The Collect of the Day

Almighty God, on this day you opened the way of eternal life to every race and nation by the promised gift of your Holy Spirit: Shed abroad this gift throughout the world by the preaching of the Gospel, that it may reach to the ends of the earth; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

The First Lesson      Acts 2:1-21

Arabic: Marshall Booker

English: Anne Kirchmier

French: Caroline Rous

German: Dan Waddill

Jamaican: Lorna Williams

Latin: Rachel Klinger

When the day of Pentecost had come, the disciples were all together in one place. And suddenly from heaven there came a sound like the rush of a violent wind, and it filled the entire house where they were sitting. Divided tongues, as of fire, appeared among them, and a tongue rested on each of them. All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other languages, as the Spirit gave them ability. [Readings in other languages] Now there were devout Jews from every nation under heaven living in Jerusalem. And at this sound the crowd gathered and was bewildered, because each one heard them speaking in the native language of each. Amazed and astonished, they asked, "Are not all these who are speaking Galileans? And how is it that we hear, each of us, in our own native language? Parthians, Medes, Elamites, and residents of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya belonging to Cyrene, and visitors from Rome, both Jews and proselytes, Cretans and Arabs-- in our own languages we hear them speaking about God's deeds of power." All were amazed and perplexed, saying to one another, "What does this mean?" But others sneered and said, "They are filled with new wine." But Peter, standing with the eleven, raised his voice and addressed them, "Men of Judea and all who live in Jerusalem, let this be known to you, and listen to what I say. Indeed, these are not drunk, as you suppose, for it is only nine o'clock in the morning. No, this is what was spoken through the prophet Joel: 'In the last days it will be, God declares, that I will pour out my Spirit upon all flesh, and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams. Even upon my slaves, both men and women, in those days I will pour out my Spirit; and they shall prophesy. And I will show portents in the heaven above and signs on the earth below, blood, and fire, and smoky mist. The sun shall be turned to darkness and the moon to blood, before the coming of the Lord's great and glorious day. Then everyone who calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved.'”

The Psalm      104:25-35, 37

25    O Lord, how manifold are your works!
in wisdom you have made them all;
the earth is full of your creatures.

26    Yonder is the great and wide sea
with its living things too many to number,
creatures both small and great.

27    There move the ships, and there is that Leviathan,
which you have made for the sport of it.

28    All of them look to you
to give them their food in due season.

29    You give it to them; they gather it;
you open your hand, and they are filled with good things.

30    You hide your face, and they are terrified;
you take away their breath,
and they die and return to their dust.

31    You send forth your Spirit, and they are created;
and so you renew the face of the earth.

32    May the glory of the Lord endure for ever;
may the Lord rejoice in all his works.

33    He looks at the earth and it trembles;

he touches the mountains and they smoke.

34 I will sing to the Lord as long as I live;
I will praise my God while I have my being.

35 May these words of mine please him;
I will rejoice in the Lord.

37 Bless the Lord, O my soul.

The Second Lesson Romans 8:14-17

All who are led by the Spirit of God are children of God. For you did not receive a spirit of slavery to fall back into fear, but you have received a spirit of adoption. When we cry, “Abba! Father!” it is that very Spirit bearing witness with our spirit that we are children of God, and if children, then heirs, heirs of God and joint heirs with Christ-- if, in fact, we suffer with him so that we may also be glorified with him.

