OPENING PRAYER

How blessed we are when through God's generosity and mercy, life is good for us; when our homes are places of love and sharing; when our relationships are strong and supportive; and when life's bounty is ours. However, with all these gifts, there also comes the responsibility of sharing; of using these blessings to bless other people; and to be God's Light in their dark world, so that they may find their way back to God, and a new understanding of life and living. How blessed we are by God's generosity! Amen.
