POSITION ANNOUNCEMENT Organist

First Presbyterian Church of Rock Hill, South Carolina, seeks a person to serve as organist.

Description: Part-time, 8-10 hours weekly, single worship service Sundays at 11:00 a.m. (summer months may move to 10:00 a.m.) and Chancel Choir rehearsals either Wednesdays at 7:00 p.m. or Sundays at 9:30 a.m. depending on the seasons.

Duties: Planning and preparing appropriate organ music for the weekly service with extra services during Advent/Christmas and Lent/Easter seasons; attend and accompany weekly rehearsals of the Chancel Choir; accompany children's choirs as required when they sing for worship; accompany soloists and/or instrumentalists as required; play for weddings and funerals as requested (for additional compensation). Three-weeks' vacation annually.

Organ: Three-manual, 33-stop, 40-rank 1960 Möller organ installed in 1961 (console rebuilt, Matters memory system added, tonal refinement by Daniel Angerstein – 1995).

Qualifications: Extensive experience as an accomplished church organist, strong choral music sight-reading skills, understanding of the role of an organist in reformed worship, ability to work well with colleagues and supervisors, amicable personality.

The Church: First Presbyterian (PCUSA) has a long and distinguished tradition of providing quality sacred music in Rock Hill. The 365-member downtown campus boasts an Akron-design sanctuary (1894) and an education building/gymnasium (1999) that provide outstanding facilities located in the heart of Rock Hill's vibrant downtown.

Compensation: Negotiable, dependent upon training and experience.

Prospective candidates should send a letter of intent and a current resumé to:
