Hymn at the Procession Jesus Christ is risen today

Hymnal 207

1. *Jesus Christ is risen today, Alleluia!
our triumphant holy day, Alleluia!
who did once upon the cross, Alleluia!
suffer to redeem our loss. Alleluia!*
2. *Hymns of praise then let us sing, Alleluia!
unto Christ, our heavenly King, Alleluia!
who endured the cross and grave, Alleluia!
sinners to redeem and save. Alleluia!*
3. *But the pains which he endured, Alleluia!
our salvation have procured, Alleluia!
now above the sky he's King, Alleluia!
where the angels ever sing. Alleluia!*
4. *Sing we to our God above, Alleluia!
praise eternal as his love, Alleluia!
praise him, all ye heavenly host, Alleluia!
Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. Alleluia!*

THE WORD OF GOD

Easter Acclamation

Celebrant: Alleluia. Christ is risen!

People: The Lord is risen indeed. Alleluia!

Hymn of Praise (all sing twice)

Taizé chant

*Raise a song of gladness, peoples of the earth.
Christ is raised, bringing peace, joy to every heart.
Alleluia, alleluia, joy to every heart.
Alleluia, alleluia, joy to every heart.*

The Collect of the Day

O God, who for our redemption gave your only-begotten Son to the death of the cross, and by his glorious resurrection delivered us from the power of our enemy: Grant us so to die daily to sin, that we may evermore live with him in the joy of his resurrection; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

The Old Testament Reading

Isaiah 65:17-25

For I am about to create new heavens and a new earth; the former things shall not be remembered or come to mind. But be glad and rejoice forever in what I am creating; for I am about to create Jerusalem as a joy, and its people as a delight. I will rejoice in Jerusalem, and delight in my people; no more shall the sound of weeping be heard in it, or the cry of distress. No more shall there be in it an infant that lives but a few days, or an old person who does not live out a lifetime; for one who dies at a hundred years will be considered a youth, and one who falls short of a hundred will be considered accursed. They shall build houses and inhabit them; they shall plant vineyards and eat their fruit. They shall not build and another inhabit; they shall not plant and another eat; for like the days of a tree shall the days of my people be, and my chosen shall long enjoy the work of their hands. They shall not labor in vain, or bear children for calamity; for they shall be offspring blessed by the Lord – and their descendants as well. Before they call I will answer, while they are yet speaking I will hear. The wolf and lamb shall feed together, the lion shall eat straw like the ox; but the serpent – its food shall be dust! They shall not hurt or destroy on all my holy mountain says the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

Psalm

118:1-2, 14-24 (Please join on the refrain)

Lindsey Nicolai and Dan Waddill, cantors

- 1 Give thanks to the Lord, for he is good;
his mercy endures for ever.
- 2 Let Israel now proclaim,
“His mercy endures for ever.” (Refrain)

- 14 The Lord is my strength and my song, and he has become my salvation.
- 15 There is a sound of exultation and victory in the tents of the righteous: (Refrain)

- 16 “The right hand of the Lord has triumphed!
the right hand of the Lord is exalted!
the right hand of the Lord has triumphed!”
- 17 I shall not die, but live,
and declare the works of the Lord.
- 18 The Lord has punished me sorely,
but he did not hand me over to death. (Refrain)

- 19 Open for me the gates of righteousness;
I will enter them;
I will offer thanks to the Lord.
- 20 “This is the gate of the Lord;
he who is righteous may enter. (Refrain)
- 21 I will give thanks to you, for you answered me and have become my salvation.
- 22 The same stone which the builders rejected has become the chief cornerstone.
- 23 This is the Lord’s doing,
and it is marvelous in our eyes.
- 24 On this day the Lord has acted;
we will rejoice and be glad in it. (Refrain)

