RENEW "The hurricane is one of the many challenges we faced this year. I say to my brother priests that one of our biggest challenges is not to lose hope – to not let the people lose hope. We must renew people's faith through formation. Teach people how to love Jesus, teach seminarians to serve through the sacraments. When our hope is renewed, we can show the true light of Christ."

+Bishop Luis Rafael Zarama

- Through Mass, prayer, retreats, service and formation, the faithful may deepen their relationship with God and grow spiritually.
- More than 25 seminarians from our diocese are studying to become priests and serve the sacramental needs of Catholic parishes.

When hope is renewed, women religious, brothers, clergy and the laity show the true light of Christ in their communities of faith, and beyond.

Dear Parishioners,

Catholic Charities of the Tar River Deanery is constantly exploring ways to identify and meet the needs of the poor in our area. To facilitate this, we have decided to establish an advisory board. This board would be composed of individuals and couples from the various parishes. It would have two primary roles: One, to provide input to us on the status and needs of their parish and the needy in their respective area; Two, to become familiar with the function of the regional office and help educate and involve fellow parishioners. Obviously, the board would define its mission further. Eventually, there may be a fund-raising role, but that is not the primary function of this board.

We would very much want this board to have broad representation and are looking for potential members from all the parishes in our Deanery. Please feel free to Call Liz McDowell at Catholic Charities (252)-355-5111 Ext. 207 if you are interested.
