Developing strong foundations for a lasting marriage.

What is The Marriage Preparation Course?

The Marriage Preparation Course is for any engaged couple who wants to develop strong foundations for a lasting marriage.

You will look at:

- the importance of commitment
- how to recognize and appreciate your differences
- the art of communication
- resolving conflict
- spending time together
- nurturing your friendship
- making each other feel loved
- developing a good sexual relationship
- the importance of talking about your goals, values and dreams

Who is it for?

- It is for any engaged couple who wants to work at having the best possible start to their marriage.
- It doesn't matter how long you have been engaged - some couples have set a wedding date, while others have not.
- The course is based on Christian principles.

What is involved?

The course takes place Friday evening and all day Saturday.

Meals - You will join other engaged couples and a married couple known as a support couple, who will be your hosts for the course. You can chat with the others or just use the time to talk to each other. At no time will you have to disclose anything personal to anyone else.

Talk and Discussion - Live talks are given or a video of the talk viewed. The talk is interspersed with exercises and questions for you to discuss together as a couple.

Homework - You are given some homework to do together. This will help you to build on what you have learned and give you the opportunity to apply it to your relationship. Don't worry - it won't be marked! It isn't looked at by anyone else and is just for your own benefit.
