Director of Children and Youth Ministries

The Director of Children and Youth Ministries (DCYM) position at Bethesda Presbyterian Church is an essential position that ministers to children ages 3 through 12th grade. The DCYM works collaboratively with, and under the direction of, the Director of Christian Education to coordinate the Bethesda Youth Group, Children's Church, children and youth Sunday school classes, Wednesday afternoon activities, vacation bible school, and other special events throughout the year. Serves as the main point of contact for communication with volunteers and parents. The ideal candidate would be personally committed to Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior, must be able to establish and maintain relationships with persons of all age groups – children through adults, possess strong organizational skills, proficient computer/technical skills, and potentially have a degree in a related field. A detailed position description is available upon request.