The New Testament Reading Acts 10:34-43

Peter began to speak to Cornelius and the other Gentiles: “I truly understand that God shows no partiality, but in every nation anyone who fears him and does what is right is acceptable to him. You know the message he sent to the people of Israel, preaching peace by Jesus Christ - he is Lord of all. That message spread throughout Judea, beginning in Galilee after the baptism that John announced: how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and with power; how he went about doing good and healing all who were oppressed by the devil, for God was with him. We are witnesses to all that he did both in Judea and in Jerusalem. They put him to death by hanging him on a tree; but God raised him on the third day and allowed him to appear, not to all the people but to us who were chosen by God as witnesses, and who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead. He commanded us to preach to the people and to testify that he is the one ordained by God as judge of the living and the dead. All the prophets testify about him that everyone who believes in him receives forgiveness of sins through his name.”

Reader: The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

After the Gospel, the children are invited to follow the crucifer to Children's Chapel.
They will return for the Eucharist.

Gradual Hymn

Welcome, happy morning!

Hymnal 179 (verses 1, 2)

1. *“Welcome, happy morning!” age to age shall say:
hell today is vanquished, heaven is won today!
Lo! the dead is living, God for evermore!
Him their true Creator, all his works adore!
“Welcome, happy morning!” age to age shall say.*

2. *Earth her joy confesses, clothing her for spring,
all fresh gifts returned with her returning King:
bloom in every meadow, leaves on every bough,
speak his sorrow ended, hail his triumph now.
“Welcome, happy morning!” age to age shall say.*

Alleluia Verse      (Bells, choir, all)

The Gospel

Luke 24:1-12

Clergy: The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.

People: Glory to you, Lord Christ.

But on the first day of the week, at early dawn, they came to the tomb, taking the spices that they had prepared. They found the stone rolled away from the tomb, but when they went in, they did not find the body. While they were perplexed about this, suddenly two men in dazzling clothes stood beside them. The women were terrified and bowed their faces to the ground, but the men said to them, “Why do you look for the living among the dead? He is not here, but has risen. Remember how he told you, while he was still in Galilee, that the Son of Man must be handed over to sinners, and be crucified, and on the third day rise again.” Then they remembered these words, and returning from the tomb, they told all this to the eleven and to all the rest. Now it was Mary Magdalene, Joanna, Mary the mother of Jesus, and the other women with them who told this to the disciples. But these words seemed to them to be an idle tale, and they did not believe them. But Peter got up and ran to the tomb; stooping and looking in, he saw the linen cloths by themselves; then he went home, amazed at what had happened.

Prayers of the People - The Day of Resurrection

Leader: Jesus Christ is risen today. May all Christians everywhere rejoice in his glorious resurrection and proclaim the good news near and far.

People: We are Easter people.
May we lift our voices and proclaim Christ is risen.

Leader: Jesus Christ is risen today. In every nation anyone who fears him and does what is right is acceptable to him.

We are Easter people.
May our words and deeds,
and the words and deeds of the world's leaders, reflect the love of the One who gave his life for us all.

Leader: Jesus Christ is risen today. He is the source of light and life. We live in the world for which he gave his life.

We are Easter people.
May our lives reflect the light of Christ.
May we proclaim and embody Easter hope to those in our world who have no hope.

Leader: Jesus Christ is risen today. He knows us by name. We raise before God the names of those for whom we offer our prayers, silently, or aloud.... We entrust them all into the care of the One who knows us by name.

We are Easter people.
May we, and all those for whom we pray, hear Jesus calling us, see him, and know him.

Leader: Jesus Christ is risen today. We have been raised with Christ. With sure and certain hope in the resurrection to eternal life, we pray for all who have died, especially those in whose loving memory the Easter memorial lilies are given and those whom we now name silently or aloud.... Because of Jesus, even at the grave we make our song: Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

*We are Easter people.
Our life is hidden with Christ in God.
We look for the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.
Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia! Amen.*

The Peace

A Word about Holy Communion...

