ANNOUNCEMENTS

Due to the pandemic, starting in 2020, our parish family has been physically separated from each others' fellowship and support. Since we now are able to reunite in worship, song, and community, we will be celebrating our St. Gabriel parish reunion on Sunday, August 15th, at the 10 am Mass. I am excited to have our parish family all together again, to share in the Mass and socialize over coffee & donuts. So that all attending will feel comfortable, please recall that we have enabled social distancing as a result of adding a large screen TV for viewing Mass in classrooms #1 and 2. In recognition of our parish families who have lost friends and loved ones during the pandemic, we will be including the names of our deceased parishioners in the Mass Intentions on August 15th. I look forward to seeing everyone's smiles and to hear voices and laughing filling our Church building. I sincerely encourage everyone to reserve this date, and plan to join the celebration on August 15th.

Fr. Romen Acero
