Announcements

Processional Hymn My Jesus, My Savior

*My Jesus, my Savior, Lord, there is none like you.
All of my days I want to praise
the wonders of your mighty love.
My comfort, my shelter, tower of refuge and strength.
Let every breath, all that I am never cease to worship you.
Shout to the Lord, all the earth let us sing
power and majesty, praise to the King.
Mountains bow down and the seas will roar
at the sound of your name.
I sing for joy at the work of your hands,
forever I'll love you, forever I'll stand.
Nothing compares to the promise I have in you. (Repeat)

Collect of the Day

O God, whose Son Jesus is the good shepherd of your people: Grant that when we hear his voice we may know him who calls us each by name, and follow where he leads; who, with you and the Holy Spirit, lives and reigns, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

The Epistle

Acts 9:36-43

Susan Sale

Now in Joppa there was a disciple whose name was Tabitha, which in Greek is Dorcas. She was devoted to good works and acts of charity. At that time she became ill and died. When they had washed her, they laid her in a room upstairs. Since Lydda was near Joppa, the disciples, who heard that Peter was there, sent two men to him with the request, "Please come to us without delay." So Peter got up and went with them; and when he arrived, they took him to the room upstairs. All the widows stood beside him, weeping and showing tunics and other clothing that Dorcas had made while she was with them. Peter put all of them outside, and then he knelt down and prayed. He turned to the body and said, "Tabitha, get up." Then she opened her eyes, and seeing Peter, she sat up. He gave her his hand and helped her up. Then calling the saints and widows, he showed her to be alive. This became known throughout Joppa, and many believed in the Lord. Meanwhile he stayed in Joppa for some time with a certain Simon, a tanner.

The Gospel John 10:22-30

Roman Klinger & Tableau by Youth

The congregation may close their eyes and open them when you hear a chime.

At that time the festival of the Dedication took place in Jerusalem. It was winter, and Jesus was walking in the temple, in the portico of Solomon. So the Jews gathered around him and said to him, “How long will you keep us in suspense? If you are the Messiah, tell us plainly.” Jesus answered, “I have told you, and you do not believe. The works that I do in my Father's name testify to me; but you do not believe, because you do not belong to my sheep. My sheep hear my voice. I know them, and they follow me. I give them eternal life, and they will never perish. No one will snatch them out of my hand. What my Father has given me is greater than all else, and no one can snatch it out of the Father's hand. The Father and I are one.”

Thank You, Maggie

Maggie Mahloy, who is a longtime parishioner of St. Andrew's, will be leaving her position as EYC Youth Minister to further her education. Maggie has wonderfully served our little ones in the Nursery and our youth in EYC for several years, and we are grateful for her ministry and strong faith in Christ. May God continue to bless her in her future endeavors.

Dear Friends,

Periodically I hear from parishioners who miss the Morning Prayer service, with its lovely cadences and canticles. Morning Prayer is part of the Daily Office, the set of worship services intended for all Episcopalians to pray each day. Longtime Episcopalians (like me!) grew up with Morning Prayer as the usual Sunday liturgy, a practice begun when there were not enough clergy to lead Sunday morning worship and so communion was not possible. The Book of Common Prayer, crafted and adopted in the 1970's, returned us to the pattern of the Early Church, where Holy Eucharist was the normative form of Christian worship.

In January, we marked the start of our 100th year with a service of Morning Prayer from the 1892 Book of Common Prayer. Afterward, a number of folks mentioned how much they liked that liturgy.

After thinking it over, I decided to schedule two more Morning Prayer Sundays this year—Morning Prayer Rite I this coming Sunday, May 19; and Morning Prayer Rite II in November. Both services will end with Holy Eucharist so that we do not miss out on the Lord's Supper.

Whether Morning Prayer is familiar to you or is something altogether new in your experience, I pray that our worship with it will be a blessing to you.
—Anne
