

Saturday, August 8, 2020

Psalm 90 Teach us to number our days aright, that we may gain a heart of wisdom. (v.12)

Our children are growing up! Our oldest son recently finished college, and his siblings will soon follow. As each one has approached the time for high school graduation, so many verses from this psalm sound like my heartfelt prayers for them. Would you join me in ending our weeklong devotions by praying God's word over our children, our spouses, and all our loved ones? Heavenly Father, You are our dwelling place. Keep us and those we love close to You, where we may hear Your voice and obey Your commands without delay, and with joy. Remind us every morning of Your unfailing love, and draw us near to You when temptations assault our minds and disturb our hearts. Fill our lips with Your Truth, that we may draw one another toward good deeds because we know and love You. Reveal Yourself to us as we pray, dear Lord, and give us the zeal of Jesus for Your house and the boldness of Mary, Peter, and Paul in prayer. Teach us to number our days aright, that our hearts may be wise. May Your favor rest upon us, and may we serve one another with charity and selfless hearts, to the glory of Your name. Amen.

Judges 9:22-25, 50-57; Psalm 87; Acts 4:32—5:11; John 2:13-25

Today's Anniversaries

Wiley Aids & Patti Wallace, John Henze & Leigh Morris

Today's Calendar

8:00 am Brotherhood of St. Andrew Meeting via Zoom

Calendar for August 9, 2020

Tenth Sunday after Pentecost

10:30 am Compassion Camp VBS Online

Rite II Spiritual Communion with Bambi
Subscribe to our YouTube channel

<https://www.youtube.com/channel/UCL2SQhSIT-4rhMPQuuy8Dvw>

2:00 pm Youth Group via ZOOM

TRINITY PRAYER LIST

Please remember in your daily prayers the following people who are sick or recuperating:

New names this week are listed in bold.

Adam; Caroline; Davis; Debbie; Deborah; Debra; Frank; Janet; Jon; Kathleen; Laura; Marci; Mario; Mike; Nancy; Paula; Rachel; Raymond; Rich; Richard; Robert; Rusty; Sharon; Tom; Vaughan; Susan Anderson; Chuck B.; Anne Barge; Maria Barnhart; Michael Barrett; Nancy Byrum; Sharon D.; Ron Dobey; Neil Edwards; Bill Farr; Allan Feliciano; Pearle Galatas; Rose Gallup; Dorothy Gassel; Alice & Don Glover; Joanne Graves; Tony Griswold; Barbara Harkins; Bunny Harris; Emily Hinkley; Dora & Leonard Holman; Stephen Holman; Jack McGraw; William McSpadden; Winifred Relyea; Marianne Simpson; Anne Smith; John & Sarah Swart; Denise Symonds; Dan Tallett; John Thompson; May Jane Tillman; Sheila Vickers -Smith; Carlin, Teara & Caia Venaglia; Kelly Weber; Debbie Wheeler.

In the Anglican Cycle of Prayer we pray for the new Province of Alexandria and in the Diocesan Cycle of Prayer we pray for the Lutheran, Anglican, Roman Catholic and United Methodist dioceses, synods and conferences, and for the Episcopal Church and the Anglican Communion.

Please let Denise, the Office Manager, know if you or a loved one need to be added to the prayer list and also call when that person has recovered so she can remove them from the list. You can email her at dsymonds@trinity-fredericksburg.org or call (540) 373-2996.