Gradual Hymn Like the murmur of the dove's song

Hymnal 513

- 1. Like the murmur of the dove's song, like the challenge of her flight, like the vigor of the wind's rush, like the new flame's eager might:
come, Holy Spirit, come.*
- 2. To the members of Christ's body, to the branches of the Vine, to the Church in faith assembled, to her midst as gift and sign:
come, Holy Spirit, come.*
- 3. With the healing of division, with the ceaseless voice of prayer, with the power of love and witness, with the peace beyond compare:
come, Holy Spirit, come.*

The Gospel

John 14:8-17, 25-27

Response before: Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Philip said to Jesus, “Lord, show us the Father, and we will be satisfied.” Jesus said to him, “Have I been with you all this time, Philip, and you still do not know me? Whoever has seen me has seen the Father. How can you say, ‘Show us the Father’? Do you not believe that I am in the Father and the Father is in me? The words that I say to you I do not speak on my own; but the Father who dwells in me does his works. Believe me that I am in the Father and the Father is in me; but if you do not, then believe me because of the works themselves. Very truly, I tell you, the one who believes in me will also do the works that I do and, in fact, will do greater works than these, because I am going to the Father. I will do whatever you ask in my name, so that the Father may be glorified in the Son. If in my name you ask me for anything, I will do it. If you love me, you will keep my commandments. And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Advocate, to be with you forever. This is the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot receive, because it neither sees him nor knows him. You know him, because he abides with you, and he will be in you. I have said these things to you while I am still with you. But the Advocate, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you everything, and remind you of all that I have said to you. Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you. I do not give to you as the world gives. Do not let your hearts be troubled, and do not let them be afraid.”

Response after: Praise to you, Lord Christ.

Prayers of the People for Whitsunday

Leader: Gracious God, as we gather on this Whitsunday and celebrate your gift of the Holy Spirit, we pray for the Church in all places throughout the world. May we and all Christians join in the psalmist's refrain:

People: I will sing to the Lord as long as I live;
I will praise my God while I have my being.

We pray for Michael, our Presiding Bishop and Jay, our bishop, and we ask your guidance for our diocese in the ongoing bishop search process. As we continue to celebrate our 100th year here at St. Andrew's, we give you thanks for the clergy who have served this parish: Arthur Freese, Thomas Page, Harvey Cox, Frederick Sapp, Willard Entwisle, Paul Kratzig, Francis Burke, Lloyd Clarke, Williams Moore, James King, Raymond Lawrence, Howard Saunders, Joseph Buchanan, Douglas Burgoyne, Lynn Wright, Peter Edwards-Jenks, Robert Marston, Isabel Steilberg, Pamela Webb, Mark Winward, Richard Holley, Samuel Colley-Toothaker, Rhonda Wheeler, Betty Hudson, Travis Greenman, Jennifer Kimball, Carol Chamberlain, Katherine Gray, Anne Kirchmier, and Lorna Williams.

Thank you for the ways your Holy Spirit has been at work in their ministry.

Gracious God, all of your creatures look to you to give them their food in due season. You open your hand and they are filled with good things. May the world's leaders work in concert with your good purposes for all people.

We pray especially for Donald, our President; and Ralph, our Governor.

You have promised to pour out your Spirit upon all flesh. We pray for your Spirit's healing, comforting touch to be upon those affected by the May 31 shootings in Virginia Beach; and upon all people in any sickness, need, or trouble, especially those whom we now name, silently or aloud...

You send your Spirit, and they are created;
and so you renew the face of the earth.

Everyone who calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved. Trusting in that promise, we pray for all who have died (especially...)

May they rest in peace and rise in glory.

On the day of Pentecost, all who were present heard the disciples speaking about God's deeds of power. In our own day, with the Spirit's help, may we, too, lift our voices to proclaim God's goodness in ways that people can hear.

We give you thanks for those who are being confirmed or received at Bruton Parish today, especially Helen Mitchell.

We give you thanks for all the faithful people who have been members of St. Andrew's through the years.

We give you thanks for your abundant blessings upon this congregation in our first 100 years.

Pour out your Spirit upon us now as we move into our next century.

Thank you, Lord, for the visionaries and dreamers of the past 100 years who have brought us to this place.

Give us vision and dreams, hope and courage for the years to come.

Jesus promised that he would do for us anything that we ask in his name.

May all our asking and all of our desires be in your name, Lord Jesus.

O Lord, how manifold are your works! May the glory of the Lord endure forever.

Bless the Lord, O my soul! Amen.
