totus Tuus is casual. Jeans, T-shirts, etc., are fine. Clothing with offensive or obscene words, pictures, symbols, etc. is not acceptable. Shirts and shoes must be worn at all sessions and meals. No halter tops or spaghetti strap tank tops are allowed, except on Friday. Shorts or skirt lengths must be appropriate (when a person is standing straight with arms hanging to side, shorts or skirt must meet or pass their fingertips). Pants must not sag.

Language and conduct should reflect the values we proclaim as Catholics.

Participants are to remain with their group at all times during Totus Tuus, unless accompanied by adult chaperones.

Socializing will take place only in the designated common areas of St. Mark. Students are not to leave the common areas.

Smoking and the use of tobacco products is not allowed by any participants during the event. Violation of this rule will result in immediate dismissal from the conference.

The possession or use of alcohol, illegal drugs or weapons will not be tolerated. Breaking this rule will mean immediate dismissal from the event. (Parents will be called.)

Please avoid the use of cell phones/pagers or other electronic devices during the sessions and Mass
