

Grant Background and Applicant Eligibility Information

The Carolyn Lackey Trust is administered by St. Andrew's Episcopal Church, Newport News, VA. The fund provides yearly grants to assist the needy with an emphasis on programs for youth and the homeless, whether locally or overseas. Ms. Lackey's stated intentions specified St. Paul's outreach ministry, LINK, PORT and the Foodbank. The Lackey steering group, which reviews grant applications, is guided by the principle that "Our money follows our people out into the world."

Eligible Applicants: Any non-profit or religious-based organization located within the Hampton Roads community (Peninsula and Southside).

Grant Amounts: Awards could be as much as $2000 depending on the amount of money available to disburse and the number of organizations determined successful applicants.

Award Criteria: Applications will be evaluated based on the following:

1. Applicant organization's work focuses on the local community in some way, or if the organization's focus is global and not local, its origins or roots connect to the local area in some tangible way.
2. Preference may be given to those organizations whose missions emphasize outreach to youth and the homeless.
3. Preference will be given to projects that describe how the grant money will "live on" for the organization and in the community versus projects where this grant's impact will be short-lived and less enduring.

Applications must be received by Friday, 30 November 2018.**
