Every Perfect Gift

What is the best gift you have ever received?

This is the question that the designers of The Episcopal Stewardship Network ask in their theological reflection on the theme for this year, Every Perfect Gift. The image they chose is that of the butterfly and chrysalis.

The butterfly represents rebirth and freedom. The Greek word for butterfly is psyche, a word that also translates as spirit. The butterfly represents spiritual transformation that can and does occur in us and sets us free to discover God's grace in generous acts of giving. St. Richard's provides the spiritual home where many of us have experienced a spiritual transformation that inspires us to give of ourselves, our time and talent and treasure. Those spiritual changes in ourselves often lead to a change in the wider world.

What is the best gift I have ever received? The gift of the St. Richard's Community. You have been a gift from above that has inspired me to love because of your great love, inspired my children to give of their time and talent and treasure without condition because that is the example you have set for them.

Your pledge is a gift that ensures this community will not just survive but continue to flourish in new and beautiful ways. Thank you for giving the Perfect Gift of St. Richard's Community to the world.

In the spirit of generosity and love,
The Rev. Alison P. Harrity