TRINITY EPISCOPAL CHURCH

FREDERICKSBURG, VIRGINIA

GOOD NEWS by Amaryllis Sánchez Wohlever, MD

Used with permission from the Bible Reading Fellowship

P.O. Box 380 Winter Park, FL 32790

Devotional readings for each day

Parish birthdays; anniversaries; calendar; and prayer list

Sunday, August 2, 2020

Judges 6:1-24 So Gideon built an altar to the Lord there and called it The Lord is Peace. (v.24a NIV)

The angel of the Lord appeared to Gideon and exclaimed, "The Lord is with you, mighty warrior" (v.12). This remarkable greeting opened a conversation in which Gideon asks good questions and declares himself weak. In fact, he laments, "My clan is the weakest in Manasseh, and I am the least in my family" (v.15). What follows is even more remarkable than the greeting from the angel. Did you notice? Whereas the angel addressed Gideon at first, the Lord Himself replied to his expressions of humility and reverence. I find the Lord's words reassuring and His actions mystifying. In verse 16, He declares, "I will be with you," which is amazing enough. And when Gideon asks for a sign that it is really the Lord speaking and asks for time to bring an offering, the Lord replies, "I will wait until you return" (v.18). What an encouraging thought to recognize God sees us, hears us, and even waits for us! In our uncertainty, may we remember He is faithful. When we feel alone, may we recall God is with us, whether we sense His nearness or not. In His presence is our peace.

Psalms 93, 96; 2 Corinthians 9:6-15; Mark 3:20-30

Calendar for Sunday, August 2, 2020

Ninth Sunday after Pentecost

10:30 am Compassion Camp VBS Online

Please join Bambi for Rite II Spiritual Communion
this morning.

Subscribe to our YouTube channel

<https://www.youtube.com/channel/UCL2SQhSIT-4rhMPQuuy8Dvw>

2:00 pm Youth Group via ZOOM

Monday, August 3, 2020

John 1:1-18 From the fullness of his grace we have all received one blessing after another. (v.16)

As the Gospel according to John opens, we see Jesus exalted as the God who is with us and for us. The author reminds us that from the fullness of his grace we have all received blessing upon blessing. While reading that verse, my mind took me on a heartwarming journey of recalling one blessing after another. Like the blessing of being raised by loving parents. Like the tiny neighborhood church where my faith was ignited as a little girl, and the school where knowledge was added to faith, and prayer and worship watered the seeds that were planted. So many faces of loved ones came to mind—friends and family, even coworkers who are now as close as siblings. I recalled my sweet pets, kind neighbors, and the joy of meaningful work and using my gifts to bless others. I thanked God for the gift of health and the ability to see my beautiful children, hold hands with my husband, behold a sunrise, hear songs, smell roses, and walk, run, and dance! “Praise be to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us in the heavenly realms with every spiritual blessing in Christ” (Ephesians 1:3). May our lives be expressions of our grateful hearts.

Judges 6:25-40; Psalm 80; Acts 2:37-47

Today’s Calendar

Tuesday, August 4, 2020

John 1:19-28 “I am the voice of one calling in the desert, ‘Make straight the way for the Lord.’” (v.23)

John the Baptist’s ministry succeeded. He was the voice calling in the desert, “Make straight the way for the Lord” (John 1:23). He proclaimed one who was so worthy of worship that untying his sandals would be an unspeakable honor. John’s message came on a certain day in Bethany, on the other side of the Jordan River. While baptizing people there, he announced the one he knew was coming. And then, we are told, the very next day, John saw Jesus coming toward him and praised him as the very Lamb of God! I find this story so encouraging. Why? As we preach the gospel ... as we speak of Jesus ... as we proclaim his goodness and praise his faithfulness and announce his coming ... one day, we get to see him coming toward us! One day we get to say with John, “Look, the Lamb of God who took away my sins! Behold, my Savior lives, so I, too, live. Hallelujah!”

