

Oakland Avenue Presbyterian Church
Friendship Fellowship 2018-2019 Programs
$6.00 lunch and program, 11:45am-1:00pm

September 4 - Donna Wylie, Author of Dark Corner of War

Donna's book is a biography of her uncle Charles Sumpter Wylie who served in World War II. The basis of her book comes from his letters written home to his mother and youngest sister.

October 2 - The Pottery of Bob Hasselle

Robert Hasselle, an award-winning sculptor and potter, has worked in the art field for over fifty years. In the past he has shared his expertise as an Artist in Residence, adjunct faculty member, and workshop presenter.

November 6 – Earl Wilcox, PhD, Author and Poet

Earl will share some of the poems he has written throughout the years. Come join us as he may inspire you to put your thoughts on paper as well!

December 4 - Kristen Wonderlich & Winthrop University Vocal Students

The spirit of Christmas comes alive with the voices of students from Winthrop. This program of talented singers is always a favorite!

January 8 - Music by Chip Grant and the Kudzu Kuzins

The Kudzu Kuzins, including Chip and Cindy Grant, are a group of musicians who play a variety of enjoyable selections. The Kuzins believe that, although music may not add years to your life, it can add life to your years.

February 5 - Sylvia Ayers, Exercise leader for seniors

Sylvia will share with us the many programs for seniors offered at our local YMCA, as well as lead our group in various exercises we can do at home from our chairs!

March 5 - Come-See-Me - Chad Echols, 2019 Chairman

Come hear about the 2019 festival from our own Chad Echols, who is serving this year as the volunteer chairman for the festival.

April 2 - Rev. Sam McGregor, Allison Creek Presbyterian Church

Rev. McGregor will talk with us about "Let the Land Say . . . Amen," a festival honoring the history of the Clay Hill Graveyard.

May 7 - Senior Olympics, Games for Everyone!

Join us with your competitive spirit as we end our 2018-2019 year with Senior Olympics. There will be games of all types for everyone!
