

SANKATY HEAD GOLF CLUB, NANTUCKET

Round of golf & lunch for 3

Sankaty Head Golf Club is one of the Eastern-most golf courses in Massachusetts, perched on the edge of Nantucket Island in Siasconset, Massachusetts. The course was designed by Emerson Armstrong and opened in 1923. It is one of the few examples of world-class links-style golf outside of the UK. The Atlantic wraps around 270 degrees and the famous Sankaty Head Lighthouse looms over the front nine.

Enjoy golf for three on this extraordinary course. Your host, either Paige Vincent or Arthur Gosnell, will be your fourth. After golf, head to the clubhouse to enjoy a lovely lunch and the ocean breeze.
