4:30 pm A/B

Every state in today's global system has its own laws and policies about who is permitted to cross its borders, and how they will do so. Who determines whether someone is a refugee or a migrant? How have different countries, including the U.S., reacted to migration? How effective are the international laws, policies, and organizations that have evolved to assist and protect refugees and migrants? ALC member, Ann Jones, will give us an overview of this complex subject.

4:30 pm Sanctuary

The Supreme Court of the United States (SCOTUS) continues to play an important and frequently controversial role in our society. What does the Constitution say about SCOTUS? Earl Hardy, attorney, teacher and coach, and a teacher with the Life Long Learning program, will be speaking.
