OPENING PRAYER

God, we want to be a people who stand firm and trust you wholeheartedly. But, often our resolve is scattered and our lives are like the walls of Jerusalem, in desperate need of repair. Remind us that out of your love for us, You will always provide the means and the resources to carry us through every struggle, every tragedy, every season. Show us how to rebuild so we may become a light to those around us. Thank you for teaching us to be content in all circumstances because you are the God who provides. Amen.
