

Partaking of the Elements at Tables
Prayers of the People and the Lord's Prayer

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

*Call to Worship

Jesus said, "I give you a new commandment, that you love one another, just as I have loved you."

On this evening Christ gathered with his disciples in the upper room.

On this evening Christ took up a basin and towel and washed his disciples' feet.
He gave us an example that we should follow.

On this evening Christ our God gave us this holy feast.

As we eat this bread and drink this cup we proclaim his holy sacrifice for us.
Together tonight, we partake of his death and resurrection.

On this night, Christ the Lamb of God gave himself into the hands of those who would put him to death.

Call to Confession

God demonstrated his own love toward us in that while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us. (Romans 5.8)

Prayer of Confession

Eternal and Gracious God, whose covenant with us is never broken, we confess to you that there have been times when we failed to do your will. Though you have bound yourself to us, we have not always acted as if we belong to you. In Jesus Christ, you demonstrate your gracious love. Even when we do not love you, nor love ourselves, nor love what we have done, you still love us! Let your loving mercy now cleanse us. Draw us again to your table, the table of true fellowship in Christ. Unite us by your Spirit to you and to one another. Teach us again how you are the bread of life, and our daily bread. We pray this in Jesus' name. Amen. (time for silent confession)

Assurance of Forgiveness

For God so loved the world that he gave his only begotten Son that whosoever believes in him will not perish but have everlasting life. For the Son did not come into the world to condemn the world, but that the world might be saved through him. (John 3.16-17)

Response: Spirit of the Living God

Spirit of the living God, Fall afresh on me:
Spirit of the living God, Fall afresh on me.
Melt me, mold me, Fill me, use me.
Spirit of the living God, Fall afresh on me.

Scripture Reading: Luke 22:24-34

*Hymn of Preparation Feed Us, Lord

Feed us, Lord. Feed us, Lord. In the broken bread, be revealed again. Come and feed our hearts, O Lord.

Quench us, Lord. Quench us, Lord. On this thirsty ground, may your love flow down. Come and quench our hearts, O Lord.

Fill us, Lord. Fill us, Lord, with the bread and wine of the risen Christ. Come and fill our hearts, O Lord.

Lead us, Lord. Lead us, Lord, nourished here by Christ, given strength for life. Come and lead our hearts, O Lord.

Prayer of Dedication (unison)

You are holy, O God of majesty, and blessed is Jesus Christ. You sent your Son, our Lord, to deliver us from the bondage of death and slavery to sin. In humility he descended from the heights of heaven to kneel in obedience to love's commands. He who is boundless takes on the bondage of our sin. He who is free takes our place in death's prison.

Now in the desert of our wanderings, he sustains us. He gives us his body as manna for our weariness. The cup of suffering has become for us the cup of salvation. In his death, he ransomed us from death's dominion; in his resurrection, he opened the way to eternal life.

Now we celebrate with these elements our communion with you and one another. Set these elements apart from their more frequent uses. Let them be to us true and lasting reminders of your body broken for us, and your blood shed for us. We remember the redemption won for us in Christ. May our lives hereafter proclaim his death and resurrection for all. Amen.