Judges 7:1-18; Psalm 78:1-39; Acts 3:1-11

Today’s Birthdays

Phyllis Rundman

Today’s Anniversaries

Harvey & Carolyn Allen, Michael & Robin Barrett,
Chris & Sarah Eckenrode

Today’s Calendar

10:30am Compassion Camp Check-In

Wednesday, August 5, 2020

John 1:29-42 “I myself did not know him, but the reason I came baptizing with water was that he might be revealed to Israel.” (v.31)

All over the Bible, from beginning to end, we see the central role of revelation—an unveiling, often in a surprising or supernatural way, of something previously not known. We do not know, yet God reveals. We are in the dark, and God shines a light. We are lost, then we are found. We swim in lies, and God comes to us as Truth—in Jesus. For John the Baptist, seeing the truth of the one who was coming appears to have been a striking event, like Paul’s experience on his way to Damascus (Acts 9) or Enoch’s departure from earth (Genesis 5:21-24). John said, “I saw the Spirit come down from heaven as a dove and remain on (Jesus) ... I have seen and I testify that this is the Son of God” (John 1:32-34). In 2 Corinthians 4, Paul writes, “The god of this age has blinded the minds of unbelievers, so that they cannot see the light of the gospel of the glory of Christ, who is the image of God.... For God, who said, ‘Let light shine out of darkness,’ made his light shine in our hearts to give us the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Christ” (vv.4-6). God’s revelation enlightens darkened minds, and we see Jesus. “Knowledge of the Holy One is understanding” (Proverbs 9:10b).

Judges 7:19—8:12; Psalm 119:97-120; Acts 3:12-26

Today’s Birthdays

Michael Barrett, Wade Caple, Amy MacIssac

Today’s Anniversaries

Wendell & Sandra Anderson, Kirk & Lorraine Richardson

Today’s Calendar

Morning Prayer with Bambi
5:00 pm Campus Ministry online

Thursday, August 6, 2020

Psalm 145 The Lord is faithful to all his promises and loving toward all he has made. (v.13b)

From now on, I will call Psalm 145 the “all” psalm. Did you notice this word repeat? I counted 15 appearances. Our God, the one who sits enthroned on high yet stoops down to look on His creation (Psalm 113:6) cares about all of us, no exceptions. He is the God of All. While we waste time dividing ourselves into groups, parties, and cliques, God sees each of us, and knows all of us. The psalmist reminds us the Lord is good and compassionate to all (v.9) and faithful to all his promises (v.13). He is loving toward all He has made (vv.13, 17), upholds all who fall, and lifts up all who are bowed down (v.14). He is righteous in all his ways (v.17) and near to all who call on Him in truth (v.18). He watches over all who love Him, yet all the wicked will be destroyed (v.20). Yes, that last “all” is not uplifting, but it highlights how, throughout the psalm, a relationship is apparent. In response to God’s love and faithfulness, we are to praise and extol our Lord (v.10). All our eyes are to look to Him, that we may enjoy His provision (v.15) and the safety of His embrace. The God of all wants our whole heart—all of it.

Judges 8:22-35; Acts 4:1-12; John 1:43-51

Today’s Birthdays

Kelly Carniol

Today’s Calendar

Friday, August 7, 2020

John 2:2-12 His mother said to the servants, “Do whatever he tells you.” (v.5)

“Do whatever he tells you.” These words of Mary launched Jesus’ public ministry. Through the miracle at the wedding in Cana, Jesus revealed his glory, and his disciples put their faith in him (v.11). As soon as I noted this miracle began with Mary’s command to the servants to obey Jesus, I wondered, what is Jesus telling me to do that perhaps I have not yet done? This question is, of course, not as simple as it sounds because to obey Jesus, we must stay close enough to hear and learn to discern his voice. We must be in relationship. The servants obeyed Jesus. As instructed, they filled the jars with water, drew some out, and took it to the banquet master. That was it. The servants didn’t realize the water had turned to wine, in part, through their obedience. “But we have this treasure in jars of clay to show that this all-surpassing power is from God and not from us” (2 Corinthians 4:7). As Christians, we are walking jars of clay filled by the Spirit of the living God. As we pray boldly to step out into whatever Jesus is calling us to do, he will empower us by the Spirit, that his glory may be revealed. Like Peter and the disciples, we can trust the one who makes the ordinary, extraordinary.

Judges 9:1-16, 19-21; Psalm 88; Acts 4:13-31

Today’s Birthdays

Ruth Brancolini

Today’s Calendar