All are welcome at the altar rail,
the baptized for communion, everyone for a blessing.
*We have gluten free wafers and a separate gluten-free chalice.
When you come to the altar,
just let the clergy know you need the gluten free option.*

THE HOLY COMMUNION

Anthem at the Offertory    An Easter Song of Praise    Brad Norris
(Text: Hymn 198)

*Thou hallowed chosen morn of praise, that best and greatest shinest:
fair Easter, queen of all the days, of seasons, best, divinest!
Christ rose from death and we adore for ever and for ever more.
Alleluia!*

*Christ, being raised, will never die again; death has no power over him.
The death he died, he died once to sin; but the life he lives, he lives to God.
So we must also be dead to sin, and alive to God in Christ our Lord.
Come, let us taste the vine's new fruit, for heavenly joy preparing;
today the branches with the root in resurrection sharing:
whom as true God our hymns adore for ever and for ever more!*

Hymn at the Presentation

Hymnal 178 (verses 1, 2 4)

*Refrain: Alleluia, alleluia! Give thanks to the risen Lord.
Alleluia, alleluia! Give praise to his Name.*

1. *Jesus is Lord of all the earth.
He is the King of creation. (Refrain)*
2. *Spread the good news o'er all the earth:
Jesus has died and has risen. (Refrain)*
4. Come, let us praise the living God, joyfully sing to our Savior. (Refrain)

The Great Thanksgiving: Eucharistic Prayer C
Sanctus and Benedictus

BCP 369
Hymnal S-130

*Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might,
holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might,
heaven and earth are full, full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest. Hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest. Hosanna in the highest.*

Christ Our Passover

Hymnal S-152

Cantor: Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us.

Easter Blessing

May Almighty God, who has redeemed us and made us his children through the resurrection of his Son our Lord, bestow upon you the riches of his blessing. Amen.

May God, who through the water of baptism has raised us from sin into newness of life, make you holy and worthy to be united with Christ for ever. Amen.

May God, who has brought us out of bondage to sin into true and lasting freedom in the Redeemer, bring you to your eternal inheritance. Amen.

And the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be upon you and remain with you for ever. Amen.

Hymn at the Procession

Come, ye faithful, raise the strain

Hymnal 199

- 1. Come, ye faithful, raise the strain of triumphant gladness!
God hath brought his Israel into joy from sadness:
loosed from Pharaoh's bitter yoke Jacob's sons and daughters, led them with unmoistened foot through the Red Sea waters.*

2. *'Tis the spring of souls today: Christ hath burst his prison, and from three days' sleep in death as a sun hath risen;
all the winter of our sins, long and dark, is flying from his light, to whom we give laud and praise undying.*

3. *Now the queen of seasons, bright with the day of splendor, with the royal feast of feasts, comes its joy to render;
comes to glad Jerusalem, who with true affection welcomes in unwearied strains Jesus' resurrection.*

4. *Neither might the gates of death, nor the tomb's dark portal, nor the watches, nor the seal hold thee as a mortal:
but today amidst thine own thou didst stand, bestowing that thy peace which evermore passeth human knowing.*

Dismissal

Response:     Thanks be to God! Alleluia! Alleluia!

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Thank You

A special thank you to our musicians today: St. Andrew's Adult Choir; Peter Aiello, trumpet; and David Nastal, choral conductor.

Easter Envelopes and Mite Boxes

You may place your Easter envelope in the offering plates as they are passed and your Mite Box in a basket at the foot of the chancel steps as you come forward for communion.

Church Office

The church office will be closed, Monday, April 2 and open from 9:00 a.m. to noon Tuesday through Friday.

Alleluia: Our Word for the Season

Finally! On Easter Day, finally, we welcome the word Alleluia back into our worship – and we do so in droves! In Easter season, Alleluia is the first and last word of every Eucharist. We begin with, “Alleluia. Christ is risen,” and we end with, “Thanks be to God. Alleluia!” And in between, we sing hymns full of Alleluias. Throughout these 50 days, the word Alleluia punctuates our worship.

