PROCESSION	"Glorious Things of Thee Are Spoken"	H 523
THE HOLY EUCHARIST, RITE II		pg. 355

The people standing.

Celebrant: Blessed be God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

People: And Blessed be his kingdom, now and for ever. Amen.

Together: Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE GLORIA S 280

THE COLLECT OF THE DAY

Celebrant: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Celebrant: Let us pray.

Let your continual mercy, O Lord, cleanse and defend your Church; and, because it cannot continue in safety without your help, protect and govern it always by your goodness; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

THE FIRST READING Ephesians 4:1-16 (NRSV)

THE PSALM Psalm 51:1-13

Have mercy on me, O God, according to your loving-kindness;
in your great compassion blot out my offenses.
Wash me through and through from my wickedness
and cleanse me from my sin.
For I know my transgressions,
and my sin is ever before me.
Against you only have I sinned
and done what is evil in your sight.
And so you are justified when you speak
and upright in your judgment.

Indeed, I have been wicked from my birth,
a sinner from my mother's womb.
For behold, you look for truth deep within me,
and will make me understand wisdom secretly.
Purge me from my sin, and I shall be pure;
wash me, and I shall be clean indeed.
Make me hear of joy and gladness,
that the body you have broken may rejoice.
Hide your face from my sins
and blot out all my iniquities.
Create in me a clean heart, O God,
and renew a right spirit within me.
Cast me not away from your presence and take not your holy Spirit from me.
Give me the joy of your saving help again and sustain me with your bountiful Spirit.

THE GOSPEL

John 6: 24-35

All Standing.

THE SERMON

The Rev. Cynthia McKenna

THE NICENE CREED

All Standing.

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.
We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father; through him, all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven: by the power of the holy spirit, he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary and was made man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day, he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. With the Father and the Son is worshiped and glorified. He has spoken through the prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

THE PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Pg. 387

Leader: Standing, sitting or kneeling, let us pray for our needs for the needs of others.

Leader: Almighty God, you have promised to hear when we pray. Therefore in confidence and trust we lift our hearts to you.

Leader: We pray for the church:

for the Anglican Communion; for the Episcopal Church and our Presiding Bishop; for our diocese; for this parish and her leaders.

God of grace: enliven the church for its mission, breathe fresh life into your people.
that we may share your love and light with all the world.

We pray for the world:
for healing of illness, peaceful resolution of conflict, and a shared commitment to the common good.

God of justice: lead all people into the ways of justice and peace.
that we may respect one another in freedom and truth.

We pray for the community:
for our city and county leaders, for the health and resilience of our neighborhoods.

Give grace to all whose lives are linked with ours.
May we serve Christ in one another, and love as he loves us.

We pray for those in need healing, protection, and peace:

For those home-bound or in long-term care:

For all who serve in the armed forces:

For those expecting the birth of a child:

God of healing: restore all who suffer in body, mind and spirit.
May they know the power of your healing love.

We pray for those who have died.

God of hope: give comfort to those who mourn.
Bring them peace in their time of loss.

The leader and the congregation conclude with this prayer:

Together, let us pray:

Gracious God; Source of Life; Holy One; you have called us to abide with you as you are revealed in one another and through all creation. Grant that as we walk in your presence we may know your love in our hearts, your truth in our minds, your strength in our wills; may we enter the fullness and welcome of your divine embrace, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE CONFESSION OF SIN

Celebrant: Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.
Silence may be kept.

Minister and People:

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart;

we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. Amen.

“Come, Ye Disconsolate”

A PRAYER FOR THOSE UNABLE TO RECEIVE COMMUNION IN PERSON

In union, O Lord, with your faithful people at every altar of your Church, where the Holy Eucharist is now being celebrated, I desire to offer to you praise and thanksgiving. I remember your death, Lord Christ; I proclaim your resurrection; I await your coming in glory. Since I cannot receive you today in the Sacrament of your Body and Blood, I beseech you to come spiritually into my heart. Cleanse and strengthen me with your grace, Lord Jesus, and let me never be separated from you. May I live in you, and you in me, in this life and in the life to come. Amen.

All are welcome at the Lord's Table!

THE PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION

Eternal God, heavenly Father, you have graciously accepted us as living members of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ, and you have fed us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood. Send us now into the world in peace, and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you with gladness and singleness of heart; through Christ our Lord. Amen.
