Dear Pastor Stevens and Northside Baptist Church,
 Thank you so much for your visits, cards, and flowers while I was in the hospital and recovering at home. Thank you especially for your prayers; your kindness was greatly appreciated.

With love, Carol Dixon

Hey...it's Summer!

Do you know what special activities your Missionary has going on this summer? Why not find out so you can share those prayer requests with the entire church?

Are you having difficulty getting your Missionary to respond to you? Well, you may not have the correct address...e-mail or postage. Check with the church office to see if what you are using is correct or contact the Mission Board under which your Missionary serves.

Sometimes it may seem difficult to make contact with your missionary initially. But remember, Missionaries are busy people like everyone else. You may have to send two or three cards or e-mail messages before they understand that you are interested in their ministry. A small, inexpensive gift package to the Missionary's wife or children could pay great dividends in your relationship with your Missionary.

Let's, make a concerted effort to initiate and maintain contact with our Missionaries under our Adopt-A-Missionary Program this summer. Remember, adopting a Missionary is the next best thing to being on the mission field yourself.

Dear Northside Family,
 I finally have a moment to thank you for the expressions of your love during the passing of Joe's step-dad. Your thoughtfulness was a good testimony to Joe's family--many of whom are lost. We miss you much and will be back in August.

Love in Christ,
 Joe, Annie, and Josh Johnson

Thank you

Pastor Harry would like to thank all those who supported the youth car wash. All proceeds will be used to help those who worked apply money toward their camp fee. Thank you so much for helping these young people.