Alleluia is a form of Hallelujah, which comes from the Hebrew Hallel Jah, or Praise God. Praising God is a very appropriate thing for us to do – especially in Easter season, as we raise our joyous shouts of acclamation for the miracle of resurrection, the gift of new life.

We are accustomed to dropping the use of Alleluia in the somber season of Lent (although occasionally we forget – even clergy!!). But did you know that the rubrics of The Book of Common Prayer also call for a limited use of the word Alleluia in seasons other than Easter? If you look at the rubrics on pages 340 or 366, you'll see that the words Alleluia, alleluia are to be added to dismissals only in the 50 days from Easter through the Day of Pentecost. That's why our clergy add them to the dismissal only in Easter season and not all year through.

Why would the BCP limit the use of Alleluia in such a way? My guess is that saving it up only for the 50 days of Easter marks Easter as the exceptional, priceless, ultimate season that it is. We make unfettered use of the joyous word throughout these 50 days, and then we restrain ourselves so that we may celebrate more fully when the season circles around again. So let those Alleluias roar this Easter! And then let us lovingly store them up for our celebration next year.

Faithfully, Anne

Additional Announcements

Youth Sunday – May 12

The Episcopal Youth Community (EYC), which is our group of young people age 12 through senior high school, will be leading worship on Sunday, May 12. The youth will be reading the scriptures, preaching, and leading the Prayers of the People, which they have written themselves. We are excited about our youth sharing their faith with the rest of the congregation.

On May 12, we will also have our annual Acolyte Recognition and we will recognize our 2019 graduates.

Mother's Day Blessing at St. Andrew's

On Sunday, May 12, which is Mother's Day, we will have the Blessing of Mothers and Mother Figures (godmothers, grandmothers, etc.) at both the 8:00 AM and 10:30 AM services. Kids are invited to join in the blessing.

May Weekend 2019

May Weekend at Chanco is coming! It is a fun weekend retreat crafted especially for youth aged 13 through high school. Join with other teens from around the diocese for a time which will fill you with God's love and help us finish the sentence: "God's love is..." The dates and times are: check in 6 PM Friday, May 17 and depart at 11 AM Sunday, May 19. The registration fee is $135. St. Andrew's and the Diocese of Southern Virginia can help with the cost; please let the Rev. Lorna Williams know ahead of time.

Please register by Monday May 6 at the following link: www.diosova.org. Go to Youth and click on Youth Ministry, which will take you to the description of the weekend and information on how to register.

Garden Party Invitations are Out!

Have you picked yours up? If not, the invitations are available in the Main Street Lobby. And, don't forget to RSVP by May 10 at the absolute latest!

Know of someone who hasn't been able to get to church lately? Please pick up an invitation for them and offer to bring them to the party!

Friends of the St. Andrew's Garden Party

If you would like to become a Friend of the Garden Party, please make any size donation and write "Garden Party" in the memo line of your check. There is no charge for the Garden Party, but donations to the Friends of the Garden Party are sincerely appreciated and all donors will be thanked in the Garden Party program. For all who have already donated, thank you!

A Call for Photos

If you or anyone you know has photos or memorabilia from St. Andrew's at any time in its 100-year history, please scan them and send them to the History Team at nnsales@verizon.net. Any pictures of you and your family outside or inside the church are welcome. Also, if you have photos of family members who were past members of the church, we would love to have these pictures to illustrate our narrative. Thank you!

Cookies for Kairos

April 30 is fast approaching and Matt Deller, Joe DuRant, and Brad Norris need 300 dozen home baked cookies to take with them to the Kairos Prison Ministry weekend May 2-5. Please package the cookies one dozen per quart-size ziplock bag, label them "Kairos", and bring them to the church kitchen on or before noon on April 30.
