

Nomination
for
Augusta Jeffrey Memorial Award

Guidelines: The family of Augusta Jeffrey has presented First Presbyterian Church with a fund from which a recognition award is to be presented each year to a member for outstanding volunteer efforts within the Church and through its programs. Nominees will be reviewed by a committee appointed by the Board of Deacons, and an award winner selected by a consensus, according to the information provided on this form. You may nominate more than one person, but please limit your nominations to only one person per category. This nomination form must be filled out completely to be accepted.

Each year, the winner of the Augusta Jeffrey Memorial Award will designate an honor gift to the area of ministry in which the Church is engaged that they deem most worthy. A list of possible recipients of this memorial fund will be provided to winners to choose from, but choices will not be limited to the list. The names of all nominees will be published after the award is given.

Nomination: I nominate the following member of First Presbyterian Church for outstanding service:

This award is not intended as a competition, but as an opportunity for us, the congregation, to examine where our priorities lie within the church and to recognize those persons we feel contribute significantly to their advancement.

It is our sincere wish that each of you will participate in the spirit which the gift is given. Augusta Jeffrey served the Church unselfishly over many years, and this is her legacy in helping us to model ourselves after others who consistently provide exemplary service as people of God.
