

Day 2 Reflection

Wellslee Hall

When I woke up Sunday morning, I was ready to get to Port Loyola Baptist Church. I really wanted to know what a church service was like in Belize. I thought it was going to be traditional, but it was more like Revelations at SVPC.

There were more songs than sermon, but I didn't really mind. Even though the sermon was short, it was powerful. I liked that the pastor took the guiding verse from our T-shirts. I thought that was kinda funny.

After that, I really enjoyed lunch. Mmmmmmmmm! It was so good! The cake was phenomenal! It was some of the best chocolate cake I had ever eaten.

The part I most enjoyed was being with the little kids. I love playing soccer with them. I enjoyed paintings their faces – even though they weren't that good.

I loved seeing the smiles on the children's faces when they played a game, after having their faces painted, or while doing crafts.

Seeing them happy made me happy. I am glad to be here in Belize serving the Lord.
