CODE OF CONDUCT

Students are expected to be present for the entire event and not leave early except in the case of illness, emergency, or prior parental permission. Students should receive permission from the youth minister before leaving early.

Students should respect other individuals and all property. This includes peers, adult volunteers, parish staff, and all buildings and grounds.

No student shall be in possession of or use tobacco products including chewing tobacco, cigarettes and e-cigarettes. No student shall be in possession of or under the influence of any alcohol or drugs. No student is permitted to bring any weapon or other materials that might endanger others.

Take a Tech Holiday! The use of cell phones and electronics is discouraged during the lock-in in order to prevent distraction from engaging with peers present on the retreat. Students have the option of leaving phones and electronics at home or are to be willing to voluntarily place their electronics in a box which will be placed in a safe place throughout the night. (Trust us, it's worth it)

These rules are to ensure that all students have fun and are present and open to each other as much as possible. Their enforcement is at the discretion of the Youth Minister.

I agree to abide by the code of conduct stated above and to cooperate with the Youth Minister and Adult volunteers to the best of my ability.
