PRAYER OF CONFESSION

You call us, O God, but we seldom hear. When we do hear, we are often reluctant to respond. When we do respond, we are often afraid to follow your direction. Our sin pulls us away from You, yet You won't give up on us. Remove the obstacles that keep us from the life You intend for us. Help us to receive your call with our whole hearts, so we may do your work and give You glory, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

ANTHEM

We Sing The Mighty Power of God

English Traditional Melody
arr. Pooler

Chancel Choir

We sing the mighty pow'r of God, that made the mountains rise; that spread the flowing seas abroad and built the lofty skies. We sing the wisdom that ordained the sun to rule the day; The moon shines full at his command, and all the stars obey. We sing the goodness of the Lord, that filled the earth with food; He formed the creatures with His word, and then pronounced them good. Lord, how thy wonders are displayed wherever men cast their eye: If we survey the ground we tread, or gaze upon the sky. There's not a plant or flower but makes thy glories known; and clouds arise and tempests blow by order from thy throne. While all that borrows life from thee is ever in thy heav'nly care, wherever that man can be, Thou, God, art present there.

Come, O Thou Traveler Unknown

Scottish Melody
setting Scott

Rachel Moss, soprano

Come, O thou traveler unknown, whom still I hold, but cannot see; My company before is gone, and I am left alone with thee; With thee all night I mean to stay, and wrestle till the break of day. I need not tell thee who I am; My sin and misery declare; Thyself hast called me by my name; Look on thy hands, and read it there. But who, I ask thee, who art thou? Tell me thy name and tell me now. 'Tis Love! Thou diedst for me! I hear thy whisper in my heart; the morning breaks, the shadows flee; Pure, universal love thou art. To me, to all, thy mercies move; Thy nature and thy name is Love.

Charles Wesley, 1707-1788
